PG&W reminds contractors

With the current construction season in full swing Pennsylvania Gas and Water Company (PG&W) is once again reminding contractors and homeowners of the state law which requires notification to utility companies of any planned excavation work using mechanized equipment prior to the start of construction.

Upon notification, each utility is required to mark outfits underground facilities so that the excavator can avoid damaging them. Failure to notify the utility companies, in addition to being a violation of state law, can result in inconvenience or possible damage to facilities that could cause injury to the public and be costly to the excavator. Requests for mark-out to identify utility service locations must be made at least three days prior to the date scheduled for excavation.

To assist excavators, PG&W is a member of the PA One-Call System, a coordinated state-wide program which utilizes a toll-free 800 number.
