New Kiwanis women

The Dallas Women of Kiwanis held a dinner meeting recently at the Irem Temple Country Club at which time seven new members were initiated into the club. Mrs. Bernard Banks, membership chairman, conducted the candlelight ceremony by reading the objectives of the club. As Mrs. Banks welcomed each new member, she presented her with a yellow carnation trimmed in royal blue ribbons. Nineteen club members attended the initiation ceremonies. Shown here are a few of those presented. From left, seated, Mrs. William Paculavich, new member; Mrs. William Kalinowski, new member; Mrs. Joseph Grimes, new member; Mrs. Maurice Lindquist, new member. Standing, Mrs. Reese Pelton, Mrs. Robert Bossart, Mrs. Paul Selingo, and Mrs. Bernard Banks. Absent at the time of the photo were new members, Mrs. Carl Johnson and Mrs. James Ward.

Scouts take tour

Junior Girl Scout Troop 633 of Shavertown, in conjunction with Mercy Hospital's Wellness Center, recently completed two requirements towards their "Personal Health" badge. Mary Grigas of the Wellness Center gave the Scouts a tour of several departments of the hospital, where they had their blood pressure, temperature and pulse taken; and Patty Stichel, physical therapist, spoke on good posture and gave the girls a tour of the physical therapy department, explaining how it helps people regain use of damaged body parts. Shown here are, from left, first row, Robin Dennis, Heather Adams, Maria Farris, Melinda Henry, Karen Wisnieski, Melissa Hall, Mary Grigas, Wellness Center. Second row, Karen Adams, leader; Shannon Smith, Melanie Suda, Maryann Ochman, Melanie Marino, Nancy Kingsbury. Third row, Frances Handman, troop aide; Maryann Sutton, troop aide; Patty Stichel, physical therapist; and Linda Sperrazza, co-leader.

Newcomers Club schedules events

The Newcomers' Club of Wyoming Valley will hold its annual Abilities Auction on Tuesday, Nov. 6 at the Dorranceton Methodist Church on Wyoming Avenue in Kingston. The doors will open at 7 p.m. with the auction beginning at 7:30 p.m. There will be door prizes and a raffle for a handmade enad-licked Christmas tree skirt. The public is cordially invited to attend and complimentary refreshments will be served. Proceeds will be used to fund the club's charitable activities throughout the year.

An exciting calendar of events has been planned for November and December. On November 10, a wine tasting party will be held at the home of Jim and Kathy Greger. Mothers and children can share time on November 15 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon at the General Member Coffee and on November 29 from 12 noon to 2 p.m. at the Pot Luck Luncheon. Both events are held at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Shavertown. On November 14, at 7:30 p.m., ice cream cone Christmas ornaments will be made at the home of Susan Healey and on November 27 a work night will be held at the home of Jan Anderson to benefit the ladies at Maple Hill Nursing Home. A progressive dinner is set for December 1, and the Children's Christmas Party will be held on December 6. All new and long time residents of the area are invited to join the Newcomers Club, a social and service organization, that meets the first Tuesday of every month. Those interested can contact Karen Amoro at 696-2027.
