Sales

THE NEWCOMERS CLUB OF WYOMING VALLEY will hold its Annual Bake Sale on Saturday, Sept. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the IGA Food Mart in the Dallas Shopping Center.

A delicious variety of baked goods will be available for purchase.

TEMPLE ISRAEL SISTERHOOD is pleased to announce that the annual Sisterhood Rummage Sale will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 16 through Wednesday, Sept. 19 at 39 E. Northampton St., Wilkes-Barre (formerly Norton's Dress Shop).

Parking will be available at Percy Brown's lot and at the lot on the corner of Northampton and N. Washington Sts., free parking validation with purchase.

This rummage sale is recognized as the most popular in the area because of the excellent value of the merchandise, such as new and nearly new clothing, appliances, and household items.

THE NOXEN METHODIST WOMEN will hold a rummage and bake sale on Saturday, Sept. 15, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the church.

A "FALL FLING" will be held on Saturday, Sept. 15, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Huntsville United Methodist Church.

Featured will be a rummage sale, a flea market, refreshments and a baked goods sale. For table reservations, call 696-1906.

THE LAKE-LEHMAN BAND SPONSORS will be selling hoagies beginning Tuesday, Sept. 18, and continuing every 3rd Tuesday of the month thereafter from September through and including May.

Orders may be placed with Mrs. Mary Jenkins at 696-2951 or by contacting any Band Sponsor. Arrangements can be made for local delivery of hoagies or orders may be picked up at the Lehman Methodist Church.

THE CIRCLES OF CHRIST UNITED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, 105 Lee Park Ave., Wilkes-Barre, will hold a rummage sale on September 17, 18 and 19 in the Fellowship Hall of the Church.

Hours are Monday, Sept. 17, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Tuesday, Sept. 18, 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. and Wednesday, Sept. 19, 8:30 a.m. to noon. Wednesday is Bag Day.

A variety of new and used clothing will be available, along with all types of household items.

Members of the community wishing to donate items for the sale may deliver them to the church on Sunday, Sept. 16, beginning at 1 p.m.

Lecture

MISS SYLVIA FOX, missionary to Burundi, Central Africa, with the Free Methodist Church, will speak at the Trucksville Free Methodist Church on Sunday, Sept. 16, at 7 p.m.

Miss Fox has given full-time to women's work in the Burundi Conference during this last term of service. Traveling in a camping van with a Burundi assistant, Miss Fox has gone throughout the country giving training seminars at selected centers.

Leaders have been taught the basics in sewing, health care, reading, cooking, farming and Bible study. "We are attempting," reports Miss Fox, "to provide lessons and inspiration that will speak to the needs of the total woman right where she is." After completing the courses, the women are given supplies for teaching and sent off into the countryside to begin classes in local churches. Many women have come to Christ as a result of these classes.

Miss Fox first went to Burundi in 1971, following a year in language study in Belgium. During her first term, she taught at Muyebe in the home economics boarding school. She served as principal of the secondary school during her second term. She also supervised the women's work on her district, traveling on weekends.

Sylvia was graduated from Spring Arbor College in Michigan and holds a master's degree in education from Edinboro State College in Pennsylvania.

The public is invited to hear this missionary presentation.

The Veterans of the Vietnam War, Inc. is a full service organization open to all veterans.

THE FIRST OF A FOUR-PART SERIES of discussions by the Back Mountain La Leche League will be held Tuesday, Sept. 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Bonnie Margo, Kingston.

At the informal monthly meetings, the women present can enjoy the company and support of other breastfeeding mothers. They can listen, ask questions, and contribute their own perspectives on all aspects of child care. Refreshments are served and a lending library of books on breastfeeding, child care and family topics is available. Babies are also welcome at the meetings.

All interested women are invited to attend. For answers to questions about breastfeeding and form information about the meetings, call Mrs. Albert Holcomb, Pikes Creek; Mrs. Debbie Vaida, Shavertown; Mrs. Paul Fedor, Ceasetown; or Mrs. Edward Gribbin, Trucksville.

FRANKLIN TOWNSHIP SUPERVISORS will hold a special meeting on Monday, Sept. 17, at 8 p.m. in the Orange United Methodist Church.

Purpose of the meeting will be to appoint a supervisor to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Ernest Gay.

THE BACK MOUNTAIN WIDOWS CLUB will meet on Saturday, Sept. 15, at 12:30 p.m. at the Mark II Family Restaurant, Dallas.

Films

THE NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA CHAPTER OF L.O.V.E., League Opposing Vivisection Experiments, will sponsor a presentation of the film "Tools For Research" on Tuesday, Sept. 18, at 7:30 p.m. at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center, South and W. River Streets in Wilkes-Barre. Michael Ware of the American Anti-Vivisection Society in Jenkintown is slated to be the guest speaker immediately following the screening of the film. Ware is a former Program Director for the Animal Protection Institute in California and the Editor of Mainstream Magazine.

"Tools For Research" has won many awards, including the Best Medical Research Film Award for 1984. It is also a finalist in the American Film Festival. Admission is free as the public is cordially invited to attend.

The League Opposing Vivisection Experiments (L.O.V.E.) is a non-profit group whose members work to abolish the suffering and death of millions of animals who are used in experiments for the supposed benefit of mankind.
