

People

With Joan Kingsbury Around town

675-0835

By JOAN KINGSBURY

Mrs. Lois Disque, R.N. presented a program of medical information to morning students at Trinity Nursery School last week. Afternoon Students enjoyed a program presented by Mrs. Christine Fiore, R.N.

The children had the opportunity to wear doctor's surgical hats and masks and nurses hats. They were introduced to and got to use stethoscopes, thermometers and various bandage. Bernie, a stuffed bear with a broken paw showed the children how a cast is utilized.

KINGSBURY

If you have been yearning for a little bit of culture mark Feb. 14, 15 and 16 on your calendar. On those dates Penn State's Arts at Hayfield will present three Chekhov comedies. The Marriage Proposal will feature Candyce Fike, Eugene Sirin and Richard Fuller; The Boor will feature Walter Kelly, Marcella Sedor Kelly and Eugene Sirin. Walter Kelly will take the lead in On The Harmfulness of Tobacco.

All three plays will be presented each evening. Walter Kelly, a graduate of Distinction of the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York City will direct the plays.

Tickets for this unique entertainment are available from the University Relations Office of Penn State.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence J. Lavelle, Shavertown are thrilled over the birth of their son Scott Adam November 30. This is the Lavelle's first child.

Mrs. Lavelle is the former Betty Ellen Mintzer, Noxen daughter of Kathy Mintzer, Noxen and Lee Mintzer, Dallas.

Scott's paternal grandparents are Mrs. Mildred Wheeler, Dallas and the late Eugene Lavelle.

Back Mountain Kiwanis Club recently became the 23rd member of the Northeast Pennsylvania Advocated for the Mentally Retarded, Inc. by supporting its work on behalf of retarded citizens and their families. I think its great that the Back Mountain kiwanis had become affiliated with this organization since I think Mentally Retarded people really deserve to live as normal and happy a life as possible. It is up to we fellow members of society to support the well-being of the mentally retarded.

A 14-day trip to London, Geneva, Paris and Rome sounds wonderful, doesn't it? The Music Department of College Misericordia will sponsor this tour from June 30 to July 15. The trip will include visiting museums, attending concerts and, of course, lots of sightseeing.

Sister Mary Carmel McGarigle is tour director. For further information and reservations contact Sister Carmel; reservations are required by March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maskalis, Sr. of Dallas have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ruth Renee to Richard Harold Casterline of Wyoming son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Eugene Casterline.

Miss Maskalis is employed by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Mr. Casterline is employed by Modern Nursery Tree Services, Orange and Hilstolsky Construction, Shavertown.

The couple are planning an April 1986 wedding.

Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Eric G. Menzel and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Bynon. These couples were recently married. Mr. and Mrs. Menzel were married in Gate of Heaven Church. Rev. Father William J.P. Langan performed the double ring ceremony and celebrated the nuptial Mass.

Mrs. Menzel, the former Barbara Ann Burkhardt is a graduate of Dallas Area High School, Wilkes Barre Vocational-Technical School of Practical Nursing and Luzerne County Community College. She is employed as a registered nurse at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, Wilkes Barre.

Mr. Menzel is a graduate of Dallas Area High School. He is employed at Hervie's Auto Body

Shop, Kingston. Following a wedding trip to Florida, the Keys and a cruise to the Bahamas, the Menzels are residing in Exeter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard A. Bynon were married in the wedding chapel, Virginia Beach, Virginia. Mrs. Bynon the former Pamela Kay Moore is a graduate of North Gaston High School, Dallas, S.C. and the Hair Styling Institute of Charlotte N.C. Mr. Bynon is a graduate of Dallas Senior High School.

The Bynons are members of the US Navy stationed at Norfolk, Va. They are residing in Virginia Beach.

Year of the Family

1985 has been proclaimed "The Year of the Family" by the Luzerne County Commissioners to honor the 90th Anniversary of the Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley, a member agency of the United Way.

This oldest charity organization in our area was formed in 1895, as the Charity Organization Society of Wilkes-Barre. A year later, it became the United Charities. In 1941, to reflect the broader scope of its activities, the name was changed to The Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley.

Members of the Public Relations Committee for the Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley are shown during a recent meeting to discuss public events taking place during "The Year of the Family":

Seated, from left, Toby Grossman, Dallas; Pearl Kaufman, Kingston; Pauly Friedman, West Pittston, 90th Anniversary Chairperson, and Sheldon Vale, Wilkes-Barre, Chairman.

Standing, from left, Gladys Weisberger, West Pittston; Lillian Thalendorf, Bear Creek; Rozanne Ciavarella, Wilkes-Barre; Beth Ann Delaney, Forty Fort; Phyllis Belk, Penn State, Lehman, and Anne Vernon, Trucksville, Executive Director, Family Service Association.

People in the News

Pvt. Richard J. Gouger, son of Richard J. and Jane M. Gouger of 138 E. Ridge St., Shavertown, has completed the image interpreter course at the U.S. Army Intelligence Center and School, Fort Huachuca, Ariz.

The course trained enlisted personnel in the techniques and methodology of imagery interpretation and reporting, aerial surveillance organization, capabilities and limitation, maintenance and photography. The course also provides students with a general knowledge of the organizations and the relationship of those agencies to image interpretation.

Gouger is scheduled to serve with the 17th Military Intelligence Company at Shaw Air Force Base, S.C.

He is a 1984 graduate of Lake Lehman High School.

John M. Beberus has been named Supervisor, in the Employee Relations Department at Pennsylvania Gas and Water Company according to an announcement by Frank J. Loch, Vice-President of Consumer Affairs.

A native of Plymouth and 1974 graduate of Wyoming Valley West High School, Beberus joined the Personnel Department of PG&W in 1981 as an employee relations technician. He holds a B.S. in Business Administration and an M.B.A. in business administration with concentrations in labor relations and finance from Wilkes College.

John Beberus currently serves as treasurer of the Tri-County Personnel Association and is a member of the American Institute of M.B.A. Executives. He resides in Dallas with his wife, the former Rose Marie Baul of Kingston, and son John.

MARK A. ROSING, 15 Glendale Road, Dallas, has been named to the Dean's List for the fall semester at Cornell University, College of Engineering in Ithaca, New York.

Rosing is a 1984 graduate of Dallas High School where he was Valedictorian and Editor of the Yearbook. He is the son of Judith and Thomas Rosing.

THREE LOCAL RESIDENTS have been named to the Dean's List for academic achievement during the fall semester at the University of Scranton.

Colette J. Feeney of 148 E. Overbrook Rd., Shavertown; Mark P. Mahon, E. Ridge St., RD 5, Shavertown; and Lynn Warner, 70 Dug Rd., Kingston Township were among 669 students named to the Dean's List.

FIVE BACK MOUNTAIN RESIDENTS recently received degrees at The Pennsylvania State University's winter commencement exercises held recently at the University Park campus.

They are: Tim J. Brennan, 191 Main St., Dallas, Bachelor of Science, Biology; Cynthia M. Jones, RD 2, Hilco Drive, Dallas, Bachelor of Science, Biology; Randall King, 241 Machel Ave., Dallas, Bachelor of Science, Finance; Vincent P. Sodorosky, Upper Demunds Road, Dallas, Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering; and Joan M. Solomon, 48 Maple Drive, Dallas, Bachelor of Science, Industrial Engineering.

Hospital dog

A picture of therapy dog, Prince John Claud, was recently presented to the Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas. Thomas J. Sweeney, administrator, accepts the picture from Janice Blight, owner. Therapy dogs international, is a worldwide, non-profit volunteer organization founded in 1980 in New Jersey. Mrs. Blight formed a local chapter of Therapy Dogs International, in 1982 with her two poodles, Prince John Claud and Snowstars Joy Lee. In addition to visiting the Meadows Nursing Center two nights each month, she and her volunteers also visit six other nursing centers in the area with the dogs. Shown above, from left, are Florence John, resident, the Meadows Nursing Center; Eva Gauthier, resident, the Meadows Nursing Center; Thomas J. Sweeney, administrator, the Meadows Nursing Center; Janice Blight. Poodles, from left, are Snowstars Joy Lee and Prince John Claud.

IF . . .
YOU WERE DENIED OR ABOUT TO BE TERMINATED FROM . . .

- SOCIAL SECURITY DISABILITY
- SSI

WE CAN HELP
PUBLIC BENEFITS CO.
800-628-7500 (24 Hour Toll Free)
CALL FOR A FREE CONSULTATION

Member:
NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF SOCIAL SECURITY CLAIMANTS REPRESENTATIVES

DALLAS POST CARRIERS WANTED
VARIOUS AREAS OF BK. MOUNTAIN:

College Manor	Midway Manor
Fernbrook	New Goss Manor
Haddenfield Hills	Oak Hill Manor
Harveys Lake	Old Goss Manor
Idetown	Pioneer Ave.
Lehman Areas	Shrine Acres
	Trucksville Areas

For More Information
Call Jean at 675-5211

Art pays off

(photo by Ed Campbell)

Danny, left and Frank Natitus, of 161 Harris Hill Road, Trucksville, were recently presented with a $75 savings bond as grand prize winners in the Kingston Twp. Halloween House Decorating Contest. The bond and a certificate of award were given to the boys at the December supervisors meeting. Frank, 11 years old, is a fifth grade student at Dallas Intermediate School and Danny, seven years old, is a first grade student at Westmoreland Elementary School. The boys are the sons of Frank and Debra Natitus. Grandparents are Mrs. Ann Natitus of Trucksville and the late Charels Natitus and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of Hometown and Great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy of Tamaqua.

THE DALLAS POST

ADVERTISING DEADLINE
MONDAY 11 a.m.

Call 675-5211

or mail to:
The Dallas Post
P.O. Box 366
61 Gerald Avenue
Dallas, Pa. 18612

MID-WINTER SERVICE SPECIALS

TUNE ENGINE	Most 8-cyl.	Most 6-cyl.	$49 ⁹⁵	$44 ⁹⁵
TRANSMISSION SPECIAL			$29 ⁹⁵
FRONT END ALIGNMENT AND WHEEL BALANCING			$14 ⁹⁵
LUBRICATION, OIL CHANGE (Up to 5 Qts.) and FILTER			$14 ⁹⁵
STATE INSPECTION			$9 ⁹⁵

Mr. G. Odwrench GM QUALITY SERVICE/PARTS GM
GENERAL MOTORS CORPORATION

COMMUNITY MOTORS
588 Market St., Kingston — 287-1133
Offer Expires Feb. 28, 1985