Brittany House is experience you'll long remember

By Joan Kingsbury
Staff Correspondent

The Brittany House Restaurant on Memorial Highway in Trucksville invites you to a dining experience you will long remember. Your host at the Brittany House is Ed McCabe, former owner of the Alberdeen Inn in Mountaintop where he carried on a tradition of fine dining for nine years.

Three separate areas are set aside for dining at the Brittany House. Candlelit tables set for fine dining create a warm atmosphere as you enjoy a delicious meal or sip your favorite cocktail. Drinks may also be enjoyed in the cocktail lounge area. Private parties for up to 25 people can easily be accommodated in the largest of the dining areas.

In the year and a half that it has been in operation, Brittany House has become known for its fine cuisine. McCabe prepares steak, seafood, veal and chicken specialties like Veal Marsala and Crab AuGratin. Jumbo lump crabmeat dishes are a house specialty as are a variety of homemade desserts including Marble Cheesecake.

Reservations are suggested at the Brittany House where you can dine Tuesday through Saturday from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. and on Sundays from 12 to 6 p.m.
