

Auction is people working together

38th Library Auction
July 5-8

Shown above is Anne Davies, chairwoman of the antiques committee for the 38th Annual Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction. Items on display which will be auctioned are a brass lamp and an antique Queen Anne Chair. The one drawer pine stand and pine framed mirror will be raffled.

Support the Auction

Al Lipko, right, owner of Ye Olde Clock Shoppe, Dallas, is shown here with Joe Ileen prior to the 1983 Library Auction.

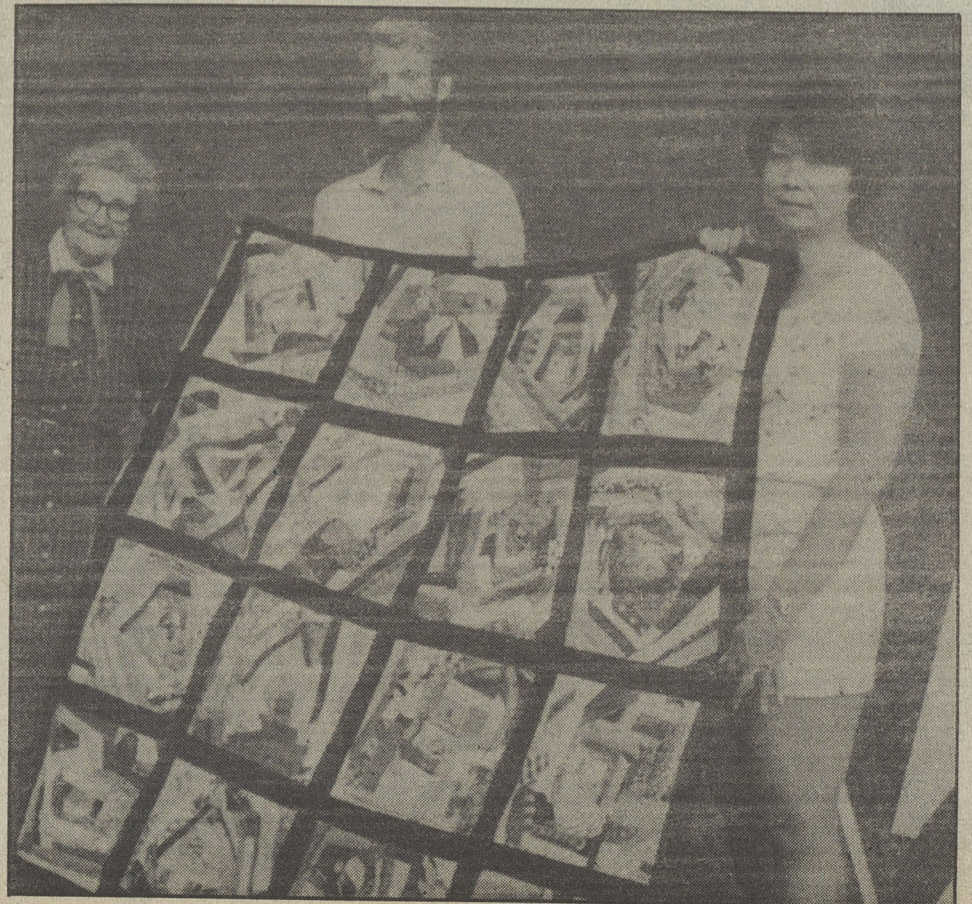

Lipko donated a clock to be auctioned off last year.

Shown above are committee members of the 38th Annual Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction. Seated are Sybil Pelton and Mary George, odds and ends committee co-chairwomen; standing Clifford Parker, grounds chairman and Gerald Fritzges, auction co-chairman.

The odds and ends committee is seeking new or used items of every variety, except clothing. Items may be brought to the auction barn in the rear of the library.

The odds and ends booth is operated by the Dallas Women of Kiwanis.

Florence Crump, Jerry Fritzges, and Joann Freeman are shown here with a quilt that was donated for auction during the 1983 event.