

DR. JULE AYERS

Meadows dedicated in honor of Dr. Jule Ayers

Attorney Sol Lubin, President of Ecumenical Enterprises, Inc., has announced that the Meadows Nursing Center, 55 West Center Hill Road, in Dallas, was formally dedicated on May 30 in honor of Dr. Jule Ayers, former pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Wilkes-Barre and the major catalyst in the formation of EEI.

The Meadows Nursing Center, which is part of the larger 15 acres Meadows Geriatric Campus, is a 120 bed facility for skilled nursing care that was officially opened on Aug. 31, 1983.

According to Attorney Lubin, the dedication of the Center to Dr. Ayers was proclaimed by EEI's Board of Directors not only because of his initiation of the organization, but also because of his leadership in promoting the development of the Nursing Center itself.

The dedication ceremony was conducted in the Community Room of the Meadows Apartments — a 120-apartment structure for the elderly and handicapped located directly adjacent to the Nursing Center.

Principals for the ceremony were Atty. Lubin; Dr. Ellis W. Roberts, EEI Vice president; Monsignor Donald A. McAndrews, EEI Treasurer; Reverend Lynn H. Rothrock, EEI Board Member and Pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown; and Reverend Wayne A. Heintzelman, EEI Board Member and Pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Mountaintop. The program also featured remarks by the honoree-Dr. Ayers.

Dr. Ayers has served as Board Chairman of EEI since its incorporation in 1968. In the words of the Board of Directors, "Dr. Ayers was principal leader in the formation of EEI," which is sponsored jointly by the Roman Catholic Diocese of Scranton, the Jewish Federation of Greater Wilkes-Barre, the Metropolitan Lutheran Council of Wyoming Valley, and Dr. Ayers' former pastorate, the First Presbyterian Church of Wilkes-Barre.

In the 16 years of Dr. Ayers' leadership, EEI has grown rapidly to a point where it employs more than 150 people and operates five major developments. In addition to the Meadows Nursing Center and Apartments, the non-profit corporation also owns and manages the Interfaith Heights Apartments in Wilkes-Barre (215 unit of family housing), the Midtowne Apartments in Wyoming (54 units of elderly and handicapped housing), and the newest venture opened in March of this year, the Garden Village Apartments in West Pittston (100 units of elderly and handicapped housing).

EEI presently has applications for additional housing projects pending with the Federal government for the Boroughs of Dupont in Luzerne County and Northumberland in Northumberland County.

In noting Dr. Ayers' service in EEI and the community, the plaque which will be permanently enshrined in the lobby of the Nursing Center reads, in part:

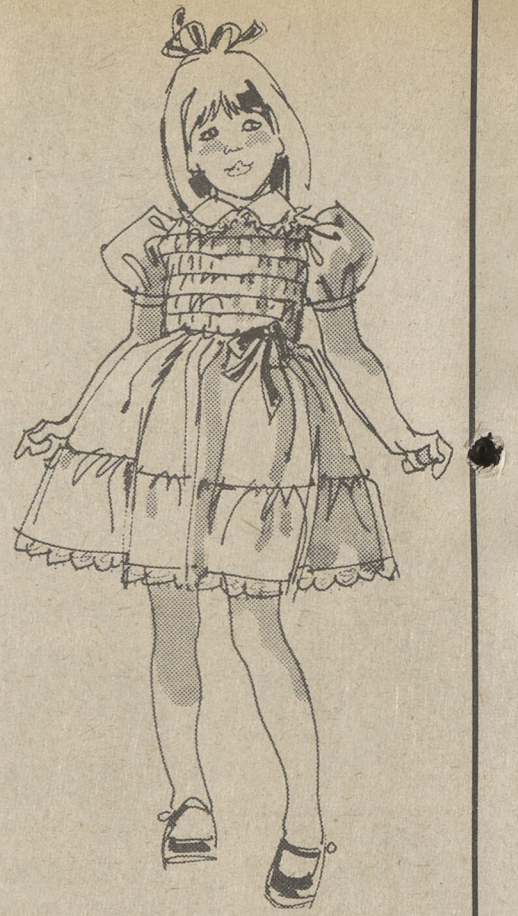

"The vigorous leadership and compassionate concern of Dr. Ayers enabled E.E.I. to create shelter for the ill-housed and nursing care for the aged and infirm.

This dedication commemorates the forceful leadership of Dr. Ayers in E.E.I. and his distinguished career in the ministry, a life devoted to serving all people regardless of race, status or creed.

"His commitment to justice, mercy and reconciliation, and his dedication to improve the total quality of our lives continues to be an inspiration to all of us in Northeastern Pennsylvania."
