SATURDAY WAS QUITE DISAP-POINTING for Dallas fans as we saw our beloved Mountaineers fall to Lake-Lehman 33-0. It was the last game for 12 seniors: Brian Bless-nar, Matt Pretko, Gary Vincelli, two interceptions, touchdowns were also scored by Dave Martin and Bill Bearde.

THE KNIGHTS WRAPPED UP a respectable 4-3 football season Sunday night at their annual banquet. Red Jones was the master of ceremonies with Castle Inn catering the event. The cheerleaders were also honored by coaches Jean Lipski and Bonnie Konigus as well as their respective secret football players. Graduating Knights are: Dave Martin, T. Willy Cadwalader, Ed Gavlick, Tim Kipling, P.J. Malak, Bill Boyle, Earl Weidner, Chris VanGorder, Bill Bearde and Steve Mazur. The only graduating cheer-leader is Kim Sorber.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL is sponsoring a Trivial Pursuit Contest with teams of two competing. Interested parties should contact Michelle Judge or Lisa Bebey for further information.

KNIGHTS TROUNCED DALLAS last Saturday 33-0 in front of a lively crowd. They capitalized on several Dallas turnovers on route to the one-sided victory. Chris VanGorder was awarded offensive player of the game due mainly to two rushing touchdowns. Defensive backs of Lake-Lehman held Mountaineers aerial attack to 0 completions and hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery.

NATIONAL EDUCATION WEEK and National children's Book Week were observed last week. To partici-pate, the 6th, 7th and 8th graders made badges with slogans on it to promote good reading habits. One good slogan was "If at first you don't succeed, Read, Read, Again!"

THE EGGS which the first grad-ers have been watching, began to hatch on Sunday. By Monday, soft, yellow chicks were ready to leave the incubator. Some of the chicks have already been promised a home. Congratulations to the first graders and Sister Alice Ann!

STUDENT OF THE WEEK: Maria Johnson, an eighth grader at Gate of Heaven, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Johnson. She lives on Manor Drive in Kingston Township. Maria finds English a very interesting subject. She plans to attend Dallas High School next year. She would like to be a beauti-cian when she is older. Maria enjoys basketball and cheerleading. She is a cheerleader at Gate of Heaven. Her favorite song is "Wild Boys" by Duran-Duran. Her favorite musical groups are ZZTop and Duran-Duran.

THE NOVEMBER PTG MEET-ING was held in the school auditor-ium on Wednesday, Nov. 14. The guest speaker was Marilyn Rudolph of the Back Mt. Children's Library, who spoke to the teachers and parents on books and the joy of reading. At the business meeting, Mr. Dick Kinder discussed a major fund raising idea for the school to begin in late winter. Before the meeting ended a door prize was awarded and refreshments provided by the seventh grade mothers, were served. The next PTG meeting will take place in March, 1985.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING to all our readers, and to people every-where!

Conferences held

American Education Week was November 12-17. Parents and teach-ers were busy with the many activi-ties held at the Dallas Township Elementary School.

Parent-teacher conferences were held on Nov. 12. Samuel Barbose, Principal, served coffee and donuts for Dads on Nov. 13 in the early morning to give those who normally cannot fit school visitation into their busy daily schedule.

The teachers hosted a tea for the parents on Nov. 13 which included refreshments prepared by the teachers. The parents were then invited to visit the classrooms while classes were in session.

Dr. Jeffrey Sternlieb, Child Psy-chologist, was the guest speaker at the second PTO meeting on Nov. 13. Dr. Sternlieb's topics were "Self Esteem" and "Peer Pressure."

The week ended with the annual Winter Carnival on Nov. 17. Clowns, Santa Claus, games, raffles, prizes, food, crafts, and a visit by Manny Gordon were enjoyed by all.
