

Tonight at 6 p.m.

211 students to graduate from Dallas High School

Dallas High School will graduate 211 students during the 1984 commencement exercises set for 6 p.m. Wednesday evening, June 6, at the Dallas football field. In the event of inclement weather, the ceremony will be moved indoors to the Junior High School Auditorium.

The Dallas Senior High School Band, under the direction of David Benn, will lead the affair with the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" as the 1984 graduating class enters the stadium.

Pastor Lynn H. Rothrock will offer invocation while Joseph F. O'Donnell, president of the Dallas Board of Education, will offer greetings.

Daniel M. Poorman, junior-senior high school principal, will introduce Dr. Richard Shipe, superintendent of the Dallas School District, who will offer his remarks.

The Dallas Mixed Chorus, directed by Mrs. Florence Hughes Sherwood will offer several songs, followed by Cristi Anne Strauser, senior class president, who will present her remarks. Mark Rosing and Kimberly Dougherty, 1984 co-valedictorians, will then offer their commencement addresses.

Followed by another selection by the Mixed Chorus, Mr. Poorman will present the members of the Class of 1984 while Mr. O'Donnell will award diplomas.

The entire assembly will then join in the singing of the Dallas High School Alma Mater. Rev. Rothrock will offer the Benediction and the High School Band will close the ceremonies with the Recessional.

Dallas officers

Officers of the 1984 graduating class at Dallas High School are shown here. From left, Ken Thompson, treasurer; Kristi Boudreaux, secretary; Christi Strauser, president; and Joe Walsh, vice-president.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Honor students

Members of the Honor Society who will be receiving diplomas during tonight's commencement ceremonies at Dallas High School are shown here. From left, first row, Kim Dougherty, Jill Graham, Debbie Miliauskas, Maryellen Nagy, Sandra Shone, Karen Banks, Lisa Sigman and Sandy Moyers. Second row, Veronica Repko, Wendy Van Horn, Maria Ziolkowski, Barbara Eyt, Kay St. Clair, Pam Lundberg and Lori Del Gaudio. Third row, Michael Chismer, Mark Rosing and Mark Drasin.

Area students participate in public service

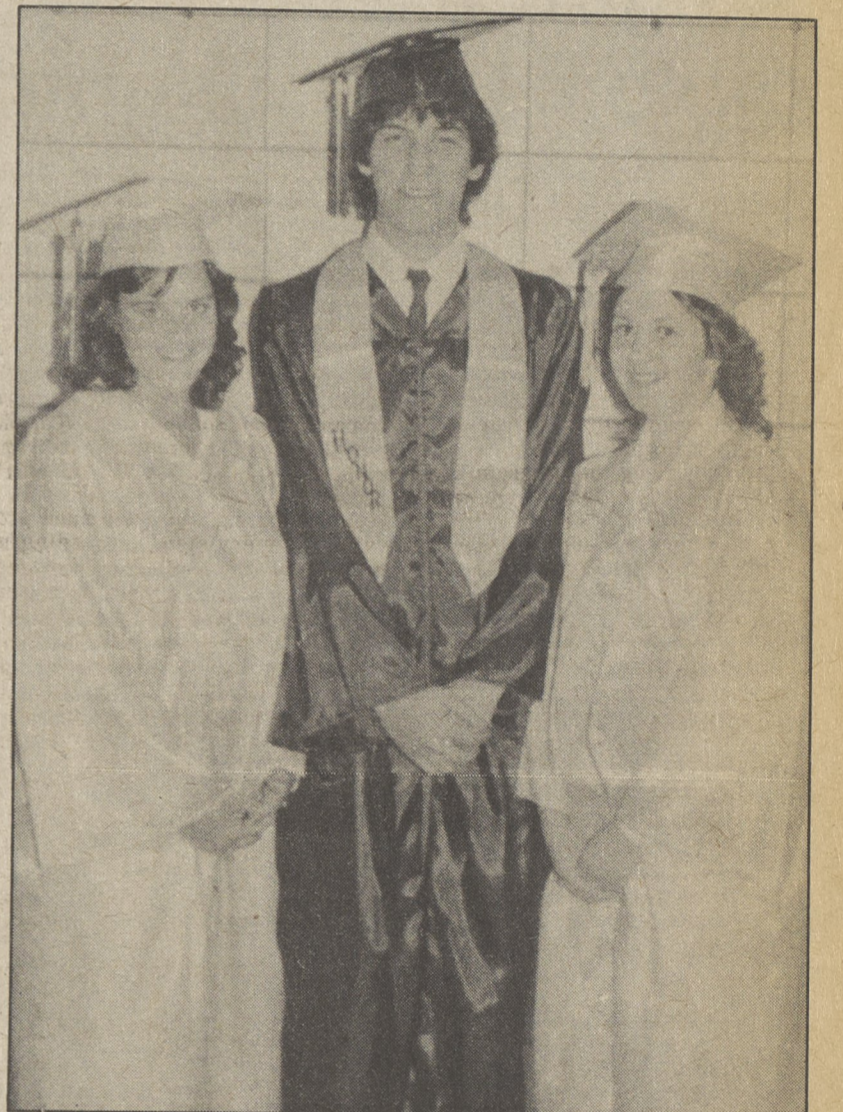

Mark Rosing of Dallas and Raymnd Iwanowski of Lake-Lehman recently participated in the "Best of the Class" salute, a public service announcement program sponsored by General Motors Corporation and WBRE-TV Channel 28.

Both Rosing and Iwanowski will be featured in public service announcements on WBRE-TV which will help to illustrate that young people can serve as role models just as effectively as adults and celebrities.

"Best of the Class" spotlights outstanding students from over 70 high schools in Northeastern and Central Pennsylvania. The students will be featured in 30-second public service announcements which will air on WBRE-TV throughout June and July.

The students involved with the "Best of the Class" program met last Friday at Rocky Glen Park in Moosic for the taping session. Following the taping, the students met members of the Eyewitness News team, representatives of the print media and representatives of the General Motors Corporation. Rocky Glenn Park provided lunch for the group.

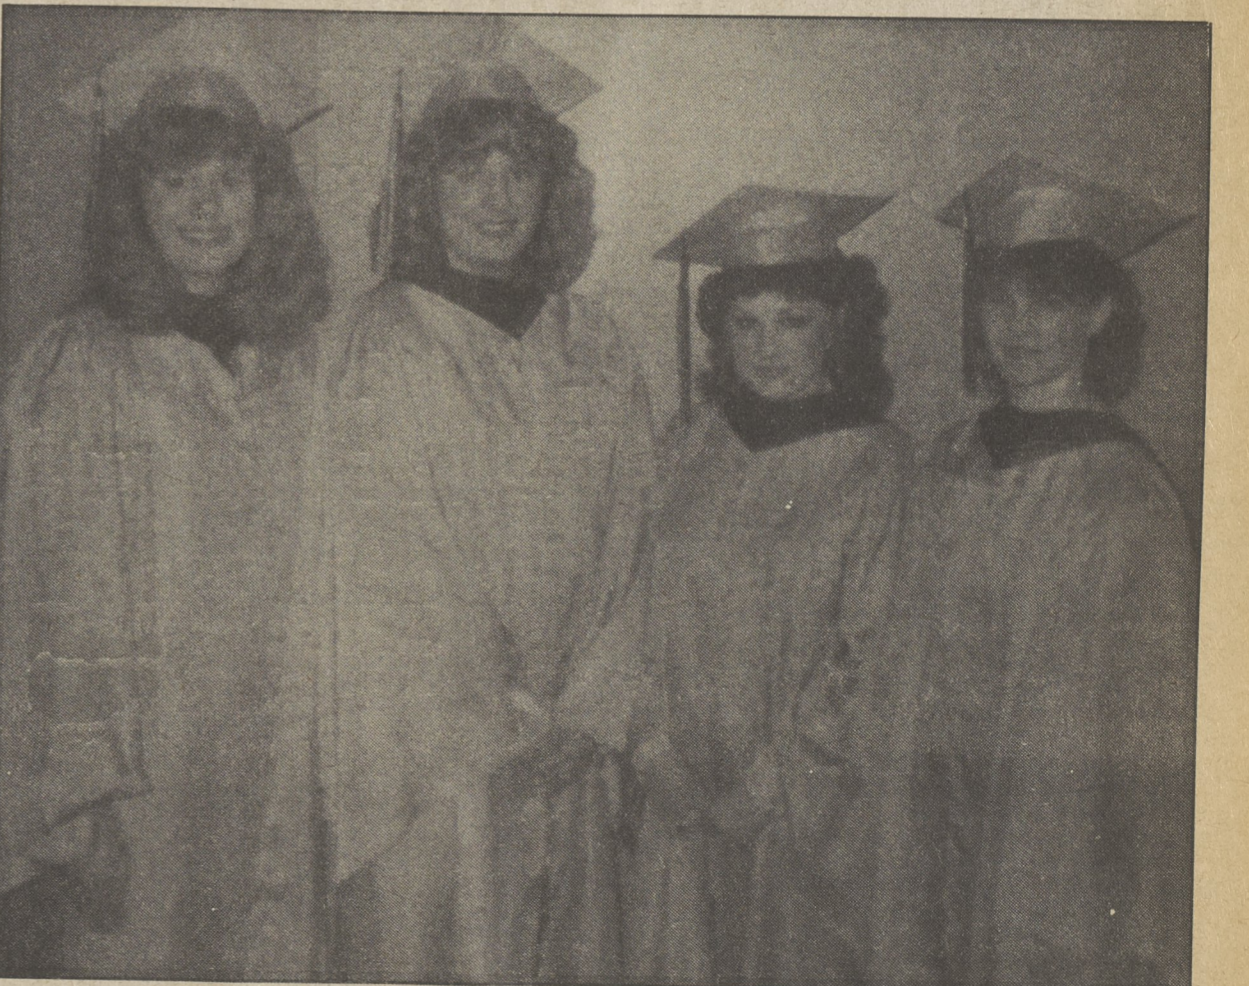

Rosing and Iwanowski, who are both scheduled to graduate from their respective high schools this week, were selected for the "Best of the Class" program because of their scholastic achievements. Iwanowski has been honored as the valedictorian of the 1984 graduating class of Lake-Lehman High School while Rosing shared valedictorian honors at Dallas High School with Kim Dougherty.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Dallas speakers

Students who will be delivering commencement addresses during Dallas High School commencement exercises set for this evening at 6 p.m. are shown here. From left, Christi Strauser, senior class president; Mark Rosing, co-valedictorian; and Kim Dougherty, co-valedictorian.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Twins graduate

Among the 1984 graduates at Lake-Lehman High School this Saturday will be two sets of twins. Shown here, from left, are Michelle Hargraves, Danielle Hargraves, Pam Ely and Tammy Ely. The Hargrave sisters are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Hargraves of Park Street, Shavertown, while the Ely girls are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Ely of Noxen.

Lake-Lehman commencement scheduled for Saturday, June 9

One hundred and fifty two graduates will be presented with their high school diplomas during the 1984 commencement exercises at Lake-Lehman High School on Saturday, June 9.

The class members, 74 boys and 78 girls, will receive their diplomas from Joseph "Red" Jones, president of the Lake-Lehman Board of Directors, during ceremonies scheduled for 2 p.m. at the Edward E. Edwards Football Stadium, located at the Lake-Lehman High School Complex. In the event of inclement weather, the ceremonies will be moved inside to the high school gymnasium.

This year's commencement ceremonies will begin with a prelude by the award-winning Lake-Lehman Band under the direction of John Miliauskas. The band will continue with the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" as the members of the 1984 graduating class take their seats.

Reverend Theodore M. Marcinko, chaplain of the Mercy Center Convent, will offer invocation and Joan Skopic, president of the senior class, will offer greetings and welcome the guests.

The Lake-Lehman Chorus, under the direction of Jane Morris, will offer a few selections prior to the Baccalaureate-Commencement Address which will be offered by Rev. James Pall, associate pastor of the Forty Fort United Methodist Church.

Raymond Iwanowski, class valedictorian, and Deborah Haefele, class salutatorian, will deliver commencement addresses after which Susan Bonsavage and Suzanne Sabaluski, co-presidents of the Lake-Lehman Student Council, will offer remarks.

Awards will be presented to members of the graduating class by John J. Oliver, junior high school principal; Anthony Marchakitus, assistant to the superintendent; Charles C. James, elementary principal; and Robert S. Kunkle, elementary principal. Dr. M. David Preston, superintendent of the Dallas School District, will present the Class of 1984 as Joseph Jones awards each graduate his or her diploma. Robert O. Roberts, senior class advisor will call the seniors' names.

John M. Zaleskas, high school principal will offer a farewell address and Rev. Marcinko will deliver benediction. The Lake-Lehman Band will conduct the recessional.

Lake-Lehman High School, served as the drum major for the Lake-Lehman Marching Band for several years.

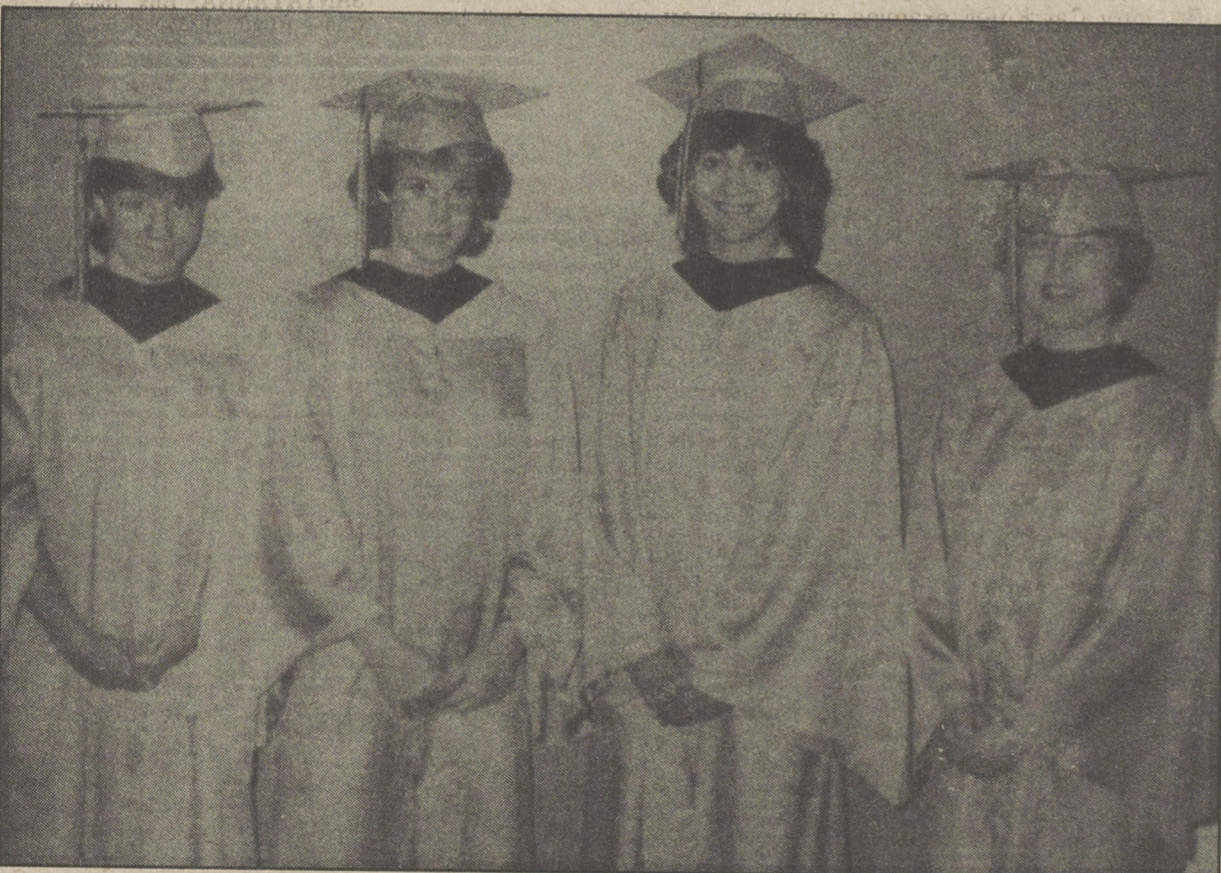

Having served at the Wyalusing United Methodist Charge for three and a half years, Rev. Pall has been at the Forty Fort Methodist Church since February of 1983.

He and his wife, Susan, live in Forty Fort.

1969 Lehman grad to speak

Rev. James Pall, associate pastor of the Forty Fort United Methodist Church, will deliver the commencement address to the 1984 graduating class at Lake-Lehman High School. Commencement exercises are scheduled for Saturday, June 9, at 2 p.m. at the Edward E. Edwards Football Stadium on the Lake-Lehman High School Complex.

Rev. Pall, a 1969 graduate of

Lehman officers

Shown here are the officers of the 1984 senior class at Lake-Lehman High School. From left, Joan Skopic, president; Karen Holmgren, vice-president; Sharon Evans, secretary; and Virginia Yatsko, treasurer.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Top ten students

Shown here are the Top Ten members of the 1984 graduating class at Lake-Lehman High School. From left, first row, Janet McCarroll, Deborah Haefele, class salutatorian; Ray Iwanoski, class valedictorian; Julie Napieralski, Susan Diction. Second row, Christopher Buzinkai, Kellie Knapich, Cathy Major, Holly Swartz and Rick Sorber.