Paul Kenyon, pastor of the Mooretown Assembly of God Church, will be providing the special music. On March 20, Rev. Kenyon will be speaking at the Hunlock Creek UMC at 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Michael Shambora and the Lehman UMC will be providing the special music.

Lectures

THE COMPLEX QUESTION of the relationship between art and technology will be under discussion when Penn State Wilkes-Barre's Spring Lecture Series continues with the presentation of "Urbanism and the Artist: Saul Bellow and the Age of Technology."

The lecture will be presented by Dr. Daniel Walden, professor of American studies and director of the American Studies Program at Penn State's University Park, on Wednesday, March 13, 4 p.m. in the Community Room of Hayfield House on the Lehman campus. Discussions and refreshments will follow.

Dr. Walden is the editor of the recently published Twentieth-Century American-Jewish Fiction Writers, a reference work which is Volume 28 of Gale's Dictionary of Literary Biography series. His own biography on Nathaniel West is included in the work.

This is the second in the series of lectures presented at Penn State on the topic of bridging the gap between art and technology. The presentation will be free and open to the public.

Theater

AS PART OF THE 1985 THEATRE ARTS in the Classroom tour, the Bloomsburg Theatre Ensemble will present an exciting presentation called OH, GROW UP! - Coming of Age in American Fiction, on Friday, March 15, 8 p.m., at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman. The program will be held in the Science Center and is free and open to the public.

According to Tom Simpson, director, the hour presentation will present scenes from great works that deal with the problems of adolescence, centering especially on the feeling of being all alone.

The production is made possible in part by the Pennsylvania Council on the Arts. For more information on this and/or other cultural events at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, call 675-2171.

CELEBRATING ITS 90TH ANNIVERSARY, Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley is presenting a play, "We The Family". One of the Plays for Living, it dramatizes problems of today's families.

Two free performances will be given at 8:15 p.m.; Monday, March 25, at Wyoming Area Senior High School, Exeter, and Tuesday, March 26, at Dallas Junior High School.

For more information call Family Service, 823-5144.

THE KING'S COLLEGE CAMPUS MINISTRY will sponsor a performance of the Fountain Square Fools, a liturgical theatre company dedicated to spreading the word of God through drama, mime and music, at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 19, in the Chapel of the J. Carroll McCormick Campus Ministry Center. The performance is open to the public free of charge.

Founded in 1975 and based in Cincinnati, Ohio, the Fountain Square Fools trace its historical roots back to the cathedral players of medieval Europe.

The company travels nationwide every year in an attempt to bring an authentic and contemporary voice to traditional religious values and celebrations. Last year, the company concluded its touring with appearances in England and Ireland.

Dinners

KUNKLE UNITED METHODIST

WOMEN are sponsoring a Seafood Dinner on Saturday, March 23, from 4-7 p.m. at the Kunkle Community Hall.

Reservations can be made by calling 675-1514, 675-2622 or by contacting any member of the Kunkle United Methodist Women. Reservations must be made by Monday, March 18. Takeouts are available.

THE ANNUAL HAM AND CABBAGE DINNER sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 672, Dallas, will be held at the Post Home on Saturday, March 16.

Serving will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Music and dancing will follow the dinner. Tickets will be available from members and at the door.

Ginger Spencer is chairman and Marion Harvey, co-chairman.

Sales

"SPRING CRAFT BAZAAR AND BAKE SALE," Friday, March 22, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Saturday, March 23, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at William Rosser Hall, Maple Grove United Methodist Church, located at Pikes Creek, Sweet Valley Road. Refreshments will also be sold.

For information regarding display and sale of craft items, call Coleen

Cooper, 477-5638; Diane Newberry, 477-5673; or Alice Walsh, 477-5239.

Courses

COURSES FOR CHILDREN AND FOR ADULTS will be offered by Arts at Hayfield, a new Back Mountain cultural organization, beginning this month. The courses will be held at Penn State Wilkes-Barre in Lehman. To obtain a brochure with registration information, call Penn State's continuing education office, 675-2171.

For adults, a six week "Wellness Workshop" will be conducted by Dr. Jerry Reisinger on Wednesdays, 7-9 p.m., March 13-April 17. The focus will be on preventing illnesses and discovering natural ways of staying healthy physically and emotionally.

An operetta workshop is offered for children ages 9-12, conducted by Harry Trebilcock, on Mondays for 10 weeks, March 18-May 20. Classes will result in an operetta stage production created and performed by the students. Students will create the plot, lyrics and music. No prior musical experience is needed.

"Wreath Making for Children," offered by Kathy Millington.

Banner helps during breakdown

Your car breaks down on a lonely stretch of highway late at night. You need to signal for help, but like most drivers, you're not carrying emergency flair or a CB radio. To get help, you have to leave the safety of the car.

Now a lifesaver for stranded motorists is as close as your glove compartment. It's called a Highway Emergency Banner, available from the non-profit National Council of Jewish Women (NCJW), Greater Minneapolis Section, and it helps a driver call for help.

The banner is easily secured to a car rear window with preaffixed double-faced tape. Reflective lettering makes the words CALL POLICE, printed in eight-inch fluorescent letters, visible both day and night.

Some 150,000 banners have been distributed nationally in the past six weeks since they became available through the NCJW. Proceeds go to community service programs. The banner began with volunteers working at the kitchen table in a member's home. But a notice about the banners in the syndicated Dear Abby newspaper column catapulted the local community service project to a major full-service operation.

The organization has been deluged with hundreds of requests and testimonials each day from seniors, women, police departments, schools and corporations interested in sponsoring employee safety programs.

Cost of the reusable banner is $3 each, which includes postage and handling.
