Coach Rodger Bearde's Black Knights cagers from Lake-Lehman dropped to 1-1 in their division, Saturday, Dec. 22, when they were downed 61-34 by the GAR Grenadiers.

GAR took an early 10-6 lead at the end of the first period and held it throughout the contest despite the Knights giving them a good battle in the first half, the Knights rallied to come within two points of the Grenadiers.

In the closing seconds GAR pulled in front by six and took a 24-18 lead into the locker room at halftime.

Grenadier Bill Callahan set the pace in the third period putting in eight points and leading in outscoring the Knights 16-4 in the quarter. In the final quarter, GAR outscored Lake-Lehman 21-12.

Callahan had a game total of 21 points, 10 baskets from the court and one-for-one from the foul line. Lionel Crawford hit double figures with 12, all of them from the playing court, and Greg Skrepenak put in 11, five through the nets from the court and one-for-three from the charity stripe.

T. Willy Cadwalader set the pace for the Black Knights with 12 points and Bill Bearde tossed in 10. Cadwalader made six shots from the court and Bearde put in five from the court.

The Knights went four-for-eight from the free stripe while the Grenadiers went three-for-eight.

DALLAS WINS

In the Dallas Mountaineers game played with Seton Catholic on the Eagles court, Dec. 22, four Mountaineers hit the double figures to aid in Dallas' 71-45 win over Seton. The win sent Dallas to 2-0.

Steve Wilson led the scoring with 16 points, putting six shots in from the playingfield and four-for-eight from the foul line. Mark Farrell collected 14 points, six two-pointers from the floor and two-for-two from the free stripe. Tim Cotter scored 13 points, all of them in the second half and Tim Moyer totaled 12.

Dallas outscored the Eagles 19-7 in the first period but the Eagles kept even with the Mountaineers in the second period for a 14-14 quarter giving Dallas a 33-21 lead at the half. The Mountaineers came on strong in the third period to outscore Seton 24-10 but in the final period, Seton again kept up with Dallas, both teams hitting 14 points, the gameending 71-45.

Wrestling Club members turn in fine performances at WA Tournament

The Back Mountain Wrestling Club made a strong showing recently when it traveled to Wyoming Area for the first tournament. Twenty-two boys entered and 18 took home trophies. The coaches for Back Mountain were very pleased with the performance of all the boys. Back Mountain officially starts its season on January 6 when it travels to Hazleton for the first dual meet. Winners at the Wyoming Area tournament were first place, Rick Finnegan, Allen Baird, Jason Naugle, Charlie Roper, Bobby Farber, Mike Geurin, Ray Rosencrans. Second place, Mike Tereska, Charlie Gordon, Eric Williams. Third place, Allen Scott, Frank Natitus, Jason Prokopchak, Jon Pomrinke, Adam Hoover, Francis Hoover. Fourth place, Al Pavlick, Aaron Gingo.

Solinski, Diction lead ladies

Lake-Lehman's Lady Knights used a balanced scoring offense in the first period to outscore GAR 15-6, December 22, at the Back Mountain court but GAR came on strong to outscore the Knights 10-4 and 10-5 in the second and third periods before Pam Solinski and Sandy Diction came through with six points each as their team's pressure defense held down the Grenadiers and gave Lake-Lehman a 42-34 win. Going into the final period, Lake-

Lehman fell behind 26-24 when the Lady Knights took random shots without concentrating on their game plan.

Diction led the Knights in scoring with 17 points, putting six shots through the nets from the court and tossing in five-for-10 from the charity stripe. Solinski finished with 10 points, going four-for-four from the free line and putting in three two-pointers from the playing court.

Lori Lopasky collected seven points and C. Slocum scored six.

Despite several costly turnovers in the final period, Lisa Blaum, Regina Nolan and Kim Skrepenak scored 10 points each for GAR.

The win gave the Lady Knights a 1-1 record in Division 2.

Dallas Mountaineers postponed their game with Seton Catholic due to inclement weather.

STRIKES AND SPARES

The holiday season cancelled out a number of the leagues during the past week as the bowlers took time out to enjoy Christmas and New Year's Day with their families and friends.

Among those turning in reports of matches bowled were Bonomo's Major League, Our Gang, Bowlerettes, and Back Mountain Church League. Next week should find all leagues back on their regular schedules.

T. Doughton scattered pins for 213 (551) and C. Kazokas and D. Purvin hit identical 543 series to lead G.H. Harris to four points from the Hambos in Bonomo's Major League. Charles All Stars shut out the Bermudas with B. Cyphers knocking down pins for 225 and K. Orkwis walloping them for 222 (591). K. Spencer topped them for 561 and C.

Williams hit 537. Back Mt. Sporting goods blanked Brown's Oil led by L. Coolbaugh who hammered the pins for 237 (614).

In the Bowlerette League C. Badman scattered pins for 178 but it wasn't enough as her Tom Reese team dropped three points to Brent Long who had L. Jolley's 160. R. Gula's 164 showed the way for Franklin's three points from the Hoagie Bar Girls.

Stymie took all from Buckwheat and Alfalfa shut out Waldo in Our Gang League. Darla blanked Wheeler and Spanky took four from Porky paced by M. Grossman's 173.

In the Back Mt. Church League Shavertown B picked up four points from Trucksville C.

Coach Larry Schuler's Dallas Mountaineers posted eight pins, Thursday, Dec. 20, in their meet with Valley View to coast to an easy 48-22 victory.

Bryan Mathers put the Mountaineers on the board first when he clamped 98-lb. Brian Picchini in 3:16.

Valley View's Tim Connell gave the Cougars four points when he took an 18-9 major decision from 105-lb. Truyn Hunh.

The Mountaineers took the next two bouts with 112-lb. Paul Burke flattening Dan Sedlak in 2:40 and 119-lb. Bill Mathers turning over Todd Jackson in 3:04.

The Cougars took the next two bouts on falls before the Mountaineers pinned their opponents from 138-lb. through 185-lb. Cougar Mike Krahl pinned 126-lb. Mark Rogers in 4:29 and Cougar Randy Kordish showed 132-lb. John Graham the lights in 4:51.

Mountaineer Dave Hislop started the run for Dallas when he flattened his 138-lb. opponent, Rich Gavonis, in 4:50. 145-lb. Coury Lingas clamped Cougar Jeff Galachidi in 2:59 and 155-lb. Joe Patts turned over Cougar Bryan Ortolano in 1:20.

Dallas' 167-lb. Chris Vincelli pinned Allan Gerek in 3:04 and 185-lb. Jim Patts clamped Ron Fadri in 3:04.

Eight pins lead Mountaineers

The Cougars heavyweight Rich Yeselavage lost little time in taking the final bout by overturning Mountaineer Tom Schact in 12 seconds, the fastest time in the match.

Coach Ed Ladamus' Black Knights traveled to Troy on Saturday and placed eight grapplers in the Troy Christmas Tournament to place second. Canton won the tournament with 147½ points and Lake-Lehman finished second with 145.

Heavyweight Chris Van Gorder was named MVP in the tournament, winning all three of his bouts with falls in the opening period. Matt Reinert took the 98-lb. title, 105-lb. Jeff Austin used three pins to take his weight class title. 126-lb. Joe Smith came in second and 132-lb. Bob Buzinski placed fourth. 138-lb. Norm Clancy took his weight class title and Ed Stratford took the 185-lb. weight class. 145-lb. Doug Ide finished fourth.

Jr. high wrestlers win

The Lake-Lehman Junior High School wrestling team participated in Hazleton's Fifth Annual Wrestling Tournament on December 22 and finished with two fourth places. Jimmy Cole, 75 pounds and Scott Brigman, 110 pounds, finished in fourth place.

Charles Allen, 130 pounds, finished in third place while Chris Fredericks, 120 pounds, and Scott Schafer, heavyweight, both won first place awards. Other decisions were Scott Bregman, decision; Jimmy Cole, decision; Charles Allen, decision; and Chris Fredericks, decision.

The next match for the Lake-Lehman Junior High Wrestling team is Saturday, Jan. 5, at 10 a.m. at Wyoming Area.

Tommy Williams is the team's coach while Phil Lipski is the assistant coach.

Crossin leads Maher to victory

For the losers, Andy Chandler drilled in 24 points while Drew Regan scored 12.

Humphrey's retaliated with a 68-64 victory over Union Petroleum as Steve Metzgers led all scorers with 25 points. Frank Bogden added 22 and Bill Lizzo chipped in 10 in the winning efforts.

For Union, D. Fetko scored 16 followed by R. Davis with 10, D. Crossin with 10 and B. Andres with 12.

Union Petroleum took an 86-79 victory over Jones Pancakes behind Frank Crossin's 25 points. Also aiding the victory were D. Crossin with 23 points and Dan Fetko with 22 counters.

P. Darling was high man for Jones' with 23 points while Drew Regan added 18. B. Sickler and Andy Chandler each scored 11 points in the losing effort.

Frank Bogdan drilled in 22 points to lead Humphrey's to a 92-73 squashing of Vivian's. Aiding the cause were P.J. Delaney and Steve Metzger with 19 points each. Glenn Ide drilled in 24 points for Vivian's while Scott Wimmer added 19 and Traver had 12.

Union Petroleum squeaked by Maher's, 82-88, during last week's action in the Lehman-Noxen Adult Recreational Basketball League.

Frank Crossin dumped in 22 points for the winners while Bruce Andres added 20 to the winning cause. Teammates Deke Crossin, Don Wolfe and Dan Fetko added 14 and 10 respectively.

For Maher's, Jim Spencer was high man with 30 points while Don Jones added 12 and Bob Williams chipped in 10.

Maher's pulled off an upset over Humphrey's later in the week by taking an 84-80 overtime victory from the strong Humphrey's team.

Rocko Miller, Don Jones and Jim Spencer all had 20 points each for the winners while Bob Williams added 10.

Maher's got another victory by slipping by Jones' Pancakes, 65-60 behind the sharp shooting of Kevin Coombs and Jim Spencer with 18 points apiece. Rocko Miller dumped in 11 in the winning cause.
