1985 Pa. fishing licenses distributed

The Pennsylvania Fish Commission has announced that the 1985 fishing licenses have been distributed to over 1,700 issuing agents throughout the Commonwealth just in time for Christmas.

Prices for 1985 remain the same as last year; $12, resident license; $20, non-resident license; and $15, non-resident tourist (7 consecutive days). Issuing agents receive 50 cents per license in order to cover handling and bonding costs.

"One license covers all the sport fishing within the Commonwealth, whether it be bass, musky, or trout," commented Fish Commission Executive Director Ralph W. Abele. "If you fish a dozen times a year, a day's worth of fishing will cost you $1. If you consider the price of bowling, a movie, a round of golf or a lift ticket to your favorite ski area, you will quickly realize that a fishing license is an excellent bargain."

It also makes a lasting holiday gift, Abele noted. "A fishing license given at Christmas time won't end up in the back of some drawer but instead stays with the angler thru the entire year."
