Relaxing at dinner
Tony and Shirley Jane Popple traveled from West Pittston to enjoy a quiet, relaxing dinner at Pickett's Charge Restaurant, Dallas.

Pickett's Charge has a meal for you

By JOAN KINGSBURY
Staff Correspondent

Whether you are yearning for a delicious breakfast, quick lunch or a sumptuous dinner, Pickett's Charge, Memorial Highway, Dallas has a meal to please you.

Owned and operated by Tom and Annette Pickett, Pickett's Charge has been serving the area for the past six years. In addition to Tom, chefs Tony Hoyson and Scott Crispell prepare the gourmet meals that make Pickett's famous.

Decorated in a Civil War Theme using antique guns and pictures of that period to set the mood, Pickett's Charge offers a variety of gourmet meals like Seafood Francoise, and Veal Pickett's. A succulent dish, Seafood Francoise combines scallops, shrimp and sole in a wine and lemon sauce. Veal Pickett's is a combination of various spices and prosciutto ham. Prime Rib every Saturday night and Lobster every Friday night are available at the low price of $8.95.

Desserts, an important part of the meal for many patrons, also take on a special flare at Pickett's Charge. French Fried Ice Cream, ice cream dipped in a nut batter, deep fried for a minute, garnished with whipped cream and a cherry, is the dessert specialty of the house.

Pickett's Charge offers specials for both breakfast and lunch. Their breakfast special of two eggs, bacon, homefries, and toast for $1.39 is available starting at 7 a.m. Tom keeps lunch specials low, around $2 so that those eating out daily can enjoy a reasonably priced lunch. Pickett's Charge also has a bar, where your favorite drinks can be mixed up in a jiffy.

Tom feels he has learned a lot in the last six years about what patrons like, and is sure he serves the best food in Wyoming Valley. In fact, he guarantees that if a patron eats a certain dish, for example, Shrimp Scampi, at Pickett's Charge, and thinks another restaurant where they have eaten makes it better, Tom will not charge them for their meal.
