Classes

CHILDBIRTH EDUCATION CLASSES for pregnant teenaged women will be held at Planned Parenthood Association of Luzerne County beginning Tuesday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m. and continuing for seven weeks.

The classes, which are conducted by Judith Seroska, R.N., and Judith Fried, R.N., are geared specifically to the needs of pregnant adolescent women, many of whom are identified as "high risk" patients by obstetricians because of their age.

Mrs. Seroska notes that each pregnant teenager is invited to attend the sessions with a person who will serve as her "coach" during labor and delivery. This person may be a spouse, parent, friend or anyone of the young woman's choosing.

Young women who attend the series are eligible to use Planned Parenthood's Swap Shop, which contains maternity and infant clothing and infant furniture.

There is no charge for the classes, and use of the Swap Shop is also free. Persons interested in learning more about the classes may contact Planned Parenthood.

REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE ADMISSIONS OFFICE of Luzerne County Community College will be available at the Wilkes-Barre Employment Office on Union Street on Tuesday, June 19, and Wednesday, June 20, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The college officials will be on hand to discuss the non-credit programs offered at the college, training programs available for the unemployed and financial aid information.

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL'S SPECIAL SIBLING CLASS, "Our New Addition," will be held on Monday, June 18, at 6:30 p.m. at the hospital. The two-hour class, held every eight weeks, is designed to promote family bonding and to help lessen the anxiety of a child who might feel threatened by the arrival of a new baby into the family.

The class is open to parents who are already enrolled in General's childbirth course and their children, and to others expecting a baby within two months of the sibling class.

To register or for more information, call the hospital's Education Department, 829-8111, ext. 2300. Other dates are August 13, October 8 and December 3.

Meetings

THE SUMMER MEETING SCHEDULE for the Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors will go into effect beginning June 18 and will continue through the summer months. The monthly meetings will be held on the 3rd Monday of each month beginning at 7 p.m. at the Lake-Lehman High School.

The Band Sponsors would like to extend an invitation to all parents and friends of the Band to attend these meetings.

THE COMMITTEE TO ORGANIZE A REUNION for the Dallas High School Class of 1975 will meet on Thursday, June 21, at 7 p.m. at the Mark II Restaurant in Dallas. Any interested class members are urged to attend.

THE BACK MOUNTAIN LAECHE LEAGUE will meet on Tuesday, June 19, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Valda, Shavertown.

All women interested in breastfeeding are invited to attend the meeting and bring their babies. Refreshments will be served and participants will be encouraged to observe the lending library.

For more information, call Mrs. Paul Fedor, Ceasetown; Mrs. Edward Gribbin, Trucksville or Mrs. Albert Holcomb, Pikes Creek.

Courses

DON'T WASTE YOUR TIME or that of a potential employer until you have your act together.

Whether you are entering the marketplace for the first time or trying to re-enter, you must know how to market your skills and abilities.

Designed to help you develop basic skills useful in finding a job is a correspondence course available from The Pennsylvania State University. Titled, Job Hunting Skills, the course presents some basic principles and techniques for organizing your own job hunting campaign.

Sixteen traits sought by employers are listed and discussed. Some of the other topics discussed are: knowing yourself, learning about an occupation, how to find employers who are hiring people like you, what an employer can legally ask you, writing applications, personal resumes and job letters, the job interview, an getting along on your new job.

You can get a copy of the seven-lesson course by sending $6.75, including handling, to JOB HUNTING SKILLS, Dept. 5000, University Park, PA 16802. Make check payable to PENN STATE.

THE GREATER WILKES-BARRE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE is again pleased to announce they will be co-sponsoring a Dale Carnegie Course in Leadership Training, Human Relations and Effective Communications.

The Dale Carnegie Course is intended to build upon a positive attitude toward one's abilities as a communicator and motivator of others. Some of the topics to be discussed in the sessions include: Attitude and Confidence, Leadership and Human Relations, Effective Communications and Enthusiasm.

Tom Buerman, a local representative for the Dale Carnegie Courses, is scheduling appointments to discuss the program. If you want to know more about the course, please contact him at the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce's office, 823-2101.

Lectures

DONALD L. KORBen, Ph.D., Counseling Psychologist at St. Bonaventure University Counseling and Career Development Center, will be one of several guest lecturers to present a series of workshops and plenary sessions at Wyoming Seminary's Summer Institute, "Developing Wellness in Families - Parents, Educators and The Community Working Together."

Titled "The Adolescent and Young Adult - a Drug Profile and Case Conference", Korben's workshop will deal with case studies of this current issue in an attempt to combat this problem in the future.

Wyoming Seminary's Summer Institute is a three-day conference designed to bring adults together to address problems faced by young people and their families in such areas as alcohol-drug abuse, sexuality and family relationships. Set for June 25-27, the program will consist of plenary sessions and workshops presented by nationally recognized experts from throughout the country. It is open to all parents, educators, counselors, agency staff members and others interested in youth.

Persons interested in attending the Summer Institute for Dr. Korben's presentation or other sessions should contact Ron Gaetano, Conference Manager, Wyoming Seminary, Box 113, Kingston, PA 18704, (717) 299-3003, for complete details, prices and registration forms.

The Conference is co-sponsored by Wyoming Seminary, Sandoz, Inc., Commonwealth Prevention Alliance, Blue Cross of Northeastern Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Blue Shield.

Exhibits

A U.S. STAMP COLLECTION featuring 22 Olympic commemorative stamps issued prior to the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles and many other sports-related stamps are currently on display in the Luzerne County Community College Learning Resource Center.

The collection belongs to Robyn R. Adelson, daughter of LCCC biology professor Mark Adelson, and will be on display through this Summer's Olympic Games.

The small, but very interesting exhibit includes all commemorative stamps issued by the U.S. Postal Service that feature prominent sports personalities or sports in general such as the Olympic Games.

The oldest stamps on display are three that were issued in 1932 commemorating the Olympic Games conducted in Lake Placid, NY and Los Angeles. Other Olympic stamps in the collection represent the 1960, 1972, 1976, 1980 and 1984 Games. The 1984 Olympic collection contains all 24 stamps that depict both men's and women's events in the Winter and Summer Games.

Other stamps in the collection honor such sports personalities as Babe Zaharias, Bobby Jones, Babe Ruth, Jackie Robinson and the newest stamp in the collection is Jim Thorpe. Also shown are stamps commemorating professional football, baseball, physical education, the Special Olympics and many more.

The exhibit may be viewed daily from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. during days that classes are in session.

THE POCONO MOUNTAINEERS semi-professional football team presents its First Custom Car, Van and Motorcycle Show. The big event takes place on Father's Day - Sunday, June 17, at Kirby Park's Ralston Field in Kingston. All custom or stock cars, vans and motorcycles are welcome to enter the competition. Registration is from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, with the judging from 12 on. The registration fee is $10.

The Mountaineers, a non-profit organization, is presenting this show in conjunction with the Pocono Mountain Street Rod Association. They'll have custom cars on display also, including a 26-time national champion. In all, over 3/4 of a million dollars worth of vehicles will be showcased. Trophies will be awarded for all classes.

The show is being sponsored by AA Auto Parts, Van Scoy Diamond Mines and Rock 107.

THE SEVENTH ANNUAL ARTS AND CRAFTS FAIR to be sponsored by the Wyoming County Historical Society, will feature a variety of exhibitors, entertainment, music, dancing, baby parade, pet show and plenty of good food and beverage.

The event will open on Court House Square at Tunkhannock at 11 a.m. on Saturday, July 7, and will run until 5 p.m. Committee people include: booths, Kathy Stevens and Jean VanDyke, entertainment, Dot Cavalier and Hazelle Brooks; food, Ruth Greenley and Jean Pownall and publicity, Jean Brewer and Paula Radwanski.

The Historical Society will provide a food booth with family prices. There will be all time favorites like hot dogs, hamburgers, sausage sandwiches, funnel cakes, assorted homemade pies, fruit punch and canned soda.

Sales

THE KINGSTON TOWNSHIP AMBULANCE ASSOCIATION will conduct its annual hoagie sale on Saturday, June 16.
