Pow Wow held

These little Pilgrims and Indians at Trinity Nursery School held a Pow Wow to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday.

Pow Wow held at Trinity Nursery

The Trinity Nursery School held a Thanksgiving Pow Wow on November 21, to celebrate the first Thanksgiving feast. They have studied the Indian way of life, and the Pilgrims and the first Thanksgiving feast.

The children wore Pilgrim hats, collars, Indian head feathers, and necklaces all made in connection with the studies.

The Nursery School is located in the Trinity Presbyterian Church, Church Street, Dallas. For information call Mrs. Donald Lockhart or the church office 675-3131.

In his free time, he enjoys listening to the Beatles and Rush. Upon graduation, Dave plans to attend college to major in some type of scientific research.

CONGRATULATIONS TO the Dallas High School students who took first place at District Band tryouts. Dave Garber, saxophone player, and Mark Steinkirchner, trumpet player, both took top honors and will advance to regionals. Congratulations guys!

DALLAS STUDENTS have been voicing their concern over the lack of "B" schedules. Presently there is only one "B" schedule per week and these schedules allow for club periods. Without at least two "B" schedules a week it is impossible for students to participate in activities which will mold them into well-rounded students. Colleges also look closely at the amount of clubs a student participates in when considering admittance.

unrivaled Lake-Lehman Band advanced to District Band recently. Those members were Joe Shonis, Mike Annetta, Chris Titus, Evan Thmas, Brent Bernstein, Eileen Raitter, Paula Dwyer, Jerry Yankowski, Mark Williams, Julie Follmer, Kim Weidner, Missy Hontz, and Diane Love.

TRYOUTS FOR THE SCHOOL PLAY "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court" will be held on Wednesday.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL is sponsoring a compatibility match service called Heart to Heart on Wednesday, Nov. 28 in homeroom. Forms may also be picked up on Thursday and Friday.

THE SENIOR FIELD HOCKEY ALL-STAR GAME was held last Tuesday at Meyers Stadium. Scouts from colleges such as Kent State, Syracuse, Villnova, Princeton, Drexel, and many other major colleges were in attendance to look at the talent our area has to offer. The game ended in 0-0 tie.

Students hear doctor

This was the second in a series of lectures by Dr. Church concerning the privileges and problems dealing with being a special student.

This was just one of the many special events provided for the gifted in the Lake-Lehman School District.
