REV. THOMAS A. CLEWOW, pastor, Trucksville United Methodist Church, announced the following services for Holy Week.

A Holy Communion service will be held on Maundy Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Two services sponsored by the Back Mountain Clergy Association are scheduled for the church on Good Friday, an afternoon service from 2 to 3 p.m. and an evening Tenebrae service from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. On Easter Sunday, three services will be held starting with a sunrise service at 6:30 a.m., conducted by the United Methodist Youth Fellowship. Other Easter services will be at 9:30 and 11 a.m. Harry G. Trebilcox, director of music, will lead the Chancel Choir in the singing of his composition, "Gloria." Featured soloists will be Sherri Hinkle, Lorelle Naylis, Donna Trebilcox, and Robert Gardner.

The Rev. Thomas A. Clewov invites the public to share in these worshi services.

THE COMMUNITY CHURCH of Dallas, Memorial Highway, lists the following Easter services:

8 a.m., Resurrection Remembrance, "He is Not Here"; 9 a.m., Refreshment and Fellowship; 9:45 a.m., Sunday School for all ages; and 11 a.m., Easter Worship, "He is Risen!"

A SPRING GATHERING is to be held at the Dymond Hollow U.M.C., and old fashioned church in Falls, Pa. Being featured is a Chicken Dinner and a Country Store-Bake Sale.

The ladies are planning to prepare oven fried chicken, whipped potatoes and gravy, tasty veggies and a relish tray which includes home made relishes and pickles. The rolls and desserts are also homemade with loving care and served proudly. Beverage is included. The date is Saturday, April 20.

Sales

"A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING" is the theme of a flea market and bazaar sponsored by the Dallas High School Soccer Parents to be held in the Dallas Senior High School gymnasium and cafeteria on Saturday, April 20 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Exhibiting and selling their wares will be local artists, craftsmen, small businesses, and private individuals with attics and cellars to empty.

Of special interest will be the china exhibited by Mrs. Nancy Sanders. Well known throughout the Valley for her poetry readings and dramatic presentations, Mrs. Sanders will display and sell hand-painted china and jewelry in which she captures the color and technique of the china painters of the late 1800s.

Inspired by the lovely china in her great grandmother's Welch cupboard, Nancy will feature a rose covered Welch cheese dish and a tea set sprinkled with soft blue forget-me-nots. A variety of china teams reminiscent of her early childhood will delight Mrs. Sanders' customers and furnish them with treasures and gift items alike.

Individuals wishing to participate as dealers or as flea market vendors are invited to purchase space available in lots of eight feet or larger. Registration forms are available at Back Mountain Lumber and Hardware Store or by calling 675-4566 or 696-1437.

THE ELLA MOORE CLASS of the East Dallas United Methodist Church will sponsor a rummage sale on April 18 and 19 in the church social room. Hours on Thursday are from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and on Friday 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Refreshments will be available.
