Offset Paperback receives award

Offset Paperback Manufacturers, Inc., Dallas, an affiliate of Bertelsmann Corp., an international concern headquartered in West Germany, was recently chosen to receive this year's "Entrepreneur Preis" award.

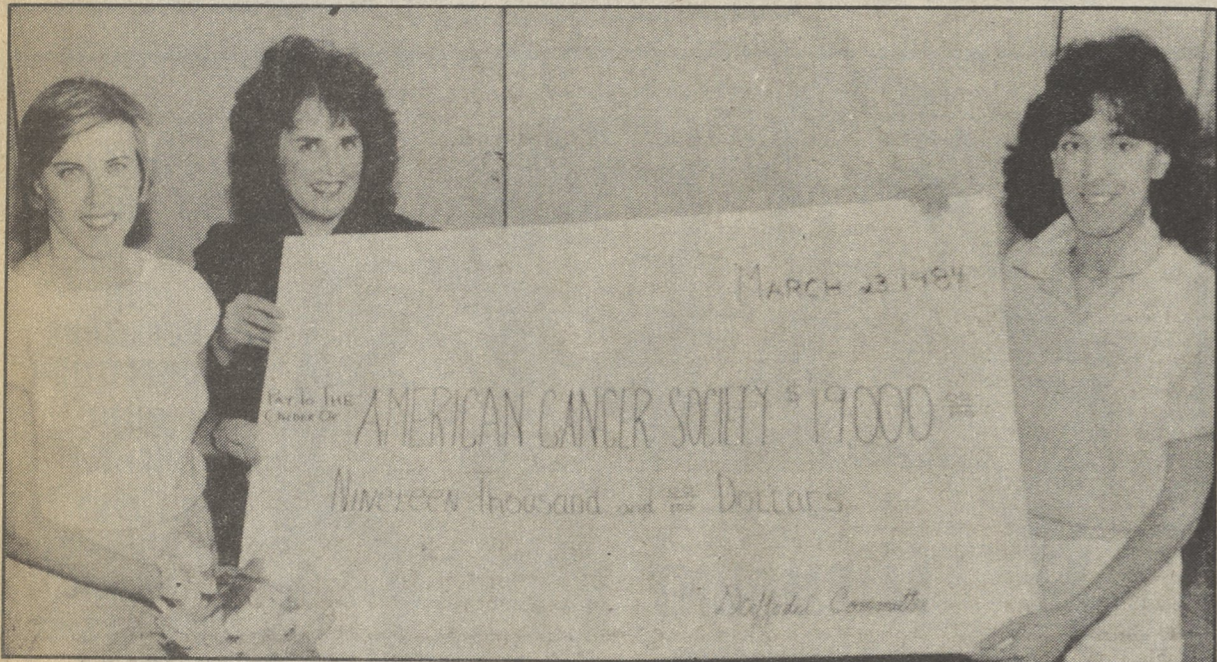

This most prestigious and coveted award is presented annually to the firm judged as having the year's most exemplary performance and outstanding achievements. OPM was selected from among 18 companies within the printing division. World-wide employment within this division exceeds 10,000.

OPM is ranked among the top three printing companies in the American paperback book market. Bertelsmann Corp. is a decentralized, international media enterprise of over 200 companies operating in 25 countries with a workforce of over 30,000. The corporation is active in the fields of publishing, printing, music, book and magazine distribution, and industrial services.

The award was presented to OPM's President, Mr. Thomas R. Marvel, during Bertelsmann's UDI Annual Meeting in Gutersloh, West Germany. In accepting the award, Mr. Marvel acknowledged the efforts of all employees.

The synergistic integration of improved production systems and equipment coupled with dedicated employee efforts contributed substantially in the accomplishment of corporate objectives. He also indicated that future efforts will center on maximizing employee development and improving systems and procedures in order to maintain corporate strength and the required competitive edge.

Drive successful

Daffodil Days sponsored by the Wyoming Valley Unit of the American Cancer Society exceeded all previous sales undertaken during the past seven years since this project began in this area. More than $19,000 was raised from the sale of 80,000 daffodils. Top volunteer saleswoman was Veronica Farinola of Dallas who organized the distribution of the flowers in the Back Mountain area through businesses and organizations. Shown here, from left, are Karen Hungar, left, Daffodil Chairman; Mrs. Veronica Farinola, Dallas; and Mary Boutanos, Field Representative American Cancer Society, Wyoming Valley Unit.

Equipment donated

The Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Auxiliary has again demonstrated its commitment to the hospital's patients by contributing $40,000 to complete their $100,000 pledge made officially on March 30, 1983. The Auxiliary exceeded its pledge by $2,000, for a grand total of $102,000. Miriam Tomasetti, President of the Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Auxiliary, presented the check to Ron Stern, administrator, at a recent Auxiliary meeting. Shown here during the presentation are, from left, first row, Mrs. Albert Porter, Sr., Luzerne Auxiliary Branch; Mrs. Edmund John, Kingston Auxiliary Branch; Mrs. Esther Parkinson, Dorranceton Auxiliary Branch and Mrs. John Griffiths, Forty Fort Auxiliary Branch. Edmund L. John, Hospital Chaplain.

Miss Pennsylvania Teen is sought

Applications are now being accepted from all over the Keystone State for the Miss Pennsylvania Teen U.S.A. Pageant to be staged in Monroeville, Pa. The Pageant will be presented in the Grand Ballroom of the High Rise Howard Johnson Hotel on July 20, 21, and 22, 1984. That is correct, the 1985 Pageant will be held in July of this year. This Miss Pennsylvania Teen U.S.A.

Pageant is an Official Miss Teen U.S.A. Contest.

There is no "Performing Talent" requirement. All judging is on the basis of poise, personality and beauty. Applicants who qualify must be 15 years of age by January 1, 1985 and under 18 years of age by May 1, 1985, never married, and at least six month residents of Pennsylvania. All girls interested in competing for the title must write to: Miss Pennsylvania Teen U.S.A. Pageant Tri-State Headquarters, 347 Locust Avenue, Washington, Pa. 15301 by June 13, 1984. Letters must include a recent snapshot, a brief biography and phone number.

Pursuant to the rights granted by Miss Universe, Inc., the girl chosen as Miss Pennsylvania Teen U.S.A. will receive an all-expense paid trip to the site of the nationally televised Miss Teen U.S.A. Pageant. She will represent the Keystone State in the Miss Teen U.S.A. Pageant early in 1985. The new winner will also select a $750 wardrobe from among her many prizes.
