KG's proprietors

Dinner at KG's is one memorable experience

By JOAN KINGSBURY
Staff Correspondent

KG's at Harveys Lake has gone through different phases and changes in the almost three years its has been in business. First, it was a bar with a pool table and lots of "Gemuetlichkeit". The word soon spread through the valley that the restaurant also served good food.

The pool table was removed to make room for tables. The restaurant is now called KG's Bavarian Hofbrau Haus and to their knowledge is the only German restaurant in the valley.

Karin and George Yuhas are your hosts at KG's. When asked who did the decorating, Karin replied she and her husband did and noted that all the beautiful materials were found and purchased at Sew Rite in the Dallas Shopping Center.

The restaurant's dining room is decorated in lace from curtains to lampshades to tablecloths creating a pleasant and soothing atmosphere, a charming contrast to the lively and colorful bar. In the bar area, an antique medicine cupboard has been converted into a little German Specialty store featuring German cookies, chocolates and marzipan.

According to the Yuhas couple, German food is actually very basic and is integrated in many ways in our American kitchens. Karin and George pride themselves in serving your dinner made to order — no deep fried foods and no microwave oven.

Their homemade noodles are called Apaetzle. Their Schnitzel are thick, fresh veal cutlets prepared a different way each day. KG's also features a new fish dish Friday nights. For those who like sausage, KG's features a Sunday special of Wurst Schmaus, authentic German sausage, served with homemade sauerkraut and spaetzle.

Karin says, "My husband's desserts are delicious." His strudel was complimented last year by the Baron in the Sunday Independent. The strudel is filled with lots of fresh apples, raisins and walnuts and is served with real old-fashioned whipped cream. George also makes individual tortes served with fruits in season including gooseberries. KG's noodle pudding is a light fluffy cheese custard topped with berries, a truly outstanding dessert.
