THE TERRIBLY COLD WEATHER not only put many things at a stand still last week but almost drove every mother in the Back Mountain to distraction since school was out for two days. Now don't get me wrong, I really like a day off with my kids but after a four day vacation (including the weekend) everyone is ready to get back to our normal daily routine. I do make my grocery extremely happy, though, since food just doesn't last in our house with the kids at home.

I THINK IT'S GREAT the KINGSBURY

Dallas Junior High School Student Council collected $225 to benefit the local SPCA. Many voices are heard concerning proper treatment of animals so it's great to see our teenagers getting out there and doing something constructive about it.

I AM SO HAPPY to hear that Charlotte Watchulonis is recovering following an auto accident last week. I saw Charlotte earlier that afternoon. When I heard that she had been in an accident I was stunned. I'm sure all her students at Hilltop Nursery School wish her a speedy recovery.
