Apples for teachers

Apples for the Teachers was the theme of the Fall Special provided by the foods service of the Dallas School District. Each teacher in the district arrived at school to find a crispy, red apple in his or her school mailbox. Accompanying the treat was a note announcing the Autumn Special, "with nature's beauty at its best, (the food service) would like to show appreciation to all our teachers for jobs well done. Shown here are Mrs. Nancy Hontz, left, and Miss Mary Fran Thomas, teachers at the Dallas Junior High School.

New trustees

Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, president of Wyoming Seminary, recently announced the appointment of seven new members to the Kingston prep school's board of trustees. Mrs. Nancy S. Brown, Dallas and Mrs. Nancy M. Kanjorski, Nanticoke as presidents of the Upper School Parents' Association and Lower School Parents' Association respectively were appointed. New representatives for the Wyoming Conference of the United Methodist Church are: Rev. Charles E. Johns, Kingston, pastor of the Church of Christ Uniting, Kingston; Mrs. Jean D. Myers, Wyoming and Arthur W. Sherwood, M.D. '56, Tunkhannock. Bishop Felton E. May, newly elected bishop of the Harrisburg Area of the United Methodist Church was also appointed. Mrs. Barbara Harter Koehl '53, Dallas, was elected by the Alumni Association and will serve a three year term on the board. Shown here are, from left, first row, Mrs. Koehl, Mrs. Myers, Mrs. Kanjorski and Mrs. Brown. Standing are Rev. Johns and Dr. Sherwood. Absent at the time of the photo was Bishop May.

Season begins

Jerome Campbell, chairman of the Wilkes College Music Department, has announced that the College's Youth Orchestra will begin its season with practice on Sunday evening, Nov. 18, from 6:30 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. in Darte Hall, South River Street, Wilkes-Barre. The orchestra, funded through Luzerne County's Intermediate Unit 18, will be under the direction of Ferdinand Liva, who is musical director of the Sinfonia da Camera. The orchestra was initiated at Wilkes in the Fall of 1983 to give junior high school and high school students the opportunity for professional growth through practice and performance. Last year's schedule for the orchestra consisted of several weeks of practice and performance culminating in a concert for campus and community, giving last spring at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center for the Performing Arts. Shown here are, from left, seated, Catherine Rhee, Mountaintop, MMI Preparatory School; Michael Fedor, Middle School, Lake-Lehman; Jimmy Wu, Clarks Green, Abington Heights Middle School; Pam Heard, Exeter, Wyoming Area High School. Standing, from left Campbell and Liva.

Attend forum

Four students from Dallas High School attended the Eighth Annual Youth Forum on Politics and Government held recently at King's College. The theme of the forum was the 1984 Presidential Elections and was sponsored by the Luzerne-Wyoming Counties Social Studies council. The forum was attended by 50 students from 10 local high schools. Pictured with Dr. Donald Buzinkai, center, chairperson of the government and politics department at King's College, are Dallas High School students, from left, Carla Orlando, Seanica DeJager, Rick Fuller and Matt Medura.
