

Meeting held

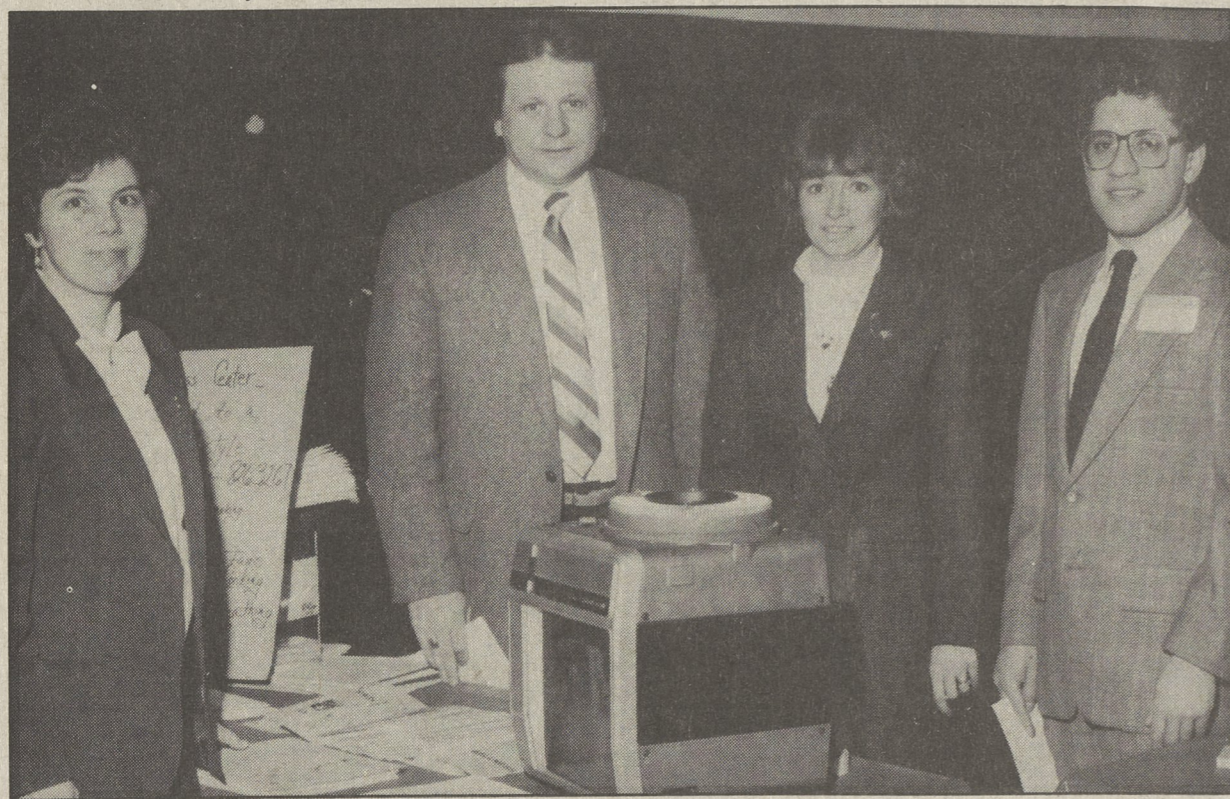

Several Back Mountain residents participated recently in the Second Annual Joint Meeting of Home-Health Services, Homemaker Services and Home-Care Management of Luzerne County. The three voluntary non-profit home care agencies work together to meet the home health needs of Luzerne County residents. Shown above are officers of the Board of Directors of Home-Care Management of Luzerne County. From left, are Conrad W. Schintz, Second Vice President; Michael A. Polk, President; Michael Salamon, First Vice President; and Robert Kotsull, Secretary. Absent was Stanford L. Weiss, Treasurer.

Make birdhouses

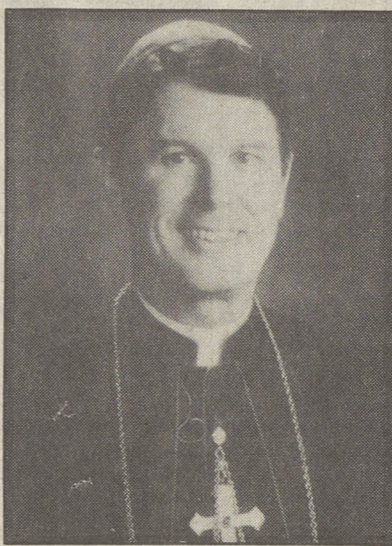

Shown here are students at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School with bluebird houses they recently constructed as part of a special project. From left, first row, Kenny May, Mark Koprowski, April Allen, Lori Long, Kevin May. Second row, Ann Nichols, and Paul Sabol, teacher.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Program conducted

Mercy Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, recently held a "Health Awareness and Screening Program" for Faculty Members of the Dallas Area School District. Several screenings were available for participants which included: Blood Pressure, Blood Glucose, Cardiac Rhythm Strips, Spirometry, Audiology, Vision and Color Blindness. Information was also available on Mercy Medical Offices, The Traveling Phlebotomist Program, Pre and Postnatal Exercise Classes, Natural Family Planning and Wellness Center Programs. Shown here, from left, are Sister Jo Anne Jones, R.S.M., Vice-president, Marketing-Philosophy at Mercy; Gerald Wycallis, Superintendent, Dallas Area School District; Sandy Tendent, Dallas Area School District; Sandy Viclicka, Business Manager, Dallas Area School District; and Joseph Aquilina, Acting Director, Mercy Hospital Wellness Center.

REV. JAMES C. TIMLIN

Timlin to be honored

Most Reverend James C. Timlin, Bishop of the Diocese of Scranton, will receive an honorary degree at the 39th Commencement exercises of King's College to be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 19, in the William S. Scandlon Physical Education Center, Main and Jackson Streets.

Bishop Timlin will also deliver the homily at the Baccalaureate Mass to be held at 4 p.m. Saturday, May 18 in the Scandlon Physical Education Center.

Born in Scranton, Bishop Timlin graduate from Holy Rosary High School in North Scranton and attended St. Charles College, Catonsville, Md., and St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md., before completing his studies for the priesthood at North American College, Rome, Italy.

Ordained into the priesthood in 1951 by the Most Rev. Martin J. O'Connor, then rector of the North American Church, Bishop Timlin served as assistant pastor of St. John the Evangelist Parish, Pittston and St. Peter's Cathedral, Scranton, before being named assistant chancellor of the diocese and secretary to Most Rev. J. Carroll McCormick, D.D., sixth Bishop of Scranton, in 1966.

Bishop Timlin was appointed Chaplain to Pope Paul VI in 1967, became Chancellor of the diocese in 1971 and was named a Prelate of Honor of the Pope in 1972.

He was named Auxiliary Bishop and became Vicar General of the Diocese of Scranton in 1976, was named pastor of the Church of the Nativity of our Lord in 1979, and became the eighth Bishop of the Scranton Diocese in 1984.

Bishop Timlin has served on the Consultative Committee on Vocations, chairman of the Diocesan Liturgical Commission, as a member of the Board of Consultors, chairman of St. Plus X Seminary and chairman of the Preparatory Commissions for the Diocesan Synod in 1983.

Main speaker at the Commencement exercises will be Mary Alice Williams, vice president of Cable News Network (CNN), will be the featured speaker at the 39th Commencement exercises of King's College to be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 19 in the William S. Scandlon Physical Education Center, Main and Jackson Streets.

Report made

At the second report meeting of the College Misericordia annual fund drive, general chairman John Churnetski announced that $165,170 in contributions and pledges has been received. Halfway through the campaign, the annual support program is right on schedule posting 55 percent of its $33,000 goal. Funds are designated for student financial aid including scholarships, leadership grants and work study awards. Reviewing the figures are campaign vice chairmen, seated from left: Robert Patton, vice president, Wyoming National Bank and Dr. Edward Nork, ophthalmologist. Standing, from left, William Moyer, president, Commonwealth Telephone Co. and chairman John Churnetski, president, Utility Engineers, Inc.

Brody is state finalist

Heather Anne Brody, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Brody, Overbrook Ave., Dallas, has been selected as a State Finalist for 1985 America's Little Miss Pageant, to be held at the Holiday Inn, Essington, Pa., April 27.

Contestants will be judged on beauty, smile, eye contact, poise, personality, attire and talent. The winner will go on to the national competition to be held in Kentucky.

Heather's sponsors include the following Back Mountain businesses: Martha's Bridals; Mary Taylor's Beauty Salon; Gino's Shoe Store and Bruce Goeringer, D.D.S. Mr. B's Clothing Store has donated the sportswear ensemble.

Heather is a student at Dallas Twp. School, where she is in the third grade. She is a member of Brownie Troop 650, and her hobbies include ice skating, rollerskating, craft-making, modeling and photography.

She has a sister, Laura, who is three years old. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Weiss, Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. George Brody, Noxen and the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weiss, Plains.

HEATHER ANNE BRODY

King's College lists speaker

Mary Alice Williams, vice president of Cable News Network (CNN), will be the featured speaker at the 39th Commencement exercises of King's College to be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, May 19 in the William S. Scandlon Physical Education Center, Main and Jackson Streets.

Bishop Timlin will also deliver the homily at the Baccalaureate Mass to be held at 4 p.m. Saturday, May 18, in the Scandlon Physical Education Center.

Kalb to speak

The publicity campaign for the Marvin Kalb Lecture was planned at a meeting of public relations representatives of the five sponsoring organizations. Pictured above, from left, Rena Schoenfeld, Jewish Community Center Adult Director; Judy Klein, Chairman JCC Lecture Committee; Phyllis Belk, Director of University Relations, Penn State University Wilkes-Barre; Judy Daley, Director of Public Relations, College Misericordia; Ray Burd, Director of Public Affairs, King's College; and John McAndrew, Director of News Bureau Services, King's College. Jane Mangarella, Director of Public Relations, Wilkes College, was absent when the photo was taken. Marvin Kalb, award-winning diplomatic correspondent and authoritative commentator on international affairs in broadcast journalism, will speak at the Wilkes College Gymnasium on Monday, April 15, 1985 at 8 p.m. This lecture is made possible through the cooperative efforts of King's College, Wilkes College, College Misericordia, Penn State University Wilkes-Barre Campus, and the Jewish Community Center of Wyoming Valley. Kalb is a magnetic lecturer and prolific writer and will speak on "U.S. Foreign Policy." He is author or co-author of five works of non-fiction, including his best-selling biography, "Kissinger," and two works of fiction. His latest effort, "The Last Ambassador," co-authored with his brother, Bernard Kalb, appeared in its paperback edition in January 1984. There is no admission charge. The public is invited to hear this dynamic speaker.

Trinity sets registration

The Trinity Nursery School, located in Trinity United Presbyterian Church, Dallas, is now accepting registration for the 1985-86 school year. The school will open its doors for the 15th year in September with programs in early childhood education for 3, 4 and 5 year olds. Classes are offered in the morning for 3 year olds; and in the morning and afternoon for 4 and 5 year olds. Due to requests a 3 year old p.m. class may also be added to the program. Recent activities at the Nursery School include an eye screening, hearing screening, a visit from the Dallas Fire Company, a visit from two registered nurses, a visit from Chief of Police Carl Miers and a visit from Mrs. Scott, a nutritionist. Open House will be held at Trinity Nursery School on May 13. Information concerning registration may be obtained by calling the church office at 675-3131.

Preferred Homeowners Insurance
UNUSUAL SAVINGS
Homes up to 35 years old Qualify
BESECKER REALTY
10 Main Street, Dallas
675-3611

GALKA-BEAN
SANITATION SERVICE, INC.
Noxen 298-2347
REASONABLE MONTHLY RATES
Container Service
Rubbish, Trash,
Garbage Removal
Commercial
Residential Industrial
TO OUR CUSTOMERS... If you are missed or service is unsatisfactory please call us at 298-2347.

PLAY THEM ALL
AT
COOK'S VARIETY STORE
LEHMAN CENTER
Remember . . .
"You've Got To Play To Win"
OPEN DAILY 7 A.M. to 9 P.M.
675-2811