Heart program

More than 130 people from area communities recently participated in the NPW Medical Center's "Love Your Heart Day" program held in the NPW Learning Resources Center. Held in conjunction with February being recognized as National Heart Month, this program, is offered each year by NPW to help inform the public about what they can do to take better care of their hearts. Along with free cholesterol screenings, blood pressure checks, weight and nutrition evaluations (complete with a measure of percentage of body fat), and an evaluation of heart attack risk factors, Dr. Joseph Abate, cardiologist with the Geisinger Medical Group-Wilkes Barre and NPW, presented a lecture on "Taking Care of Your Heart." Bill Hoover, phlebotomist, is shown taking blood from Lou Dalsanto, Shavertown, for a cholesterol screening at the recent NPW "Love Your Heart Day."

Sem sponsors scholarship

Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School, Kingston, will sponsor its fourth Trustee Achievement Scholarship, a competitive scholarship to be awarded to two students who excel in academic competition, according to Dr. Wallace F. Stetler, president of the prep school.

Two scholarships, one full and one half tuition, will be given for one year each, regardless of economic need.

The awards will be granted to the students who, in the judgment of the Trustee Achievement Scholarship Committee, combine outstanding performance on a competitive examination with high qualities of citizenship and a strong record of academic achievement.

Any student entering ninth or tenth grade and not presently enrolled in Wyoming Seminary Upper School may compete for the scholarships.

Candidates interested in applying should contact the Admissions Office, Wyoming Seminary, North Sprague Avenue, Kingston, Pa. 18704 or call 717-288-7541.

Prospective candidates will then be asked to submit a scholarship application, participate in an interview before several members of the scholarship committee, and complete a series of examinations scheduled for March 30.
