Dinner held

A Christmas dinner was held recently at the Lehman Fire Hall for all Girl Scout leaders, assistants and chairmen from Neighborhoods 24 and 25. Santa Clause made his visit to see if everyone was doing a good job. Entertainment was provided by the following members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 626: Christina Conrad, Trudy Wandel, Andrea Bunney, Amber Roesse, Melissa Larkens, Megan Lukasavage. Shown here are those who attended the dinner. From left, Amber Roesse, Trudy Wandel, Andrea Bunney, Santa, Megan Lukasavage, Melissa Larkens, Christine Conrad. Second row, Charlene Cook, Ethel Renshaw, Dorothy Wadas, Jenny Metzgar, Sally Roberts, Terry Sutton, Mona Hoover, Jackie Downend and Joanne Freeman.

Officers installed

The Dallas Women of Kiwanis held installation of new officers at their annual Christmas Dinner Party held at the Irem Temple Country Club. The installing official, Mrs. Peter George, charged each new officer with their duties and presented each officer with a spray of chrysanthemums, tied with a blue bow and candle. Mrs. Paul Selingo, immediate past president, presented Mrs. Leo Corbett incoming president with the official presidential gavel. A memorial gift for service to the club was presented to Mrs. Selingo by Mrs. Corbett. Shown here are the new officers. From left, Mrs. Martin Moore, secretary; Mrs. Peter George, installing officer; Mrs. Mabel Harter, second vice-president; Mrs. Leo Corbett, president; Mrs. William Kalinowski, first vice-president; Mrs. Reese Pelton, treasurer; Mrs. Paul Selingo, past president; Mrs. Maurice Lindquist, corresponding secretary.
