Walking nurses

Dallas Intermediate School PTO meets

Dallas Intermediate School P.T.O. met recently with President Nancy Delinsky presiding.

Mrs. Delinsky conducted a short business meeting and presented the following slate of officers for the 1984-85 school year: President, Peggy Phillips, vice president, Eleanor Yanalunas, secretary, Donna Kachmar and treasurer, Sandra Richardson. There were no nominations from the floor and the slate of officers were elected unanimously.

Sharon Dietz, Sales Representative of Holt, Rinehart and Winston gave a presentation of the New Holt Science Series the Dallas School District is adopting.

Larry and Jane Griffin gave a talk on Drug and Alcohol Use as seen by their students.

Parents were then asked to view the student art show.

Shooting contest

Spelling bee held

The English Department of the Dallas Junior High School recently conducted the grande finale of its seventh grade spelling curriculum by preparing for and conducting its third annual Jane Stitzer Memorial Spelling Bee. The contest is dedicated to the memory of Jane Millen Stitzer, who served as an instructor in the Art Department from 1969 until her death in 1981. Master of Ceremonies Gordon Schlier, guidance counselor at the junior high, commemorated her service to the school at the auditorium competition. Pictured are, from left, first row, Dorothy Dodson, Stacie Kile, Stephanie Pellam-Spelling Bee Grand Champion, Rachel Holthaus, and Donna Compton; second row, Daniel M. Poorman, Principal; Sandra Corcoran, Alan Landis, Julie Ann Orlowski, Jimmie Lister and Lisa Strohl.

Local students win third place in math contest

Competing with top schools in the state in the Pennsylvania Mathematics League's Annual Elementary Grades Contest, the Dallas Intermediate School's Sixth Grade Team, of Alex Case, Harry Haskell, Tara Ehst, Darren Michael, and Roseanne Rostock, was recently notified that their team had placed 3rd in Luzerne County.

The team members scored 151 points out of a possible 200, which placed them in the first quartile in the state. A team must score at least 132 points or better to be in the first quartile.

Other high scores were made by Jerry Searfoss of the fifth grade and Eric Lehman of the fourth grade.

Congratulations CLASS of '84

The path to success is a two-way street. Aim for the best and give it your best! Your graduation has opened the book of life to a fresh new page, the beginning of a new chapter, and each of you shall determine what will be recorded there!
