

'Sharing' is what this program is all about land snow, Pennsylvania Dutch country, and the excitement of New

Foreign students from all over the world are hoping to find a warm and loving family in one of these areas of the U.S. There are already many foreign students here this year through the State Department designated Educational Resource Development Trust which calls the program "SHARE", and brings qualified students from foreign countries for one school year or semester. "SHARE" has just begun its 1985 campaign in the local area.

The local Area Representative is: Natalie Rusnock, 16 Summit View Drive, Mountaintop, Pa. 18707, (717)

Students from Brazil, Argentina, Spain, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, Sweden, Norway, Ecuador, the Philippines, Japan, Belgium and the once.

Warm Florida sunshine, Carolina Netherlands are already waiting beaches, Virginia hills, New Engand other countries will be included shortly. Families may specify a boy or girl and may indicate which country they prefer. Families with small children or grown children, as well as those with teen-agers or no children are welcome to participate.

The only financial requirement is that the host families provide meals and shelter. Transportation, school expenses and spending money are provided by the student's parents.

Students will arrive in late August and will remain through the school year. Host Families are permitted by the I.R.S. to deduct $50.00 per month from their taxable incomes and school districts receive state support for these exchange stu-

Persons with an interest in "SHARING" or in learning more about this outstanding program are urged to contact Natlie Rusnock at

Paranich named best instructor

Robert Paranich, assistant professor of electrical engineering at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, was rated the best engineering instructor on any of Penn State's 17 commonwealth campuses scattered throughout the state. The rating was determined by a survey of 3,900 former 1982-83 engineering students at all the cam-

Paranich has taught electrical engineering and physics at the Lehman campus for 19 years. He believes his effectiveness as a teacher comes largely from spending a great deal of time outside the classroom helping his students find ways to apply what they've learned

He holds a bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering from Drexel University and a master's degree in physics from Wilkes College. Paranich resides in Port Griffith with his wife, Barbara,

MARYANN KOFLANOVICH

The Gourmet Pantry

Known for its fresh Butter Croissants and delicious Quiche, will be featured at the

The Bay Window

lower level Browse - Shop - Stop for French Coffee and a Gourmet Delight

Serving: 10-5 p.m. Eat in or take out and four children. His colleague, Leo Corbett, who is also an assistant professor of engineering at the campus, ranked eighth on the survey of the 98 faculty members who were rated.

ROBERT PARANICH

Woman certified

Maryann Koflanovich has been certified as an ENG technician after completing an electronystagmorgraphy course at the Methodist Hospial in Houston, Texas.

Electronystagmography is a noninvasive test that is useful in the evaluation of dizziness and other inner ear problems. Mrs. Koflanovich has been employed at Nesbitt

Memorial Hospital since February of 1981. She and her husband, Ronald, live in Shavertown.

Derby held Members of Cub Scout Pack 281 of Trucksville recently competed in a Pinewood Derby. Shown here are the winners. From left, kneeling, Chris Brown, first place speed; Michael Goldsmith, third place speed. Standing, Bradley Bryant, first place show; David Podehl, second place show; and David Holdredge, second place speed. Absent at the time of the photo was Ronnie Moses, third place show.

Contest held

A poetry reading contest was held recently at Gate of Heaven School. A student from each homeroom was selected to participate in the finals. Selected were Meighan Garvey, Matthew Sowick, Heather Roos, Jason Pieczynski, Corin Schall,

Danielle Freeman, Sean Brady, Joseph Kelley, Susannah Stair, Susan Rygelski, Jennifer Harteis, Michael Malak, April Yatsko and Joan Segrave-Daly

Contestants were judged on poem contest, stage presence, articulation and voice projection. Winners from grades 1-3 were Jason Pieczynski, "Imagination", first place; Danielle Freeman, "My Violet", second place; and Corin Schall, "Happiness", third place.

Students from the fourth through eighth grades were judged separately in the various categories. Susan Rygelski won the first place ribbon for "Brontosaurus," Yatsko received second place honors for "A Time to Remember" and Jennifer Harteis finished third with her poem entitled "Jesus.

Judges for the event were Sister M. Gratia, Mrs. Teresa Rutkoski, Ms. Deborah Wysocki, Mrs. Frances Dress, and Mrs. Marcella Hiller. Sister M. Davida Morgan is principal of Gate of Heaven School.

Subscribe To The Post 675-5211

Dallas resident lends a hand at college drive

Brendan Walsh, Jr. of Dallas, and services for eye, ear, nose and his fraternity brother Mike Dignazio throat outpatients. from Pi Kappa Alpha, helped coordinate a recent blood drive at the University of Pittsburgh. A total of 483 members of Pitt's Greek sororities and fraternities donated blood in the drive. Brendan is a freshman majoring in biology. He is the son of Brendan Walsh, Sr. of Dallas.

The blood drive is a part of the annual Greek Week fundraising activities which will benefit Eye and Ear Hospital of Pittsburgh.

The students hope to raise $50,000 which will be used to complete an eye examination room and an ear, nose and throat examination room in the hospital's ambulatory care clinic. The clinic provides medical

With the theme "Stop, look, listen. Help the Pitt Greeks Help Pittsburgh's Eye and Ear Hospital," some 3,700 members of Pitt's 21 fraternities and 16 sororities will man various street corners in downtown Pittsburgh and Oakland and ask for donations from passing motorists.

Eye and Ear Hospital is a 172-bed, facility dedicated to care and treatment of the eye, ear, nose, throat and related areas. Major research in these areas is conducted at Eye and Ear, which also serves as the teaching unit for these specialties in the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine and other schools of the health-related professions.

Planning drive

Brendan Walsh Jr., right, of Dallas, and his fraternity brother Mike Dignazio, left, from Pi Kappa Alpha, helped coordinate a recent blood drive at the University of Pittsburgh. A total of 483 members of Pitt's Greek sororities and fraternities donated blood in the drive. Brendan is a freshman majoring in biology. He is the son of Brendan Walsh Sr. of Dallas.

Club holds dinner

The Circle K Club at Penn State Wilkes-Barre recently held a dinner in Hayfield House at the Lehman campus to formalize the re-chartering of the club. Shown here are, from left, seated, Chris DePolo, vice-president; Susan Rutstein, president; Colleen Miller, secretary. Standing are: John Moyer, lieutenant governor; Judy Legg, treasurer; and Mrs. Lee Muroski sociology instructor and advisor to the club.

omist, Josephine Kotch, may be able to help you get the support you need. She offers workshops on managing mney for those with litle experience in budgeting. She serves as the advisor for two chapters of

CARRIER'S CONNECTION

You Can Receive Home Delivery of The Dallas Post Here Are The Home Delivery Areas Available

BARRY SMITH Elizabeth Street, Park Street, Huntsville Road

DANIEL HOLDREDGE Norton Avenue, Machel Avenue, Lehman Avenue, Franklin Street

BECKY GINGO Midway Manor, Shavertown Harris Hill Road

SEAN LOEFFLER Joseph Street, Highpoint Acres, Maplewood Drive, Redledge Drive

GREG GANCARCIK Shrine Acres, Country Club Road

SQUARE DANCE

Sponsored by the J. R. Davis Volunteer Fire Co. Memorial Highway, Idetown

 REFRESHMENTS **

DATE: March 2, 1985 - TIME: 8 p.m. to midnight

COST $4.00 per person

Caller "RED JONES"

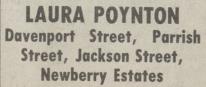

For more information and tickets

Call Al at 639-1673 or Chick at 639-1828

BRENDA OLSEN New Goss Manor, Dallas

CALL JEAN 675-5211 For Home Delivery

Home economist offers assistance

Families today face constant change. More women are employed outside the home. Grandparents and other relatives are unlikely to live nearby. An aging parent may need to move in. A self-supporting son or daughter may return home. Through all this families may need support that is often costly or hard to find. Luzerne County Cooperative Extension Service has been helping people help hemselves for 70 years.

HOME ST

Greeting new neighbors is a tradition wit WELCOME WAGON "America's Neigh

I'd like to visit you. To say "Hi" and present gifts and greetings from community minded businesses. I'll also present invitations you can redeem for more gifts. And

A WELCOME WAGON visit is a sp

treat to help you get settled and feeling more "at home". A friendly get-together,

675-2070

Welcome Wagon

New address? WELCOME WAGON*

can help you feel at home.

the Creative Craftsmen in Luzerne County. Members turn leisure time activities to supplementary income for the home. The extension home economist has learn-at-home packets for those whose schedules don't allow them to attend workshops. For parents of inants or toddlers, she has support groups and learn-at-home services. A program called "Your New Life Alone" can help the newly divorced or widowed to adjust to his or her new lifestyle. How can one person offer such variety? The secret is access to a

The County Extension home econ-network of Penn State faculty who serve as specialists to the county extension home economists. These specialists develop programs based on identified county needs and Mrs. Kotch localizes these for Luzerne County. This also means that Mrs. Kotch's programs are based on sound research and up-to-date infor-

> All Extension educational programs are available to residents in the County and everyone is invited to participate.

For more information on Extensions programs, contact The Pennsylvania State University Cooperative Extension Service of Luzerne County at 5 Water Street, Courthouse Annex, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18711 or call: 825-1801 or 459-0736,

