Wrestling Club holds tournament

Wrestlin' away

Junior high wrestlers win first D-2 title

Dallas Junior High Wrestling team took its first ever Junior High District II PIAA Wrestling Title Saturday at the Lehman High School Gymnasium earning 166 team points, running 2nd was Crestwood Junior High with 156 points, third place, Wyoming Valley West Jr. High with 143, and Meyers was fourth with 137.5. Lake-Lehman came in fifth place with 128 team points.

Dallas took four wrestlers into the final round, Eric Olsen (105) Billy Janoski (115), Jerry Ogurkis (154) and Mike Richards (120) coming away with three champions. Olsen defeated Joe Doyle (WVW) 12-2,

Janoski defeated Damien Cavuto (WVW) 7-2, Ogurkis defeated Chris Cole (Crestwood) 6-0, Richards earned second place in overtime being beaten by Gary-Kenzakoski (WBT) 2-0. Other Dallas wrestlers earning medals were third place winners, O'Donnel (80), Graham (100), Kuprowski (145). Lake-Lehman Junior High Wrestlers also turned in an impressive performance having three wrestlers going the final round. The only title being earned by Scott Shafer (Hwt) who decisively beat Jeff Dumble of Meyers 5-2. This is the first title for Lehman since Jeff Austin in 81-82 who went at 85 lb. Second place winners were Tom Duffy (100), Matt Bregman (125), and third place medals went to Charles Allen (120), Tim Bernick (128). Fourth place to P.J. Goodwin (85 and Riek Parry (130).

Junior High wrestling team wins

The Lake-Lehman Black Knights Junior High Wrestling team continued their winning ways Saturday, Feb. 16, as they handed Wyoming Valley West their first defeat of the season before a fairly large crowd at the Lehman gym.

The win put the Black Knights in the position of vying for co-championship honors of the Wyoming Valley Junior High West Division along with WVW providing they beat Honesdale on Monday, Feb. 19.

Lehman garnered four pins and one major decision in beating WVW 40-37, falls were recorded by Chris Frederick (115), Charles Allen (12), Glen Allen (165), and Scott Shafer (Hwt) the major decision was won by Scott Wascalus (154), Brown (100) and D. Vacuto at 125 recorded the only pins for Valley West.

Following the WVW meet the team traveled to Honesdale, Monday, Feb. 19 winning 74-18, using 5 pins by P.J. Goodwin (85) in 40 seconds, Mark Rogowski (90) 56 secs; Scott Bregman (110) 2:44; Scott Wascalus (145) 54 secs. Scott Shafer (Hwt) 35 secs. Superior decisions were recorded by Charlie Honeywell (105) 13-0; Darren Ide (125) 18-0; and a major decision by Chris Frederick (115) 9-0.

Two years ago the Wyoming Valley Junior High Wrestling League was split into an East and West Division, the year prior to the split the Lehman Junior High Wrestlers were 10-3 but were edged out of the championship. The last time a championship team at the Junior High level was won by Lehman was in 1975. The current team is coached by Tom Williams Jr. and Phil Lipski.
