Mae is the Occupational Therapy Secretary and Rebecca Sue will be conferred the Bachelor of Arts Degree in Psychology.

Scouts compete in District Swim Meet

Over 100 Boy Scouts from the 10 area Troops recently competed in the Mountain Pathfinder District Annual Swim Meet at the Wyoming Valley West High School pool. Each year the District sponsors swim meets, camporees and other activities to supplement the program of the individual Troops.

The meet's nine competitive events provided Scouts an opportunity to demonstrate swimming skills and lifesaving techniques. A variety of events provided competition for different age groups and various skill levels. Swimmers demonstrated their skills in the Open Free Style Relay, Four Stroke Relay and Diving events. Other events were the Inner Tube Relay, Scrub Free Style, Tenderfoot Sprint, Trouser Inflation, Tenderfoot Sidestroke Relay and Big Splash contest.

Parents and leaders served as lane judges and time keepers. Troops competed for team points, and trophies were awarded at the conclusion of the meet.

Competing in this year's events were: St. Mary's Church, Swoyersville, Troop 144; Trucksville Methodist Church, Troop 155; Larksville Volunteer Fire Company 1490,

Troop 245; First United Methodist Church, Plymouth, Troop 247; Dallas United Methodist Church, Troop 281; Immaculate Conception Church, West Pittston, Troop 302; First Baptist Church, Wyoming, Troop 321; United Methodist Church, Centermoreland, Troop 336; First United Methodist Church, West Pittston, Troop 352; and Church of the Nativity, Tunkhannock, Troop 518.

Trophies were awarded for first place to Troop 336, Centermoreland; second place to Troop 518, Tunkhannock; and third place to Troop 302, West Pittston, by Chairman, Edward Dreisbach.
