Programs

THE OFFICE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION at Luzerne County Community College has developed a two-track weekend program designed for busy persons whose time limitations prevent them from pursuing a college degree.

Track I of the LCCC weekend program requires classes to meet one weekend per month, except for the last month which will require two meetings, for five months.

In the Track II program, classes will meet each weekend for three hours and 30 minutes for a total of 11 weeks. Courses will be offered mornings and afternoons on both Saturdays and Sundays with the student having the option of day and time.

Among the courses to be offered on the Track I program are Art Appreciation, Auto Electric Systems, Basic Programming, Introduction to Biological Science, Business Math, Medical Technology, Salesmanship, Introduction to Data Processing, Introduction to Criminal Justice, English Composition I, American History to 1865, General Psychology, and Fundamentals of Speech.

The Track II will program include the offering of Principles of Accounting I and II, Architectural Drafting, Basic Programming, Beginning Typewriting, Shorthand Theory, Business Communications, Word Processing, General Chemistry, Basic Photography, Basic News Writing, Food Sanitation, Plumbing and Heating, Real Estate Practice, and Introduction to Philosophy.

Registration for the weekend class programs will be held at LCCC on Saturday, Aug. 18, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.; on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 28 and 29, from 9 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.; and on Thursday, Aug. 30, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Classes for the Track I program will begin on Saturday, Aug. 18; and end on Sunday, Dec. 9. Classes for the Track II program will begin on Saturday, Sept. 8; and end on Sunday, Nov. 18.

For further information on the Weekend College Program at Luzerne County Community College, contact the Office of Continuing Education.

THE SPEECH DEPARTMENT at Allied Services' John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine is offering free speech and language screenings for children ages two through 12 on Thursday, Aug. 9, from 9 a.m. to noon, and from 1 to 4 p.m.

According to Theresa Jacopetti, Director of the Heinz Institute speech department, appointments are necessary and may be made by contacting the Wilkes-Barre Twp. facility at 826-3581. Appointments must be made.

Further information concerning the free speech screening and other available services can be obtained by calling the speech department at the Heinz Institute. The Heinz Institute is located on Mundy Street near the Wyoming Valley Mall.

"THE LEARNING EXPERIENCE" is a new program being offered by the W-B YMCA starting in September, 1984. Children must be five years old before Sept. 30. Class will meet Monday through Thursday from 9:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The curriculum will include the Open Court Reading Program along with Montessori Geography, Sensory, Math and Science lessons; also a 30 minute gym class each day.

The instructor will be Colleen Wingard who is a certified elementary and Montessori pre-primary teacher. Ms Wingard has four years teaching experience as a kindergarten teacher; and one year experience in a Montessori classroom. "The Learning Experience" is an alternative program for the kindergarten age child. Class size is limited so your child can receive individual attention in a small group. There will be an open house held on Tuesday and Wednesday, Aug. 14, and 15, from 10 a.m. to noon. All interested parents are invited to visit and bring your child along. Come to open house or contact the W-B YMCA at 823-2191.

BETTY J. FORD, Director of Membership Services for Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council, announces that the Council will be offering Basic Leadership I at the Council Office on Monday, Aug. 13 from 7 to 9:30 p.m. Basic Leadership II will be offered at the Council Office on Aug. 20 from 7 to 9:30 p.m.

This is training for adult volunteers, new Girl Scout Troop Leaders, assistant leaders, or long-time leaders who would like to update their leadership skills. It is one of the support services offered by the Girl Scout Council to help Girl Scout Troop Leaders in their work with girls.

Please call the Council Office at 829-2631 to reserve a place. Those attending are asked to bring a handbook if they have one. The Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council Office is at 10 South Sherman Street, Wilkes-Barre, PA 18702.

Circus comes to town!

Your entire family can be thrilled by a heart-stopping performance on Aug. 10 when the Suarez Loyal Repensky world renowned riding troupe exhibit their skills under the Hoxie Bros. and Great American Combined Circus big top at Dallas Township Field under the exclusive auspices of the Kiwanis Club of Dallas.

This winning combination to be seen circus day is a blending of the Vacaros of old Mexico in the Suarez family and the old world style and charm of the Loyal family. A super amalgamation of macho verve and grace. The topping (literally) is Miss Maggie Suarez an 11 year bundle of effervescence creating an all new generation of equestrian art.

Young Tim Loyal and his captivating wife Denyse perform feats of daring horsemanship never before seen on this continent or perhaps throughout the known entertainment world.

As time honored as the exclusive riding schools of old Europe and as fresh and brash as a bronco buster at a rodeo, tomorrow a master combination that is no where surpassed. Come sit on the edge of your seat and be awestruck when the Kiwanis Club presents The Hoxie Brothers and Great American Circus in the canvas coliseum at Dallas Township School Athletic Field on Aug. 10. enjoy the entire spectacle of jugglers, clowns, elephants, pretty girls, acrobats, handsome young men, leopards, chimpanzees, and much, much more on this not to be missed particular day of circus excitement.

Meetings

THE ANTHRACITE JIM BEAM BOTTLE CLUB will meet on Tuesday, Aug. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in Konefal's Restaurant, Main Street, Edwardsville. A display of limited edition decanters will be featured. This will be the final opportunity to make reservations for the annual summer party at St. Jude's Park, Mountaintop, on Sunday, Aug. 19. Activities will start at 12 noon and terminate with dinner at 6 p.m. Music for your listening and dancing pleasure will be provided by Gen Boylan's popular orchestra.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Lake-Lehman Board of School Directors will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 14 at 8 p.m. in the auditorium of the Lake-Lehman High School, Lehman. Joseph "Red" Jones, president, will preside.

THE HELPING HAND of the Noxen Methodist Church will hold an Ice Cream Social on Saturday, Aug. 11, from 2 to 7 p.m. at the church. Wimpies, cake, soda, hot dogs and sauerkraut, ice cream and homemade ice cream will be served.

The church is located two miles off Route 309, on Route 29.

THE LUZERNE COUNTY FAIR will be held September 5-9 at the Fair Grounds located on Route 118, Lehman. This year's fair will offer featured performances along with expanded food offerings with a variety of ethnic and family favorites. Thousands of dollars will be given away in ribbons as prizes for crafts entered in the hobby arts and crafts and farm categories.

4-H'ers will be entering their prize possessions in competition at the fair. Commercial and farm exhibitors will also be displaying their wares. For the 1984 brochure, write to: Luzerne County Fair, P.O. Box 113, Dallas, Pa. 18612.

CIRCULATION DAY will be held Saturday, Aug. 25, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Dorranceton United Methodist Church, 549 Wyoming Ave., Kingston. Sponsored by Unity Church of Wyoming Valley, this is a time when people are asked to clean out their closets and garages to share those things they no longer need with others.

All items at Circulation Day are donated by those wishing to share with others and all items are absolutely free.

Anyone wishing to help with this day may contact Rev. Jean Grace Addison at 822-2230.

A MUSCULAR DYSTROPHY CARNIVAL will be held Tuesday, Aug. 14, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Carpenter's Road, Harvey's Lake, across from Grotto Pizza.

There will be fun and games for all.

JONATHAN R. DAVIS VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANY, Idetown, will hold its 19th Annual Horse Show at 8 a.m. Saturday, August 11, and at 9 a.m. Sunday, Aug. 12, on the Lehman Snow Grounds, Route 118, four miles west of Dallas.

The show this year is dedicated to the late Mr. Albert G. Davis, a benefactor not only to the fire company but also to the community. Through his generosity, he not only donated the land and initial building, but also completely financed the first fire truck that is still being used by the company.

The fire company which bears

Albert Davis' fathers name was established 25 years ago and is celebrating its silver anniversary this year.

The members of the fire company would like to thank the Albert Davis family for their financial assistance and community interest that they have shown in the Idetown area.

Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free. Plenty of free parking on the grounds.

Horsemen interested in stalls can call Wendy Grey Martin, 639-5678.

THE TRUCKSVILLE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will again sponsor "Summer Happening", a fun-filled day for the entire family, offering good food, games and entertainment. This special event will be held Tuesday, Aug. 21, on the church grounds, rain or shine.

The reasonably priced food menu will include hot dogs, ham barbecues, whimpies, pierogies and homemade ice cream. Special children's attractions will include face painting, a petting zoo and pony rides. "The Webspinners" under the leadership of Andy and Barb Glowach, will be on hand to entertain.

The activities get underway at 4 p.m. and will last until 9 p.m. Trucksville United Methodist Church is located on Church Road in Trucksville, just a few yards from the light on Route 309.
