WIND-UP

The Indians squeaked by the pirates by a run when Jack Jones and Sam Jayne split the mound duties to shut down the much improved Pirates. Jayne was credited with the win and recorded eight K's. Willie Whitesell went three for three at the plate for the winners, along with other key hits coming from Sam Gorgone, John Masley, Sam Jayne and Jack Jones. Eric Paczewski banged out a three-run homer for the Pirates.

The Astros remained in first place by belting the Tigers, 16-5. Keith Schultz ran his pitching record to 6-1 as he struck out 12 batters. Schultz belted a home run and teammate Robbie Wilson went four for five at the plate. The Astros now have a showdown with the Giants with two games in the next two weeks.

The Reds picked up a win during the week when they defeated the Yankees, 7-5. Bob Barbacci got the win on the mound by striking out 11 batters and helped his own cause at the plate by nailing two singles and a grand slam homerun. Jon DePaolo also belted a homer along with big hits by Rick Hayes and Ray Conrad.

Golf event planned

Participants in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Sixth Annual Golf Tournament will have a 2-in-100 chance to win a 1984 Ford Escort from Barber Ford, West Pittston. The tourney, which will be held Thursday, Aug. 23, at Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas, will get underway at noon. Each golfer, after completing 18 holes, will receive an envelope containing a key, one of which unlocks the door to one Ford Escort. The holder of the key which unlocks the doors wins the car. A second Ford Escort will be awarded to the first golfer who scores a hole-in-one on the 17th hole of the Irem Temple course. Included in the registration are golf and cart fees, refreshments on the course during the tournament, door prizes, two chances for a new car, cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and a surf and turf dinner. Reservations are due by Aug. 1 and are on a first-come, first-served basis. Shown are tournament principals who recently met at Barber Ford. ## Motorcycle group plans charity tour

Members of the High Mountain Chapter of A.B.A.T.E. of Pa. (Alliance of Bikers Aimed Toward Education) are sponsoring a charity poker run on Sunday, July 1, originating at the Maxie Cameron State Police Grove in St. John's north of Hazleton. Sign up for the run will begin at 10 a.m. and continue through 12 noon. Advance entry fee is $5.00 per rider and $3.00 per passenger. The day of the event entry fees will be $6.00 and $4.00 respectively. Proceeds from the entry fees will be donated to the Northeast Pa. Chapter of the March of Dimes.

Because of the large number of expected participants, the route will consist of an "Eastern Loop" and a "Western Loop", each of which covers approximately 200 miles of scenic roadway. In all, the combined loops will encompass some 10 counties of Northeastern Pa. A variety of interesting points have been included in each loop, such as Penobscot Mountain (highest point in Pa.); Lake Wallenpaupack (largest man-made lake in Pa.); and portions of the famous Sullivan's Trail.

At each one of seven checkpoints, the motorcyclist and passenger (if any) draws a playing card in an attempt to build the best possible poker hand. Each participating cyclist will travel the route individually or with selected companions. There will be no organized tour groups or captains. There will be three trophy winners as well as 50 T-shirts for the top 50 places. Time and speed are not a consideration. The object is to have a pleasurable ride. The run should attract touring motorcyclists from a wide area.

According to Michael Zuber, chairman of the event for A.B.A.T.E. "We hope to raise a substantial sum for the March of Dimes, while providing a chance for many motorcyclists to see our beautiful part of the state and become familiar with A.B.A.T.E. Also we hope to show the general public that a major motorcycle event can be held in an orderly and positive fashion, and for a good cause, with no inconvenience to others."

The event will be followed by a family style picnic at the last checkpoint. Beverages will be provided and entrants are invited to either bring along a picnic lunch or patronize the vendors on hand.

For registration forms and more information, telephone Joe Vitz 717-788-1078 or contact the March of Dimes office 824-1345 or 342-7894.

Zoeller, Green are credit to game

By LEE L. RICHARDS
Sports Columnist

Two years ago, my family and I took in the Busch Golf Classic at Kingsmill in Williamsburg, VA. It was scheduled around our vacation. Monday was the practice round and we decided to stop by and get our tickets for the weekend.

My son, Doug, headed for the 10th tee to see Hubie Green and Fuzzy Zoeller tee it up. By the time my wife and I got there, Doug and Zoeller were carrying on a conversation and many of the onlookers were laughing it up.

Fuzzy is an Indiana Hoosier roundball buff and friend of Coach Bob Knight. Doug, an avid weight lifter, caught Fuzzy's eye and the fun was on.

Fuzzy challenged Hubie to mess with him, because he was going to have Doug handle the physical end. After teeing off, Fuzzy invited us to tag along. It was a lot of fun to see he and Green manipulate some terrific golf shots. Fuzzy would remind the followers Hubie was an Open Champ. Green would respond about Fuzzy winning the Masters and how both were struggling with their games.

He recently won his first U.S. Open. We couldn't have been more delighted. He's got a heap of style. I wish I could be as nonchalant on the course.

What you saw on TV is what Fuzzy is really like during either a practice round or if he's playing for the U.S. Open. He knows how to have fun and he can play the game, too.

When we saw him two years ago he was in pain with his bad back. He wanted Doug to carry him around the course.

When I mentioned about his back, he sluffed it off.

"It's part of the game," he replied. "Some people would feel I'd be using it as an excuse if I made mention of it, simply because I'm not scoring very well at the present time."

We followed the two friends for several holes. They traded humorous remarks most of the time. In between, they pulled off some nifty trick shots which kept the gallery amused.

After we left the course, I got to thinking what a credit both were to the game. They had a lot of fun and made the gallery a part of their work.

Meanwhile, Fuzzy was involved in some heroics in winning his Open crown. Greg Norman played the last three holes on Sunday in remarkable fashion and some luck. They tied and an 18-hole playoff was set for the following day.

Fuzzy shot another sub-par round and proved he deserved the title. Norman's putter simply cooled from the previous day, but he demonstrated he's a winner, too.

CLIPBOARD NOTES:

— Wilkes has signed the services of two Lake-Lehman grid-ders. Kicker Dan Kolar and Marty Onzik have a heap of potential. Kolar has the leg-drive to be a fine kicker with the proper coaching. Onzik is a real hard-nosed player.

— What does a college football coach do during the summer months? Pal John Majors of Tennessee is touring Scotland for the State Department doing a series of clinics. I wonder if John took along his golf clubs?

— Many times I've mentioned the attention to detail in preparation by IU Coach Bob Knight. An item recently claims Knight has few peers when it comes to assimilating game plans. The Hoosiers were 15-0 last season when he had three days or more for preparation. No coach I've ever seen around does it better and I've been around some good ones.

— Lake-Lehman's Jill Solinski stood the East All-Stars on their ears in recent All-Star Softball game with her pitching. Some observers believe this was the most talented girls' All-Stars seen locally. West won in a romp for Coach Flossie Finn which was expected. There was a fine crowd on hand and most enthusiastic. Dallas Kiwanis Club did a fine job in putting together the game.

— Crestwood Coach Sam Elias tells me his West squad for this week's UNICO grid clash has been practicing quite hard and should give the East squad a real go.

"I've been particularly pleased with the way the players have dedicated themselves towards this game. We're starting to put the little things together offensively, which is the toughest aspect of any All-Star game. We've kept things very basic," Elias said.

— Several schoolboy grid coaches have indicated that Coach Charlie Fick's GAR team could be the team to beat in Division 2. Hanover, defending champs, will return a strong and capable nucleus. With the loss of some key personnel at the scoring positions I can't foresee the Hawks repeating last year's performance.

— What's this I hear Pittston Area is considering changing its home slate from Saturday night to Friday's? Coach Bob Barbieri isn't at all pleased with the new grid format. The Pats have built a tradition on playing their home contests on Saturday night and was always one of the leaders in attendance. Playing Friday's bucking Wyoming Area could hit them in the pocketbook.

— I keep hearing Coughlin's grid fortunes is in for a sharp decline. Crusaders aren't doing the little things necessary to maintain that winning level enjoyed under former Coach J.P. Meck.
