

Holiday Gift Guide

This Rose Wine Mold is simple and elegant

If you are looking for a simple, yet elegant holiday recipe, try Holiday Rose Wine Mold. Served as a salad, it highlights a festive menu; served as a dessert, it's a delicious yet light finale.

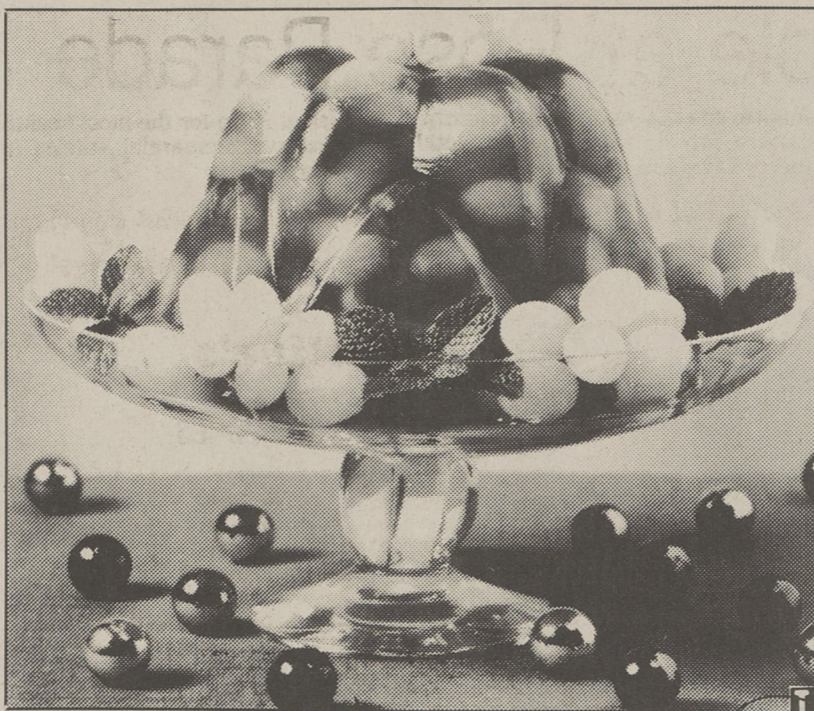

The soft flavor of rose wine and tangy sweet California table grapes combine to produce an intriguing, lively flavor and highly satisfying texture. Red and green grapes complement the colors of the season and enliven even casual family menus.

HOLIDAY ROSE WINE MOLD

2/3 c. sugar

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
2/3 c. lemon juice
2 c. boiling water
1 c. rose wine
1 1/2 c. each halved and seeded green and red grapes
Mint sprigs (optional)

Combine sugar and gelatin. Soften mixture in lemon juice. Add boiling water; stir until gelatin and sugar dissolve. Add wine. Chill until mixture begins to thicken and set. Add grapes; mix well. Turn into 5 1/2 cup mold. Chill at least 5 hours or until firm. Unmold onto serving dish. Garnish with mint. Makes 6 to 8 servings. Based on 7 servings. Per serving: approx. 184 cal., 2 g. pro., 0 g. fat, 40 g. carb. and 71 mg. sodium.

Make these delicacies before holiday arrives

There's ample time for meetings under the mistletoe and other holiday cheer when tasty hors d'oeuvres are prepared in advance, frozen, and thawed or heated the day of the party. With that in mind, here are some delicious recipes from Admiral Home Appliances, publisher of the "Freezin' Art" freezing guide, to give party planners a few ideas before the holidays hit.

MUSHROOMS STUFFED WITH SAUSAGE

1 lb. sausage
1 lb. mushrooms, medium size

1. Clean mushrooms and remove stems. Blanch for 5 minutes. Cool.
2. Stuff each mushroom cap with rounded teaspoon of sausage. Freeze on a tray. When frozen, package in bags.

To serve: Bake frozen at 425 degrees on cookie sheet for 20 minutes (see microwave cookbook for heating instructions). Yields 20-24 appetizers.

SALMON CHEESE BALL

1-7/8 oz. can Alaska salmon
1-1/2 oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
1/2 c. shredded Cheddar cheese
1/4 c. chopped black olives
2 T. instant minced onions
Dash of hot pepper sauce
1/2 finely chopped pecans

1. Drain and flake salmon. Combine with all ingredients except pecans.
2. Chill until firm. Shape into a ball, roll in pecans.
3. Wrap, label and freeze

To serve: Thaw in refrigerator 6 hours before using. Serve with assorted crackers or fresh vegetables.

Why Settle for Less?
when Entre's PCjr System is so affordable.

$950⁰⁰

Until now, the cost of an IBM PC computer was beyond the means of many families. But now, your local Entre Computer Center can offer a complete PCjr System at substantial savings, if you purchase or lay-away your system by December 31, 1984. This special system can entertain, educate and increase personal productivity (with the same software that runs on IBM's other PC's). In short, your whole family will benefit. Paying for your PCjr System is as easy as selecting it: cash, check, or major credit cards accepted. If you've been wanting an IBM, but waiting until you could afford it, there's never been a better time than right now. Visit your nearest Entre Computer Center today, for all the details. Offer Expires December 31, 1984.
