Theater

THE POCONO PLAYHOUSE, Mountainhome, proudly presents Joey Travolta and Donna Pescow, starring together in "Guys & Dolls", a musical fable of Broadway. This classif favorite opens at "Broadway in the Pocono's" on Tuesday, June 26th, and runs for two weeks through Sunday, July

The show is based on the stories and characters of Damon Runyon, one of America's favorite storytellers. His syndicated columns appeared nationwide in 1930's newspapers. They were filled with tales of the big city and the doings o the people he saw on the streets. The nightlives of such as gamblers, show girls, agents, con men, prize fighters, and so on were transformed into a book written by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows.

Based on this book the music and lyrics for "Gus & Dolls" were written by Frank Loesser, whose Academy Award winning talents have won praise from Hollywood and Broadway critics alike. Favorite musical numbers include, "A Bushel & A Peck", "Luck Be A Lady", and "Sit Down You're Rockin's The Boat"

Performances at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday-Friday; 5 and 9 Saturday; 6 p.m. Sunday and 2 p.m. matinee, Wednesday. Ticket reservations and information at Pocono Playhouse box-office (717) 595-7456.

Clubs

SPICE UP YOUR LIFE! Come join in the fun.

Singles who are seeking partners for round and square dancing, par-ties and other entertainment are

Our groups meet every Wednesday evening during the month of June at 7 p.m. at the Wagon Wheel, Main Street, Tunkhannock.

Sales

THE LADIES AUXILIARY of the Harveys Lake American Legion Post 967 will hold a flea market and bake sale on Saturday and Sunday, June 30 and July 1. Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday and 1 to 6 p.m. on Sunday. The sale will be held at the Bingo Hall, Sunset, Harveys Lake.

Articles to be donated to the flea market may be dropped off at the bingo hall anytime after 6 p.m. on the following dates: June 28 and 29.

THE IDETOWN UNITED METH-ODIST CHURCH will conduct a rummage sale on Friday and Saturday. July 29 and 30 at the church house, located behind the church.

Hours are Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m. to noon. Saturday is Bag Day.

Church

THE SHAVERTOWN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 163 N. Pioneer Ave., Shavertown, announces the following schedule:

Wednesday, June 27 - 7:15 p.m.

Thursday, June 28 - 7:30 p.m. Couples Club bus trip to Reading

Sunday, July 1 - 10 a.m. Morning Worship. Sermon by the Pastor, Rev. James Wert "An Unlikely Disciple". Installation of our new Associate Pastor, Rev. Harriet Santos. Reception following in the church

Concerts

MARTZ TRAILWAYS will once again sponsor July 4th "Pops in the Park" with the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic. Program will include the 1812 Overature and A Lincoln Portrait and other wellknown favorites and will be followed by a spectacular display of fire-

Concert begins in Kirby Park, Wilkes-Barre, on Wednesday, July 4

There is no admission charge for unreserved seating.

CELEBRATION OF THE TRADITIONAL GERMAN "OKTOBER-FEST" will be held Saturday, September 22, at the Masonic Temple, Donald Briskey, President of the Lackawanna County German-American Society, has announced that Jim Luby is chairman of this year's annual event, assisted by Sandee Luby, co-chairman.

The MUSIKKAPELLE GERLEN-HOFEN, an authentic German band, will highlight the affair.

Ticket sales will be available at a

Dinners

THE AMERICAN HEART ASSO-CIATION, Northeastern Pa. Region, will hold its Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner, Thursday, June 28, at the Sheraton-Crossgates, Wilkes-Barre. The affair will begin at 7 p.m. in the Jefferson Room, Dr. Victor F. Greco, Jr., Hazleton, President of the Association, will

Barbara Mahon, Program Director for the American Heart Association announced the menu will feature "Heart Healthy" food such as, fresh fruit cup, relish tray of all fresh vegetables with a lo-fat yogurt dip, roast spring chicken and broiled flounder.

The program will feature the presentation of the film "Body Fuel" which deals with important nutrition tips, followed by demon-strations of "Aerobic Dance for Heart" and "Jump Rope for Heart", and fund raising reports concerning the results from the special event "Jail Bail for Heart" to be held earlier that day on Public Square, Wilkes-Barre.

Following the program, awards will be presented by Dr. Greco, Dennis Garvey and Atty. Thomas O'Connor, to the organizations special volunteers.

The 1984 Campaign comes to, a close on June 30.

THE ALDERSON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Harveys Lake, will hold a Spaghetti Dinner on Saturday, June 30. Serving will be from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The price for adults is $4.00, and for children, 12 and under, is $2.00. The menu consists of spaghetti with sauce and meatballs, salad, rolls, dessert and beverage.

Tickets are available from any board member.

Seminars

DUE TO THE INDECISION that homeowners and tenants have been experiencing recently as to whether to rent or purchase their telephone system, the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College will conduct a oneday seminar on Telephone Maintenance and Repair.

The seminar will be held on Saturday, June 23, from 10 a.m. to noon and is designed to introduce phones installations.

For more information on the seminar, or to register to attend, contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College, 829-7477 or 829-7483.

WITH THE LONG, HOT SUMMER MONTHS QUICKLY APPROACHING everyone seems to be thinking about preparing for parties, picnics and family gettogethers.

In order to assist in these preparations, the Office of Continuing Education has designed three seminars which will make these preparations easier.

A Home Bartending seminar will be offered on Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m., beginning June 23 through July 28. On Tuesday evenings, from 7 to 9, a Quick and Easy Cooking seminar will be offered beginning June 4 through July 25.

And, for those who enjoy barbecue cooking, an Outdoor Cooking seminar with Chef MacNeal will be offered on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, from 6 to 9, beginning June 19 through June 28.

For more information on the seminars, or to register to attend, contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College, 829-7477 or 829-7483.

Clinics

THE OFFICE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION at Luzerne County Community College, in conjunctin wit vthe Pittston Area School District, will conduct beginning computer camps at the district's Elementary School on New Street, Pittston, starting next month.

A beginner computer camp for seven to nine year olds will be held through Friday, from 1 to 4 p.m. from July 9 through July 13, from 9 and Saturdays by appointment.

available for the home and their a.m. to noon; and a beginner computer campu for 10 to 12 year olds will be held from July 16 through July 20, from 9 a.m. to noon.

Class size will be limited to 20 students, and classes will be filled on first come, first served basis. A second camp in each age group will be conducted if enough registrations warrant it. The second camp for seven to nine year olds will be conducted from July 23 through July 27; and for 10 to 12 year olds, from July 30 through August 3. For further information on the computer camps, or to register to attend, contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College, 829-7477.

Exhibits

THE CIDER PAINTERS OF AMERICA, a group of over 80 members representing seven states and Australia, are exhibiting painting miniatures at College Misericordia's Art Gallery, from June 24 to July 9. An opening reception was held Sunday, June 24.

The show consists of 221 miniature paintings presented by 46 art-

Founded in 1983, the Cider Painters of America (CPA) are a tonguein-cheek tribute to a national group of artists called the Whiskey Painters of America and the Scotch and Watercolor Society. The CPA is dedicated to the fine art of painting miniatures that may not exceed a 3x5 inch size.

Members include professional artists, amateurs, students and teachers. They exhibit their paintings, which are done in various media, several times a year.

The Art Gallery hours are Sunday

Cider-

(Continued from page 1)

economically, since they are more affordable than large paintings for the common person to buy. Also because of their size, miniatures cost less than average size paintings to ship i exhibition to other states.

The Cider Painters of America include professional and amateur artists, teachers as well as students. All members are active painters, since failute to exhibit in two consecutive shows results in automatic expulsion. Membership is by invitation only, and each member may invite only one other member.

There is no president or leader of the club," says Sue. "We're all equal." The person who takes care of memberships, Millie Robinson, is termed "Keeper of the Apples." treasurer, Kathleen Semmel, is dubbed "Keeper of the Jug."

Presently, the Cider Painters have 87 members in eight states, including Massachusetts, Connecticut, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, New Jersey, Ohio and Pennsylvania. Their goal is to include at least one member from every state in the

The Cider Painters are already comprised of many interesting members. Lynn Zajicek is a technical illustrator for NASA. Dottie Brush designs gingerbread houses for women's magazines. Members Geri Williams of Dallas, and Judy 16th pageant, four of which she won.

and three state pageants," claimed

Gina. "The Miss America pageant

"Most girls hesitate to name all much, she should be a real pro at handling the pressure of pageants, right? Wrong! Gina explained how she felt when she heard her name third and second runners up, I quickly ran the rest of the girls through my mind and felt that I had a possibility of winning. To tell you the truth, I didn't even know who they called for first runner up, I just knew it wasn't me. My head started spinning, and then they announced

"After they named the fourth,

'I competed in 13 local pageants

(Continued from page 1)

will be my 17th.'

Martin of Landisville, Pa. are professional painters. Marian Butter- the Scotch and Watercolor Society. field of Tunkhannolck is a professional artist who has lived in Greece and Turkey. Pat Longley, president of the New Jersey Miniature Art Society, is also a member of the Cider Painters of America.

Several other members of the Cider Painters of america are members of other miniature art groups. The Royal Society of Miniature Art-Sculptors and Engravers of London is the first such group to have originated. A similar society was developed in Washington, D.D. in the early days of our country. Known as the Miniautre Painters, Sculptors, and Engravers of Washington, D.C., they were inspired by the London group. The New Jersey Miniature Art Society began in 1970, inspired by the Washington, D.C. society, but wanted a more open membership policy. The Florida Miniature Art Society originated in 1974, inspired by the New Jersey group. In 1978 the Montana Miniature Art Society evolved. The Whiskey Painters of America and the Cider Painters of America complete

Sue Hand credits Don Stone of the Whiskey Painters of America and Pat Longley of the New Jersey Miniature Art Society for helping to inspire the Cider Painters of AmerSpecial thanks are also given to

This is some of the background that has gone into the 245 miniature paintings being exhibited by 52 artists at College Misericordia. This exhibit is the first major show for the Cider Painters. They have had two smaller exhibits at the Imagery art studio and one at the Back Mountain Memorial Library.

All of the paintings displayed have an image size of 3"x5" or less, not including mat or frame. The works are all done in a painting medium, such as watercolor, oil or

The prices of the paintings range this, explains Sue Hand, is that "you can own original paintings by well-known artists for quite afforda-

The Cider Painters of America see the possibility of a new exhibit in Indiana sometime in the future, but plans are not yet finalized.

The boundaries of the Cider Painters have not only extended into other states, but their influence is also being felt in other countries as well. The impact of the Cider Painters of America has been so successful that plans are now formulating for a sister organization in Aus-

Misericordia plans computer camps

College Misericordia's Office of Continuing Education will sponsor a number of week-long campus camps for children this summer.

Among the camps to be held are Fine Arts (ages 5 to 12) beginning June 25. The first session will take place June 25 to June 29; Session II - July 9 to 13; and Session III - July 16 to 20. The sessions are from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. each day. Art projects, aerobics, creative movement and musical activities are planned under the direction of Marilyn Webster, Misericordia's Art Gallery director.

A computer camp is scheduled for July 9 to 13 and July 16 to 20, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. forstudents in middle and high school. The camp, instructed by William Allison, will provide knowledge of BASIC language instruction, hands-on computer experience, group discussions and program development.

A Saturday morning computer workshop for kids will be held on five consecutive Saturdays beginning July 14. Instructor, Karen Puscavage, will introduce participants to graphics and creative computing and apply BASIC language to graphics animation and creative problem solving. The program, which will be held from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon each week, is designed fro students with some knowledge of the BASIC language.

A slim-line camp will be held July 16 to 20 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The program is geared to provide preteens and teenagers with knowledge of good eating habits and exercise to reach and maintain weight goals. Geraldine Wall, athletic director and Joan L. Krause, associate professor, division of Allied Health, will instruct the camp.

Soccer camp is scheduled for July 30 to August 3, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. for youths ages 8 to 14. The program will be instructed by Steve Klingman, University of Scranton varsity coach and U.S.S.F. licensed coach. The program includes training in circuit skills, games, goal keeping, tactic session, chalk talk, films and discussion.

Hockey camp, planned for August 6 to 10 from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. is for students grades 5 to 12. Gay Meyers, hockey coach at Wilkes Colledge, will again instruct the camp. The program will include basic conditioning, basic and advance hockey skills, offensive and defensive strategies and special instruction for goal keepers. Guest instructors will attend the camp throughout the week.

Enrollment is limited for all camps. Fees vary for ach of the camps. Registration can be made by calling College Misericordia's Continuing Education office at 675-2181 ext. 331 or 332.

continues computer studies

In September 1983, Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, established as a requirement for graduation that all students take at least one trimester course in computer science. The first course offered in computer studies, "Introduction to Computers", has been well received and, beginning in September 1984, two additional courses "Advanced BASIC" and "Advanced Placement Computer Science" will be offered. 'The additional courses and growing interest in computers has created an increased need of suitable, up-to-date, facilities, as well as hardware and software," according to O. Charles Lull, dean of the west side prep school. "Wyoming Seminary has responded to this need through the development of a new computer center. The center, which is located on the first floor of Sprague Hall, Sprague Avenue, Kingston, contains drives, 3 printers, and a software library. The number of computers corresponds with the maximum recommended class size. The center will be utilized as a classroom as well as a computer research area where students and faculty will do programming and other ongoing

The new computer center will give us the flexibility to adapt our programs to enable more students to become familiar with the computer through computer programming or as an instructional aid for Mathematics, Science, English, Foreign Languages or history," says

'Wyoming Seminary is pleased to announce that it will provide summer courses in Scholastic Aptitude Test (S.A.T.) Mathematics Review with computer orientation and Introduction to Computers - The Basic Language during the summer," added Lull. The session

These enrichment courses are open to all high school students. Wyoming Seminary students who successfully complete the summer introductory computer course will be granted a .33 of a credit and fulfillment of its graduation require-

The S.A.T. Mathematics Review will be held from 9 a.m. until 12 noon while the Introduction to Computer course will meet from 1 p.m. until 4 p.m. Dr. Andrew Costello, a member of Wyoming Seminary's Mathematics Department, will teach both courses.

At this time, the Introduction to Computer course has a full enrollment but there are openings for the S.A.T. Mathematics Review course. The enrollment fee for this session is $75. For additional information or to register call the Administration Office at Wyoming Seminary, 287-their pageants," she continued, "but I do it for all the girls who don't and I heard Vanessa say, 'Come on Gina plans to do. 12 APPLE computers and disc will run Monday through Friday win. I want them to realize that Jennifer, pull her. She's got to take According to Mrs. Major, a homeher walk!' I haven't seen the tapes they should never give up.' coming is being planned for July 6. CCC plans variety of computer courses Since Gina has competed so

The Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College will offer a variety of summer computer camps at the college's main campus in Nanti-

Two beginning computer camps for kids will be offered to help youngsters become famliar with the computer in a friendly, playful and educational manner.

For children between the ages of 8 and 10, the computer camp will be offered Monday through Friday, July 9 through July 13, from 9 a.m. to noon. For students between the ages of 10 and 15, the computer camp will be offered Monday through Friday, June 25 through June 29, from 1 to 4 p.m.

The beginner computer camps will teach youngsters beginning programming and how it is used in

The intermediate computer camps will teach progressive programming techniques to help students understand the more advanced statements used in basic. Time will be spent with programs, games, discussion and group activities.

For further information on the computer courses, or to register to attend, contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College, 829-7477.

Biathon set remain primarily in the Nay Aug

One of the newest and most exciting events on this summer's race schedule is the Great Steamtown Biatholon. This is a 5 mile run and 20 mile bike race which will start and finish at Nay Aug Park, Scranton. Racetime is set for 8 a.m. on

Sponsors for this event are Paul Gronski Enterprises, Inc., Royal Bottling Co., Inc., and Stroh's Brewing Co. The Biatholon is a fund raising event to benefit Steamtown U.S.A. which is in the process being moved to Scranton. The Scranton Organized Area Runner's Club and the Lackawanna Bicycle Club are both actively involved in planning this event. The 5 mile running course will be the first of the two events. It will

Park area. The 20 mile bike course will start at Nay Aug Park on Vine St. Bikers will follow Vine St. to Harrison Ave., take a left onto Harrison Ave. up to Moosic St., a left onto Moosic St. From there the bikers will head south on route 307 past Lake Scranton and continue to the junction of route 307 and interstate 380. This will be the turn around point and they will head back to Nay Aug Park following the same course.

Applications are available at Paul Gronski Enterprises, Inc., Royal Bottling Co., and most area sports shops and beer distributors. Preregistration is $10. The deadline for pre-registration is July 8. After this date, the cost is $12.50. All preregistered racers will receive a T-A mini-biatholon for children under 12 years of age will begin at 9 a.m. the same morning. The Scranton YWCA will organize this event which will consist of an approximate 1 mile run and 5 mile bike course. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded. There will be a race-day registration only, and the cost will

According to Howard Wolfe, assistant race director for the biathalon, there i a strong corp of volunteers planning the event but many more volunteers are needed on the actual day of the race. For more information contact Howard Wolfe at 346-3911 or John Gronski at

MALTBY DRUG STORE 326 Hughes St.

Swoyersville, Pa. 287-7724

Maalox 12 Oz.

FREE PICK UP AND DELIVERY LOWEST PRICES GUARANTEED JOE RANIELI, R. PH. 287-7724

my name. I remember my hands else's. I can't even decide when I'm coming up over my face, and my knees getting weak. I was in total I couldn't move. Vanessa Williams, Miss America 1984, and Jennifer Eshelman, Miss Pennsylvania 1983, were standing by me of that night, but I bet they're hysterical.'

Gina wasn't the only one feeling the pressure. Mrs. Major told of her reactions that moment.

"The pressure had been mounting for days. When the time came, just held my breath, and when I heard them say her name I just sobbed. In fact, I was crying so hard that I even missed seeing her get crowned.

Don't let all this fool you, however. Being Miss Pennsylvania can have its drawbacks, too.

"For the past eight years I've been totally independent and on my own," said the new Miss Pennsylvania. "Now, however, I have absolutely no free time. It seems that every second of my time is someone going to get up in the morning for myself. I'm just not used to all the attention.

It's the kind of life that would make anyone want to come back home for a while, and that's what

The open house will be held at Gus Genetti's from 6 to 9 p.m "Gina will only have three hours to spend in the area," said Mrs. Major. "During that time, she'll be mingling with the crowd and signing autographs.' Gina would like the people of the Back Mountain area to know that she'll always think of this as her

"By rights, the pageant committee considers the area where the girl won her local title as her home," she said. 'Since I ran for Miss Pennsylvania under the title of Miss Lehigh Valley, they consider that my home, and set up a homecoming for me there. I requested, however, that I be allowed to come back to my real home. I still consider it my home and always will.'

BARON'S SEAFOOD

Wholesale - Retail 300 Avenue A, Swoyersville 287-2111 Let Baron's be your seafood headquarters

We Carry a Complete Line of FRIED HADDOCK, FISH STICKS, DEVILED CLAMS, DEVILED CRABS, SHRIMP, LOBSTER, FRESH CLAMS, FRESH SALADS, AND ASSORTED FROZEN FOODS

HOMEMADE CLAM CHOWDER Monday-Thursday 8-5; Friday 8-6; Sat. 8 to Noon Take Out Orders FRESH SEAFOOD DAILY