Convocation will open PSU fall term

Faculty and staff of Penn State Wilkes-Barre will gather on Thursday, Aug. 23, to open the 1984 fall term with a Convocation that will include workshops on topics from microcomputing to effective teaching strategies. The convocation will run from 3:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. when a closing reception will be held.

Classes for students at Penn State Wilkes-Barre begin August 24.

Dr. James H. Ryan, Campus Executive Officer, will deliver a "State of the Campus" address at the convocation. The faculty-staff program will begin with a get-acquainted session at 3:30 p.m. with special emphasis on full-time and part-time faculty members and all staff learning more about what each other does on campus, according to Dr. David Rice, Dean of Academic Affairs. The convocation includes clerical, maintenance, administrative, faculty and staff personnel.

Nine workshops will be offered, and faculty and staff may choose their preference. They are as follows: Alcohol and Drug Awareness, led by Jane Griffin, assistant professor in physical education; LIAS Usage about the library computer system, led by Joan Diana, head librarian; Audio services, demonstration of equipment for faculty use by members of the library staff; Teleconferencing, led by Harold Groff, coordinator of the Telecommunications degree program; The Effective Advisor, led by Diane Hunt, coordinator of Counseling Services; Effective Teaching Strategies, led by Dr. Rice; Microcomputing, demonstration by Mike Elias; Our Students and their Needs, led by John R. Murphy, Director of Student Programs; Technology and the Humanities, coled by an engineering professor, Jack Kolesar, and a psychology professor, Dr. Craig Clarke.

Intermediate schools prepare for first day

Dallas Intermediate School students will begin school on Tuesday, Aug. 28.

Some of the district's fourth grade students have been permanently assigned to the Intermediate School. All fifth and sixth grade students will attend the Intermediate School.

The professional staff of the building will participate in in-service orientation programs prior to the opening of school to provide a successful initiation of the school year.

Parents are reminded that on August 28 Intermediate students will be attending full day sessions from 9:15 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Parents should consult the bus routes published in the newspapers to determine their child's bus assignment and departure points.

It is requested that students ride a bus to and from school the first day to facilitate student awareness of their bus assignment and to aid the district in maintaining accurate and comprehensive student bus riding records. If it is necessary for a

PSU students attend conference

Six Penn State Wilkes-Barre student leaders and two staff members are attending a Student Leadership Conference this week at the Penn State Capitol Campus near Harrisburg, according to John Murphy, Director of Student Programs and Services.

The Wilkes-Barre campus students are among more than 100 students from the 17 Commonwealth campuses of Penn State University attending the conference, sponsored by the Council of Branch Campus Student Governments.

Local students attending are Bob Graham of Mountaintop, president of Student Government Association of Penn State Wilkes-Barre; John Jablowski of Ashley, vice president; Lori Britton of Ashley, treasurer; Janine Jescavage of Plains, secretary; Judson Smales of Tunkhannock, representative of the Engineering Society, and Len Farber of Hunlock Creek. Staff members in attendance are Dean Murphy and Jodi Millard, coordinator of Student Activities and Placement.

"The conference will provide training in important aspects of leadership, including communications skills, time management leadership styles, motivation, planning, problem-solving and decision-making," said Dean Murphy. He is leading a workshop on listening skills, communications, group dynamics and self-awareness.

Heater named to post

Stephen L. Heater, OTR-L, Assistant Professor and Director of Occupational Therapy at College Misericordia, has been re-elected to another two year term as president of the Pennsylvania Occupational Therapy Association, Inc. As president of
