U16 Soccer Loop begins District play

Registration held

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

These three young men are all smiles as they completed their registration forms for the Back Mountain Wrestling Club. From left, are Charlie Roper, Rick Finnegan and William Bellas. Waiting to offer assistance is Mike Roosa, head coach, Back Mountain Wrestling Club. The club will hold another registration session on Tuesday, Nov. 6, from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Dallas Junior High School building.

At the close of the District 11 U.16 Soccer Loop, all Back Mountain Teams entered the Luzerne County Recreational Tournament, the first round of which was played at Kirby Park on October 27. In the first game between the BM Cosmos and BM Kicks, the Cosmos were victorious by a score of 4-0. The lethal weapons of the day were Bruce Weaver and Chris Scharff the former scoring a hat-trick plus one assist with Scharff getting three assists and one goal.

The second game was between BM Strikers and the BM Sting. The Sting brought off the upset of the day, beating the Strikers, 4-3. The halftime score was 3-0 in favor of the Sting on goals from Sean Mosca, Judd Krivenko with Ray Besecker on the assist, Besecker then scoring himself assisted by John Kerschbaum. After halftime, the Strikers pulled it back to a 3-3 tie on goals by J.J. Phillips, Louis Kaskey and D.J. Hopkins. The winning goal for the Sting came on a 'Banana' corner kick from Steve Finn. This goal is unique in that very few goals are scored directly from a corner kick.

Later in the day, BM Rowdies faced the Forty Fort Pioneers in what became a very physical and hard fought game. The Rowdies came out on top, 3-0. The first goal was scored by Jason Maniskas after Paul Melone received the ball from the corner. In the second half, Enrico Nardone put the Rowdies up by two on a penalty shot. Melone was brought down shortly after near the center line. The free kick passed to him, he proceeded to give the Pioneers a lesson in dribbling as he went right through their defense, akeed out the goalkeeper and powered his shot into the upperleft hand corner. John Sheehan earned his eighth shutout of the season. Defensively Joyce Tinner, Jeff Miller and Missy Gooch turned in exceptional play.

In Second Round play on November 3, the Wilkes-Barre Blast hosted the BM Cosmos followed by Mountaintop Rangers against the BM Sting, BM Rowdies vs. Abington, Mountaintop Gremlins versus Plains. Games are scheduled to start at 9 a.m., 11 a.m., 1 p.m., 3 p.m. at Kirby Park.

Lehman girls split two with Nanticoke

Lake-Lehman girls volleyball team took the first game, 15-7, from Nanticoke Monday, Oct. 23 but dropped the next two, 15-13 and 15-5.

Judy Hopper tallied 10 points for the Knights while Robin Bealla and Michelle Mech paced the scoring for the Trojans. Bealla scored 16 points and Mech scored 10 points.

Dallas shut out Meyers, 2-0, with games of 15-7 and 15-6 at the Mohawks' gym. Missy Kohli and Angie Kern were high scorers for the Dallas girls with Kohli hitting 10 points and Kern following with seven.

The tables turned on Wednesday, Oct. 25, when the Mountaineers were shut out 2-0 by identical game scores of 16-14 at Crestwood. In two exciting, well-matched contests Comets Pam Dean, Patty Gavinski and Joy Gillman scored eight points each to lead in the Crestwood victory. Michele Kohli led the Mountaineers with seven points.

The win upped Crestwood's record to 8-6.

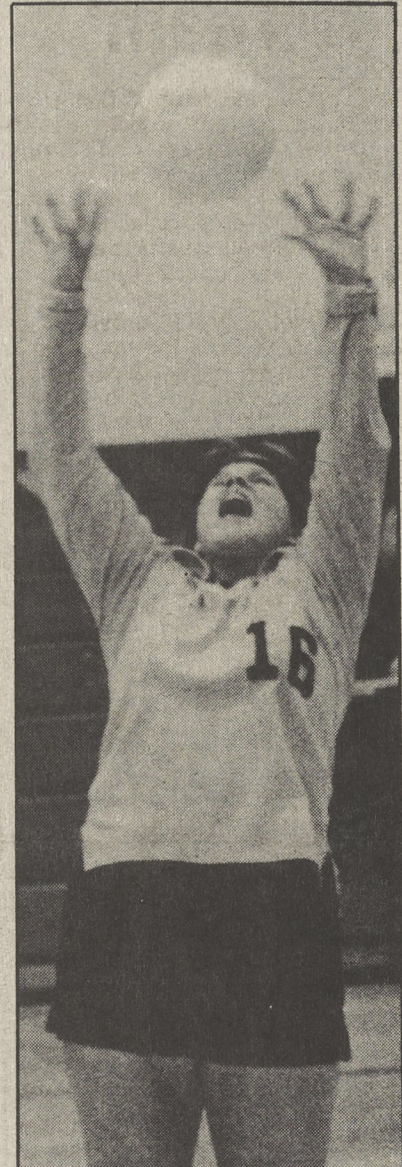

The same afternoon North Pocono ran its record to 13-0 by defeating Lake-Lehman girls 2-0. The mountain team is tied with Tunkhannock for the league title.

North Pocono shut out the Knights 15-0 in the first game and easily defeated them 15-5 in the second game with Marcy Williams as their leading server.

The loss dropped the Lake-Lehman girls to 3-10 in league play. — CHARLOT M. DENMON

GATE OF HEAVEN SCHOOL NEWS

Rachell Schall Donna Greger Joan Segrave-Daly

THE TEACHERS from Gate of Heaven School, together with about 600 other teachers of elementary schools in the Scranton Diocese, attended a Workshop at College Misericordia on Tuesday, Oct. 23. The purpose of the workshop was to interest teachers in the use of a computer as an aid in teaching reading, math, social studies and language arts. Because of the workshop, the students had no school.

THE FIFTH GRADERS have recently finished a project in social studies class on Indian Life. Several were awarded prizes for their clay Indian huts. In 5-218 the first place winner was Lisa Ford. Second prize winners were Lenard Kelly, Jodie Kuniskas, Chris Moylan and Bridgette Scott. Third place winner was Christine Berezich. In 5-218 Carrie Reid took first prize. Susanna Stair, second and Eric Yazwinsky third. Visit the fifth grade rooms and see their handwork.

A MATH CLUB is being planned for seventh and eighth grade students as a preparation for local, regional and state-wide Math competition. Students who have done well in Math classes are eligible. Belonging to the club will add no percentage to the student's grade, but will offer the opportunity to do more advanced work than is taught in the daily class. This extra-curricular class is expected to be in operation at the beginning of the second quarter.

THE ANNUAL BOOK FAIR closed on Wednesday, Oct. 24. The company award for the highest sales goes to Sister Elizabeth's second grade in the 1st-3rd group, and to Mrs. Hiller's fifth grade in the 4th-6th group. Seventh grade topped all classes in the book sales. Profit from the Fair is used to purchase new library books.

SOMETHING NEW AND DIFFERENT is going on in the first grade classrooms. The children are waiting for baby chicks to hatch from the 18 eggs in an incubator in the front of the classroom. The very fragile eggs must be turned every day. In about three weeks the chicks will peck their way out of the shell into the great, wide world. The first graders can hardly wait for that day.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK
The student of the week at Gate of Heaven School is John Ellsworth. He is the son of Mrs. Cecilia Ellsworth, Claude Street, Dallas. John's favorite subject in school is Math. He says this because he likes working with numbers. He is unsure about his future plans. John has hobbies like bike riding and collecting baseball and football cards. His favorite song is "Legs" by ZZTop.
