Fund-raiser completed

Cub Scouts from Pack 155, Trucksville, recently completed a very successful fund raiser. Each scout sold small gifts to family, friends and neighbors from a "Tom Watt Kit" to help support the troop in various activities throughout the year. Three of the boys sold over $500 worth of merchandise each and were awarded new bikes for their outstanding efforts. Pictured are, from left Michael Matosky, third high salesman; Frank Natitus, high salesman; and Chris Repotski, second high salesman. In addition, drawings for monetary awards were also made with the following winners: $25 - Ted Kerpovich; $20 - Jeff Sands; $15 - Billy Diver; $10 - Richard Banks; $5 - Eric German.

Nurse of Hope

Shavertown woman ends reign

Terry Mulhern, R.N., of Ashley has been selected by the Wyoming Valley Unit of the American Cancer Society as the 1985 Nurse of Hope.

Miss Mulhern, a nurse at the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, is a graduate of the Luzerne County Community College Nursing School and currently attends Wilkes College. Miss Mulhern has been a volunteer for the Cancer Society for several years.

In her role as Nurse of Hope, she will represent the American Cancer Society in public and professional education, fund-raising, and patient services throughout the area. Her message will also seek to dispel myths and fears about cancer and bring hope through education to those who have cancer.

The runner-up in the competition is Linda Mary Domanosky, R.N., of Forty-Fort. Other contestants were Nancy Novitski of Kingston and Mary Ann Wargo of McAdoo.

Terry Mulhern will reign as Nurse of Hope throughout 1985 as the Wyoming Valley representative, and she will compete in the Pennsylvania's Nurse of Hope Program in April. She succeeds Mrs. Barbara Kuznicki, R.N. of Shavertown, 1984 Nurse of Hope.

Meadows Auxiliary tours Nursing Center

Over 40 members of the Meadows Auxiliary enjoyed an open door tour of the Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas, at their recent meeting.

Two groups were conducted around the entire facility by Thomas Sweeney, administrator, and Judy Harding, R.N. director of nursing services. Following the tour, refreshments were served and a short business meeting held. Plans were made for activities for the next few months.

The February activity at the center will be a Bingo Party for the residents to be held on Feb. 16, from 2 to 4 p.m. Lots of lovely prizes for the event were donated by auxiliary members at the meeting. Members who can attend are asked to be at the center at 1:30 p.m. on Feb. 16 to begin transporting the residents.

Other plans being formulated are an Open House at the Meadows Nursing Center to be hosted by the auxiliary on April 28, 2-5 p.m. and a Flea Market to be held on the grounds of the Nursing Center on June 15.

The auxiliary is also planning a bi-monthly meeting for those active volunteers who work and cannot attend the daytime meetings. Suggestions for a suitable evening will be considered and the first evening meeting held in March.

The next meeting of the Auxiliary will be Monday, March 4, at 10 a.m. at the Community Room of the Meadows Apartments. Please note: This is a departure from the usual 2nd Monday of the month due to the Community Room not being available on the 11th.

For information on the auxiliary or its activities, please call Marilyn Gregorski at 675-8600 or Catherine Bolinski at 675-5153.
