Ask Your Dental Hygienist
The next time you have your teeth cleaned, don't let the dental hygienist do all the talking. By asking the right questions, you can learn a lot more about maintaining your dental health. Commonly asked questions are:
Q. How often should I replace my toothbrush?
A. A worn out toothbrush will not clean your teeth properly. Replace your brush every three to four months.
Q. What are the basic rules of good dental health?
A. Clean your teeth thoroughly with a brush and floss at least once a day; or more often if your dental hygienist recommends it. Eat well balanced meals and limit snacks; use fluoride toothpaste or mouthwash rinse; visit your dental hygienist and dentist of a regular basis; and be kind to your dental hygienist.
