

People

Quilters discuss Show '84

The Pennsylvania Quilters met recently at the home of Jane Evans, Kingston, to discuss plans for the forthcoming Quilt Show '84 which will be held Oct. 13 and 14, at Pennsylvania State University Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman.

Donna Goobic, co-chairwoman of the show will be assisted by Jane Evans and Dorothy Lukas.

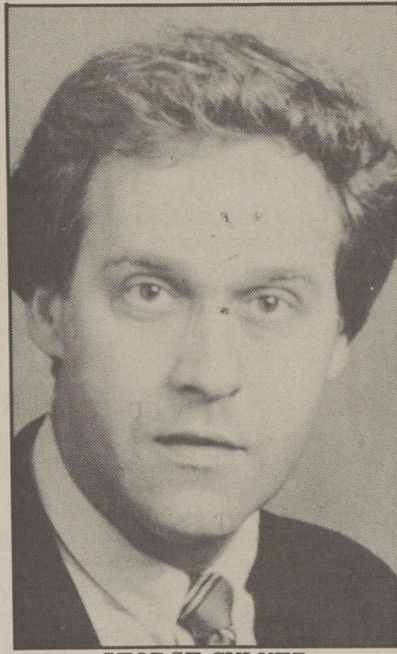

The following committees have been selected: Publicity—Clara Slembariski, Ann Balavage, Mary Hoyes, Margie Hovan, Phyllis Goodrich, Kay Danzico, Barbara Confer. Program—Cinda Cawley, Denise Nordburg. Raffle Quilt Construction Committee—Peggy Brislin, Donna Goobic, Ann Bernatitus, Wilma Jones, Flossy Lewis, Jane Evans, Mary Yagozinski, Alberta Ontko, Dot Lukas, Nancy Brown. Quilt Raffle—Joan Rihan, Avis Kocher. Road Signs—Marianne Williams, Sally Davenport, Nancy Delinsky, Maureen Isaac, Millie Robinson. Vendors—Cheryl Kerestes, Pam Lawson. Display—Flossy Lewis, Irene Ezbitski, JillAnn Space, Loraine Ezbianski, JoAnn Kyttila, Marie Yatsko, Celeste Dymond. Christmas Room—Audrey Simonovich, Shirley Roman, Joan Hermann.

Food—Catherine Savage, Jean Litchkowsky, Eleanor Larson, Peg Rutt. Quilt in Progress—Rose Koptcho, Loretta Jones. Door Prizes—Mary Hoyes, Millie Robinson. Gate Tickets—Margie Hovan, Ingrid Rogler.

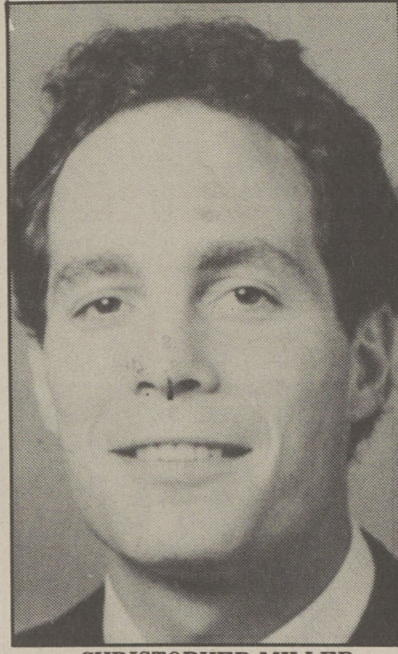

The quilt show will feature approximately 300 articles which will include new and antique quilts, wallhangings, clothing and Christmas items. A watercolor art exhibit by artist Pat Dolan.

Workshops will be conducted both days. Instructors will be Jane Blair, Conshohocken, quilter and nationally-known teacher and lecturer. Laurie Walsh, Morristown, VT. teacher, designer and publisher of her own Trapunto patterns, president of the Green Mountain Quilters Guild, quilt show judge. Nancy Brown, teacher, quilter and home economist. JillAnn Space, teacher, quilter and fabric shop manager. Mary Ann Shades, teacher, quilter and home economist.

For further information contact Sharon Ward, Pennsylvania State University Coordinator, workshops and special programs, Penn State-Wilkes-Barre Campus, Lehman, PA 18627.

GEORGE CULVER

CHRISTOPHER MILLER

Two named to head first Heart Project

Stanford Karp, Executive Director of the "Battle of Wilkes-Barre" Heart Project, announce the appointment to executive staff of George Culver to serve as Project Director and Christopher Miller to serve as Project Manager.

"The Battle of Wilkes-Barre", with headquarters in Wilkes-Barre, is the first community response to heart disease in the U.S. and its ravages to individuals, families, economy, and community - whereby tens of thousands of Valley residents will join in a testing and basic fitness program, chaired by the world-renowned Arizona Heart Institute.

The Battle of Wilkes-Barre will be chronicled in a prime time hour news documentary to air nationally on public television.

Culver and Miller's responsibilities include direction, management, and execution of the Project throughout Wyoming Valley.

George Culver, a New York City resident, was formerly National Manager of Consumer Marketing for Showtime-The Movie Channel, Inc., a pay cable network, and is Executive Producer of a New York City based production company which recently concluded a hit off-Broadway play on the life of Zelda Fitzgerald.

Culver is a graduate of the Wharton school of the University of Pennsylvania. Christopher Miller, a Wyoming Valley resident, formerly owned a Pennsylvania-based human service public relations firm, and a retail-wholesale importing company.

Miller is a graduate of Wilkes College.

NICOLE LYNN HALL

Nicole Hall celebrates 7th birthday

Nicole Lynn Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Del Denmon, Tunkhannock, and Louis Hall, Beaumont, celebrated her seventh birthday, Thursday, Aug. 9. Her grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saporito, and Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Denmon, Sr., all of Dallas. Her great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rahill of Exeter.

Gregorski named to Meadows

MARILYN GREGORSKI

Mrs. Marilyn Gregorski was recently chosen as Director of Therapeutic Recreation according to Thomas Sweeney, Administrator, The Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas. In her new position, Mrs. Gregorski will be responsible for a wide variety of activities as well as volunteer services throughout the nursing center.

Previous to her accepting the Meadows position, Mrs. Gregorski was employed as activities director and volunteer coordinator at Maple Hill Nursing Home, Lehman.

Mrs. Gregorski resides in Dallas with her husband, John, and children, Cheryl and John.

Ms. Senior America Pageant set for Oct. 11

The Pennsylvania State Ms Senior America Pageant will be held on Thursday, Oct. 11 at Genetti's Convention Center, Hazleton.

Women representing various counties and senior organizations throughout the state will take part in the festivities which include ladies who are 60 years and older. The participants will express their life style in evening gowns, talent, Philosophy of Life and an interview with the Judges. According to Maureen Donovan, Pageant Director, "The Judges will look for 'Inner Beauty' and an energetic outlook on life. The Pageant is the first to honor women who have reached the 'Age of Elegance'."

The winner of the Ms Pennsylvania Senior America Pageant will receive an all expense paid trip to Atlantic City. While in Atlantic City, Ms Pennsylvania will be a participant in the Ms Senior America

Region I Pageant at Resorts International Hotel & Casino on April 10, 1985.

Activities on October 11 will include a full course luncheon, music, special entertainment and the excitement of the Pageant.

Attending this year's Pageant will be former Pennsylvania Queens Elynor Luckhurst of Philadelphia, Stella Van Neukerken from Lansdale, Florence Shields of Swarthmore, Thelma Pike, White Haven, Anna Gilmore, Souderton and Mary Louise Mathias of Scranton.

Tickets are available through Agnes Yorke, 202 Pine Street, Tamaqua, Pa. 18252.

Further information regarding the Pageant and contestant applications can be obtained by contacting Pageant Headquarters: Maureen Donovan, Dir. 33 Ashbrooke Drive, Voorhees, NJ 08043.

Philharmonic auditions slated

Musicians of professional symphonic capability are invited to audition for the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic on Sept. 8, 9, and 10 at Marywood College in Scranton. These auditions are for the following openings: principal oboe, principal cello, principal harp, and section violin. General substitute auditions will also be held at this time.

The Philharmonic, a fully professional, unionized symphony orchestra based in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre, is now under the baton of Hugh Wolff, who is also Associate Conductor of the National Symphony. The orchestra's 13th season will premier September 29 and 30 with Beethoven's Ninth Symphony featuring the Susquehanna Masterworks Chorus. Subsequent dates are Oct. 26 and 27 with pianist Andre Michel Schub, Symphony Circul on Nov. 16 and 17, Holiday Classic on Dec. 15; Guest Conductor Nelson Riddle on Feb. 22 and 23; Rogeri Trio on March 29 and 30, and All American Classic with Violinist Guillermo Figueroa on May 3 and 4.

Musicians who wish to audition should call the Philharmonic During business hours, (717) 287-1916 or (717) 342-0920, immediately to schedule an appointment or to receive additional information. Inquiries may also be made by mail to Philharmonic, Box 71, Avoca, PA 18641.

Dallas Township class of 1934 holds reunion

On Saturday evening, July 14, the class of 1934 of the Dallas Township High School, with spouses and two teachers held its 50th class reunion at the Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas on Saturday, July 14.

Class president, Willard Lauderdale, was Master of Ceremonies, and gave the invocation.

A Memorial Tribute for classmate Frank D. Edwards, who passed away Sept. 11, 1981 was given by Glenn Kitchen.

Walter Lewin, Col. U.S.A.F. Ret. was speaker of the evening, during which time, he highlighted the year of 1934, it's food prices, popular movies, music, historical events, cars, etc.

Mrs. Dorothy Dodson was praised for having been a "super coordinator" of all the past and present very successful class reunions of the Class of 1934.

Two teachers present were recognized: Mrs. Lenora Robinson Keeney and J. Lloyd Drake.

Door prizes were presented to: Antonia Kozemchak Dolbear; Lulu Meeker Vanbuskirk; Thelma Keifer Thomas; Ethel Kitchen.

The following attended the reunion: Paul and Jeanne Brodhun, Laceyville; Walter Lewin, Col.

U.S.A.F. Ret. Sumpter, S.C.; Glenn and Ethel Kitchen, Weatherly, Pa.; Theodore and Marguerite Cobleigh, Troy, Pa.; Robert and Hazel Hislop, Dallas; Willard and Jessie Ritchie Lauderbach, Binghamton, N.Y.; Charles and Lulu Meeker Vanbuskirk, Rockledge, Fla.; Thelma Keifer Thomas, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Albert and Helen Givan

Lewis, Phoenix, Ariz.; Edward and Jean Ritchie Buckley, Dallas; Job and Ellen Kunkle Dietz, Kunkle, Robert and Antonia Kozemchak Dolbear, Dallas; Bernard and Elizabeth Newman Corby, Dallas; Fred and Dorothy Elston Dodson, Kunkle; Lenora Robinson Keeney, Belleville, N.J.; J. Lloyd and Kate Drake, Wyoming, Pa.

We've Moved
For Our Clients' Convenience
Carol Eason's Beauty Salon
Now Located on 1st Floor
at 42-44 Main Street, Dallas
with the

- Same Fast, Friendly Service
- Same Reasonable Prices
- and
- Hair Styling
- Skin Care
- Waxing
- Nail Tips

By Professional Stylists
Carol Eason, Owner
Marty Brown, Stylist
Debbie Lamoreux, Stylist
By Appointment Only-Call 675-4900

Scoutmaster Blansett honored upon leaving

Harveys Lake Boy Scout Troop and their family and friends gathered on July 29 for a family picnic at the road side rest at Hardings Flats to bid farewell to their Scoutmaster Lee Blansett. The Blansetts will be moving to Virginia.

After a Court of Honor, Senior Patrol Leader Carson Gramley presented a plaque to Lee on behalf of Troop 331 and the committee for his two years of service and dedication, not only as scoutmaster, but as a friend to all.

The troop also has been very busy this summer starting with May 12 and 13 an overnight campout and whitewater rafting trip down the Lehigh River at Jim Thorpe, Pa. With this being a first time rafting for the new scouts this was a real thrill. The older scouts made the trip last year. On May 18, 19 and 20 most of the troop attended the spring camporee. From July 8 to 14, 12 boys and their leaders went troop camping at Camp Achahela. The boys came home with over 30 merit badges and skill awards. Also they attended the Order of the Arrow tap out ceremony on Wednesday, with three boys and Mr. Blansett being tapped into the order.

With summer coming to a close the troop is now looking forward to O.A. weekend on Aug. 17, 18, and 19 and the fall camporee, which is being held at Francis Slocum Park, on September 21, 22 and 23.

The Scouts also helped with the Harveys Lake Lions Club ox roast in June. The Lions Club are the troop sponsors.

Knights install officers

Knights of Columbus Lake Silkworth Centennial Council 7860 recently held election and installation of officers.

Joseph Hogan, Plymouth was elected Grand Knight. Additional elected officers are Frank Summa, Deputy Grand Knight; Tom Rusnak, Chancellor; Ken Sorber, Warden; Bill Kingsbury, Recorder;

Mike Petruska, Treasurer; Steve Wasilko, Advocate; Joe Sitar, Inside Guard; Ted Wojciechowski, Outside Guard; John Roman, Trustee.

A social evening followed the installation.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Aug. 16 at 8 p.m. at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Rt. 29, Lake Silkworth.

Catherine Polacky honored

Mrs. Catherine Polacky of Huntsville Road in Dallas was honored at a summer party by her children and 25 grandchildren.

A native of Larksville, Mrs. Polacky moved to the Back Mountain in 1935 when she married her husband the late Joseph Polacky who was a Dallas Postmaster from 1936 until 1962.

A graduate of Bloomsburg Normal School and College Misericordia, Mrs. Polacky taught in the Larksville public schools for eight years. The first lay teacher in the Scranton Diocese, she taught various grades in Gate of Heaven School for 21 years retiring in 1974.

A charter member of Gate of Heaven Church, Mrs. Polacky was also a founding member of the Altar and Rosary Society.

The following children and grandchildren attended the party. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Polacky and son

Joe D., Durwoody, Georgia; Mr. and Mrs. William Flagg, Long Island, N.Y., (Mrs. Flagg is the former Mary Polacky) and children Billy, Cathy, Susie, Cindy, Bobby, Joey, Jennifer and Michele; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sitar, Dallas, (Mrs. Sitar is the former Carol Polacky) and children, Michael, Annette, Lucia, Paula and David; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner, Demunds, (Mrs. Gardner is the former Pat Polacky) and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Humenansky (Mrs. Humenansky is the former Vicki Gardner), Brian, Debbie, Cheryl, Todd, Randy and Brad. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Herman, (Mrs. Herman is the former Jeanne Polacky) and children, Christopher, Katie, Carol Jean, Jeanne Clare, of Allentown.

Also enjoying the festivities were Mrs. Anna Sitar, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Davis and family, Miss Chris Shurmansky.

William Weigels wed 47 years

Mr. and Mrs. William Weigel, 316 Cliffside Ave., Trucksville, observed their 47th wedding anniversary on Saturday, Aug. 11.

The couple has three daughters, Mrs. Peggy Poynton, Dallas; Mrs. Mary Lou Painter, Virginia; and Mrs. Susan Henning, Maryland.

They also have nine grandchildren, Juli Poynton Geiger, Kristel

Poynton, Laura Poynton, Dallas; Raymond Malkemes, Billy Malkemes, Florida; Sheri Possiel, Virginia; Sheila Tice, U.S. Marines, Camp Le-Jeune, North Carolina; Jean Marie Welch, Edward Welch, Maryland.

They also have three great-grandchildren, Jennifer Geiger, Dallas; Natasha Malkemes, Florida; and Dustin Tice, North Carolina.

King's expands program

Part-time college students in the area will find more than 75 regular academic courses available to them at King's College this fall.

Coordinated by the Center for Part-Time Studies, the schedule of courses is designed primarily to meet the needs of area adults who are pursuing degree or certification programs or who wish to take courses for career or personal development.

More information is available from the Center at 826-5865.

Melba's Fashion Nook
Investment Dressing For Today's Woman

The latest in Fashions by TANNER sizes 4 to 18

Hickory Corners Shoppes Carverton Rd., Trucksville
696-4703
Hours: Tues., Wed., Fri., Sat. 10-6 Thurs. 10-8

SALE ON

SUMMER CLOTHES

IMPORTED CLOTHES
ACCESSORIES
JEWELRY

Number 9 Shop
(corner S. Franklin St.)
Wilkes-Barre
Phone 825-2024