Mark II is great for family dining

By JOAN KINGSBURY
Staff Correspondent

Mark II Family Restaurant, located on Memorial Highway in Dallas, is in its 11th year of serving the Back Mountain. Mark II Family Restaurants, Inc., owned and operated by Marilyn and Bernard Sult of Shavertown, also maintains restaurants in Wilkes-Barre and Moosic.

Just one year ago, Mark II was completely remodeled. Geared for family dining, Mark II opens at 6:30 a.m. for breakfast. The Early Bird Special is a favorite morning choice. Weekends, a hot breakfast buffet and fresh fruit bar are featured.

In September, Mark II added gourmet burgers to its list of char-broiled foods. This six ounce beef patty served on a hard roll with a desired topping makes a delicious lunch.

In addition to a variety of dinner specials, dinner buffets are offered Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 4 to 9 p.m. Friday's Seafood Buffet includes a variety of fish, fresh, cold shrimp and a delicious seafood Newburg prepared by Mrs. Sult. Every Tuesday and Friday, fresh pink shrimp is offered with the salad buffet.

Like its predecessor, Forty Fort Dairy, Mark II is known for its tempting ice cream creations. The new solarium provides an attractive indoor setting in which to enjoy Twin Kiss soft ice cream year round. Homemade cream pies are another popular dessert at Mark II.

For the little ones, a child's menu is available that is sure to please. Birthdays are celebrated with a free birthday Sundae for children of all ages. A counter makes it easy to eat a quick meal when you are in a hurry. For private parties, the Terrace Room provides most pleasant surroundings.
