Breakfasts

THE ALDERSON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, Harveys Lake, will hold their annual Fisherman's Breakfast at the church on April 13. Serving will be from 6 a.m. to 12 noon.

The cost is $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for children 12 and under.

The menu will include all the pancakes you can eat, sausage, eggs and beverage.

Programs

THE MERCY HOSPITAL WELLNESS CENTER, Wilkes-Barre, will sponsor a "Managing Stress" program from April 9 to April 30, for four consecutive Tuesdays, from 7 to 10 p.m. The program will be held at Mercy Hospital's Medical Arts Building. If interested, call the Wellness Center at 826-3267 to register. Class size will be limited.

Courses

THE NPW MEDICAL CENTER OBSTETRICS DEPARTMENT will offer a refresher course for those couples who have already completed a six-week Pre-Natal Program on Wednesday, April 17, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the NPW Learning Resources Center.

The class will be instructed by qualified registered nurses from NPW's OB Department, and will include: review of exercises; review of breathing techniques; lecture on signs of labor; and a film on labor and delivery.

There will be a $5 fee to cover the cost of course materials. For additional information and registration, please contact the NPW Obstetrics Department at 826-7324.

THE WYOMING VALLEY CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS will sponsor a CPR course to be held April 17 and April 24 at the Chapter House, 156 South Franklin Street.

The course is scheduled from 6-9 p.m. each night. Pre-registration is required by making a check payable to the Wyoming Valley Chapter, American Red Cross in the amount of $7.50.

Checks should identify the course and dates applying for. Additional information may be obtained by contacting the Safety Services Office at 823-7161.

Lectures

DR. DENNIS C. GOLD of the Northeastern Pennsylvania Counseling Center will speak on "The Psychodynamics of the Modern Family" Tuesday, April 9 at 12:30 p.m. in the Moreau Auditorium of the King's College Campus Ministry Center.

Sponsored by the college's English department, the talk will be open to the public free of charge, is part of a course entitled "The Family and Literature," and will include discussions on the changing roles of men and women in society, the effects of the media and the impact of children.

DR. JUDY MCINTYRE, associate professor of biology at Utica College, will speak on "Wilderness Bird of the North: The Common Loon," at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, April 4, at 4 p.m. in the Community Room of Hayfield House at the Lehman campus. The public is invited to this free presentation. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. McIntyre is an expert on the loon, having received several research grants and presented numerous papers and lectures on the subject. She has also organized "Project Loon Watch" which uses volunteers to help provide data and which has provided models for similar programs nationwide.

This is the fourth lecture in the spring Hayfield Lecture Series at Penn State Wilkes-Barre. Planning is now in progress for 1985-86 lectures and Dr. Robert Burkholder welcomes suggestions.

Seminars

THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL of Northeastern Pennsylvania (EDCNP) and the Small Business Administration (SBA) announced today that registrations are being accepted for an all-day Small Business Achievement Seminar to be held at the Woodlands Inn, Route 315, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania on May 2, 1985.

Business persons can pre-register for the EDCNP Small Business Achievement Seminar by contacting staff person Robert Murphy at the Economic Development Council, 1151 Oak St., Pittston, Pa. 18640, or phoning (717) 655-5581. Registration fee is $25 and includes registration, handouts, luncheon and participation in wine and cheese reception. Checks are payable to EDCNP.

Oak Ridge Boys come to Allentown

Two country music chart-topping groups, the accomplished Oak Ridge Boys and newcomer, Exile, will be paired for two shows at the Allentown Fair, Thursday, Aug. 29.

Tickets for the 6 and 9 p.m. performances go on sale Thursday, April 4. Reserved seats are $13 and $9 on the track and $13, $9 and 17 in the grandstand.

Recipients of numerous entertainment awards including four Grammys the Oak Ridge Boys changed genres from gospel to country-pop in 1975. Their catchy, spirited tune "Elvira" went platinum in 1981 and made the jump from country to pop charts.

Hit singles that followed include "Ozark Mountain Jubilee," "Love Song," "Bobbie Sue," and the touching ballad "Thank God For Kids."

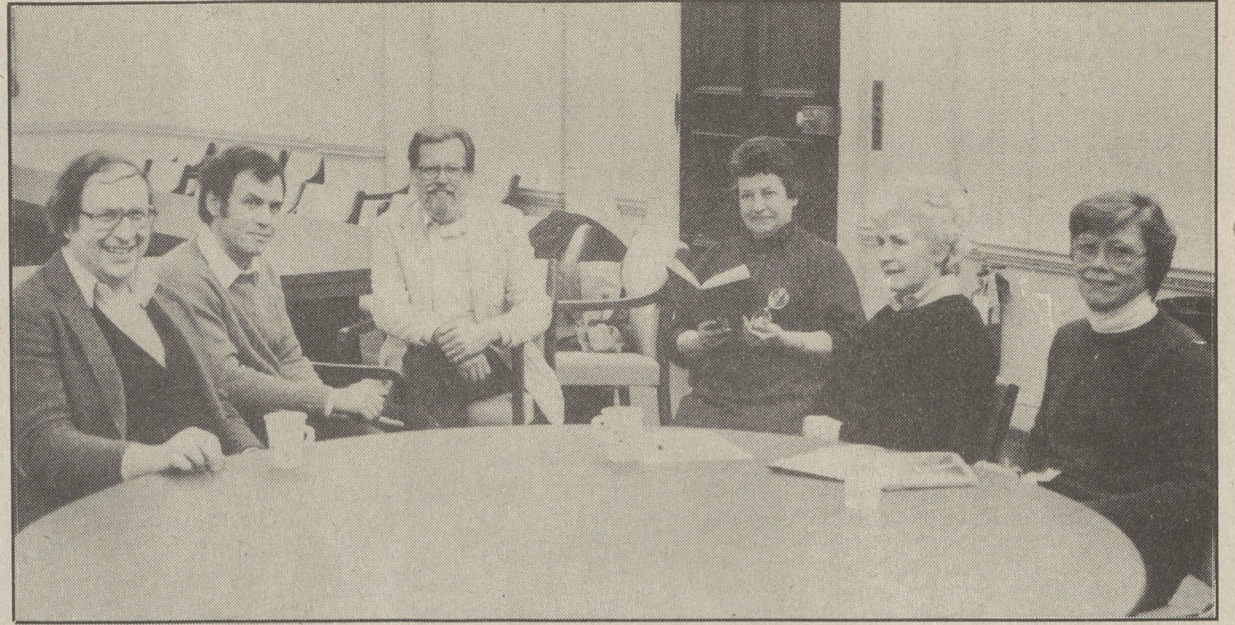

While the Oak Ridge Boys and other country artists have had hit songs that crossed-over onto the pop charts, Exile did things in reverse.

The group's first release, rock single "Kiss Me All Over," reached number one in the pop charts for four weeks in 1978. Unable to follow up their rock success, Exile members started writing country songs including "The Closer You Get" and "Take Me Down," two number-one hits for Alabama.

In 1983, Epic records signed Exile as a country group. Their debut album "Exile" produced country hit singles "Woke Up In Love" and "I Don't Want to be a Memory." The group's second album "Kentucky Hearts" also scaled the country charts.

Tickets for the Oak Ridge Boys with special guest Exile will be on sale along with tickets for the previously announced Kenny Rogers fair shows at the fair box office and Ticketron outlets. Special box office hours will be held from 3-7 p.m. Thursday and Friday, April 4-5. Thereafter, the box office will be open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturdays until further notice.

Mail orders will be accepted with a $2 per-ticket handling charge which provides admission to the grounds. For tickets or more information, write The Allentown Fair, 17th and Chew Sts., Allentown, PA 18104.

Book group meets

Great Books at Hayfield, a literary discussion group at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, meets regularly at the Lehman campus. The public is invited to attend the discussions. Recently the topic book was The Dubliners by James Joyce. Among those present are, from left, Dr. Fred Stefan, history professor and coordinator of the discussion series; John Gormley, student leader for the evening's discussion; Gerry Gregory, English instructor; Jean Dietz, German instructor; Joan Diana, librarian; and Patricia Cole, coordinator of the Learning Support Center. Upcoming literary works to be discussed are The Sound and The Fury by William Faulkner on Monday, April 15; and "Selected Poems" by William Butler Yeats on Monday, May 6. Both meetings will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Room of Hayfield House on the Lehman campus. Refreshments will be served.

Boscov Day

The Citizens of Greater Wilkes-Barre will salute Al Boscov on Thursday, April 4, at noon at Sheraton-Crossgates. Boscov will be honored for his contribution to the revitalization of Wilkes-Barre. Shown here are members of the committee planning the event. From left, Joseph R. Bradley, business manager; and Monty Evans, chairman. Governor Richard Thornburgh has been asked to make the presentation of a special recognition. Anyone who wishes to participate may attend the luncheon at a cost of $10 per ticket. Send checks to Al Boscov Fund, c-0 United Penn Bank, Wilkes-Barre.

Rejoice at Easter!

As the season changes and all life is reborn, we offer our thoughts of joy and peace at Easter.
