Quartets to perform at Meyers this weekend

"Vaudeville - Barbershop Harmony Style" will highlight the 33rd annual "Parade of Quartets Concert" of the Wilkes-Barre Chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA). Concert is set for March 29 and 30 at Meyers High School, Wilkes-Barre. Curtain: 8 p.m.

Appearing from the chapter will be "The Tag Masters" and "Touch of Class." Back Mountain members in "The Tag Masters" include Tenor, Phil Brown, Shavertown, and Lead, Joe Fry, Trucksville.

Headlining the concert will be the "Note-Wits", well-known comedy foursome from Livingston, New Jersey. Various production numbers following the Vaudeville Theme will be rendered by the "Wyoming Valley Harmony Chorus" under co-directors Ray Patsko, Wilkes-Barre and Ray Ramage, West Pittston; and Asst. Director, Muchler, Wilkes-Barre.

Concert chairman James Nixon, Wilkes-Barre, commented that the four-part harmony program will include specialty segments reminiscent of Vaudeville Days...to the enjoyment of the entire family.

Tickets are available from members of the Chorus and quartets, plus they will be sold at the door of each performance, one-hour before curtain time.

Drives

rently conducting a membership drive.

At the present time, there are approximately 25 active members in the company. With the population increase over the past few years and its related construction, the current 25 members are hard put to maintain high quality fire protection.

Training is offered every Tuesday evening, supplemented with regional and state fire schools.

John Jorda was named Chairman of the Fireman's Fair along with his two co-chairmen Richard Adamchick and Charles Woolbert.
