Local soccer teams lead league

Back Mountain soccer teams — Cosmos, Strikers, Kicks and Rowdies — are the league leaders in the Division II U.16 Soccer Loop, followed closely by the Forty Fort Pioneers. Next week's match-up of the postponed game between the Kicks and the Rowdies should be quite a game. Also the Strikers versus the Rowdies and the Kicks against the Cosmos who play back to back commencing at 1 p.m. at the Dallas Township Field, Saturday, Oct. 6.

Games played Sept. 29 were BM Kicks over the WB Blast 4-1, Jimmie Lister scoring first on a penalty, Mike Dzanko on a rebound shot from Scott Shafer, David Morris and Jimmie Lister each adding one on powerful throw ins near the box by Rick Parry.

BM Cosmos defeated the BM Sting 7-2, on scores by Jodi Hummel, Chris Scharff, Aaron Dennis, Eric Marshall. Bruce Weaver notched a hat-trick on the day scoring twice unassisted and one aided by Scharff. John Mersbaum netted both goals for the Sting who played most of the game with 9 men due to injuries.

BM Strikers posted a 3-0 win over the FF Pioneers on goals by D.J. Hopkins on a pass from Dale Root on the wing. Chris Hampel hammered in the second goal then assisted J.J. Phillips on the third.

Charlie Leaf recorded the shut out in goal for the Strikers.

BM Rowdies downed the MT Rangers 7-0 with John Sheehan recording his fourth shut-out of the season in goal. Jeff Miller notched his first goal of the season having a super game in midfield, as Paul Melone notched his second hat-trick of the season. Others scoring were Enrico Nardone, Jason Maniskas and Eric Rosentel.

League Standings: BM Cosmos 7-0-1-25; BM Strikers 6-2-0-22; BM Kicks 5-1-1-21; BM Rowdies 5-1-1-21; FF Pioneers 4-1-3-21; WB Blast 4-3-1-19; MT Rangers 3-4-1-17; Abington 3-5-0-16; Plains 3-5-0-16; BM Sting 1-7-0-12; MT Gremlins 0-8-0-10.

Dallas golfers run record to 8-2

In a tri-match at Irem Temple Golf Course Monday, Sept. 24, Dallas ran its record to 8-2 by defeating Meyers 13½-7½ and Lake-Lehman 18½-2½. The Mountaineers dropped to 8-3 following Wednesday, Sept. 26, match with Valley West over the same course when they were edged 11-10 by the Spartans.

Shutouts by Rich Holthaus and A.J. Bittner led the Mountaineers to the win over the Mohawks although Meyers John Donnini took first medalist honors with a one-over-par 49 on the 12-hole course.

Mountaineers Derek Tamburro took second honors with 57 and Jim Aikman was third with 58.

Donnini shut out Tamburro 3-0 and Mohawk Grula took Darren Spivey 2½-½. Jim Aikman of Dallas defeated Tarutis 2½-½; Mount Albert won over Roberts 2½-½; Holthaus shut out Lecce 3-0 and Bittner blanked Klug 3-0.

The Mountaineers posted five shutouts over the Black Knights in their match to win 18½-2½. Tamburro was low medalist with 57; Aikman shot 58 and Lake-Lehman's Mark Lopasky took third medalist honors with 63.

Match play results were Tamburro shutting out Lopasky 3-0; Spivey tying Landmesser 1½-1½; Aikman shutting out Bozinski 3-0.

Other shutouts were recorded by Albert of Lake-Lehman's Spencer; Holthaus taking Knight Krupa; and Bittner defeating Knight Frederick.

In the match with Valley West played Thursday over the 12-hole course at Irem Temple Country Club it was an evenly played match with the final point going to the Spartans for the 11-10 score.

"It's just one of those things," said Dallas Coach Charles Preece, concerning his Mountaineers loss to the Spartans. "We were picked to win but the kids didn't play to their potential on Wednesday. That can happen to the best but it was an excellent match going down to the wire."

Spartan George Audi shot 55 over the 12-hole par-48 course to take low medalist honors. Mountaineer Darren Spivey was second with 57 and Spartan Mark Kopec took third medalist honors with 58.

Shutouts were recorded by Mount Rich Fuller over Spartan Patton, 3-0; and Valley West's Smith over Jim Aikman 3-0.

Other results were Kopec defeating Derek Tamburro 2-1; Audi taking Spivey 2-1; Rich Holthaus of Dallas taking Valley West's Jones 2-1; and A.J. Bittner defeating Spartan Ostrowski 2-1.

The loss dropped the Mountaineers to 7-2, their other loss coming in the season's opening match with Hanover.

Lake-Lehman linksmen traveled to Tunkhannock last week where they lost 20-1 to the Tunkhannock Tigers on the Shadowbrook course.

The Tigers took all of the matches, five of the six by shutouts. Tim Paulson took low medalist honors with a 55. His teammates Rob Lange and John Boretti won second and third medalist honors.

Lange defeated John Lopasky 3-0; Boretti shut out Chris Landmesser 3-0; Justice took D. Spencer 3-0; Shaffer defeated Todd Krupa 3-0. D. Fredericks scored the Knights lone point losing 2-1 to Tiger W. Cole.
