Discussing tactics

Dallas High School soccer players Steve Finn and Tim Corcoran discuss the Back Mountain Soccer Clinic sponsored by parents of the players, during the final session last Wednesday.

Prepping for season

Program teaches basics

The Back Mountain Youth Baseball Instructional Program is a newly formed organization geared to provide an outlet of baseball activity and training under good leadership.

The program will teach the basic skills of baseball and will stress good sportsmanship, teamwork, and fair play. Mike Williams, former Boston Red Sox Minor League player, and Bob Feller, former Cleveland Indians pitcher, have organized an instructional program to teach boys how to hit, run, field and throw properly, and how to enjoy their youthful years on the baseball diamond.

The coaching staff of Sam Barbose, Jeff Fritzen and Bill Parrish will strive to help the boys become better players.

Bob Feller was a power pitcher and at the age of 17 he struck out 17 batters in a major league ball game. Feller spent 21 years in the major leagues and was voted as the best living righthand pitcher in baseball by the sportswriters of America.

Feller pitched three no-hitters and 12 one-hitters during his great career with the Indians. He won a total of 266 games for Cleveland and was voted into baseball's Hall of Fame in 1963.

The Silver Sox Youth team for the 1985 season will include the following players: Marc Barbose, Vince

But boys for the team will be Chris Lamoreaux and David Williams, with Charles Lamoreaux Sr. serving as special team advisor. Honorary team members supporting the youth program are Major leaguers Cal Ripken Jr., Brooks Robinson, Stan Musial, Joe DiMaggio, and Tom Lasorda.

STRIKES AND SPARES

Thirty six members of Women's Leagues from Bonomo's Sports Center rolled singles and doubles events at Stanton's Lanes last week and among those returning home with outstanding scores were Kay Scavone and Flo Allabaugh who posted a 1029 in the doubles to move into first place on the board. Both women are members of the Ladies Country League at the Dallas lanes and our congratulations to them for their fine performance in the opening weekend of the Pennsylvania State Women's Bowling Tournament.

At the local lanes, Grotto Pizza shut out Gordon Insurance in the Ladies Country League to move into second place. D. Zurinski led the Pizza team with 196-202 (522) and R. Radzinski added 172 (494). E. Feher hit 174 for the insurance five. Bonomo's Sports Center girls blanked G. H. Harris paced by K. Scavone's 178 (482) and Fashion Vending picked up three points from Castlettes aided by A. Hospodar's 201 (470) and R. Gula's 172. E. Shuleski added 175 to lead in taking the third game.

In the men's George Shupp League it was 3-1 night with Harris Associates taking three from Steele's Restaurant, Fino's Restaurant earning three from SCID and Gino's Shoe Store copping three from Katyl TV.

High scorers were A. Wendel 235 (608), H. Bennett 211-210 (564), B. Harris 225 (559) and D. Purvin 502 for the Harris men; T. Shalata 205 (571), and R. Bonomo 554 for Fino's; R. Callaghan 516 for SCID; R. Daubert 208 (571), B. Cyphers 536, S. Fielding 536, and T. Doughton 523 for Gino's and R. Shoemaker 522 for the TV men.

Jerry Roan hammered the pins for a big 236-244 (674) and T. Shalata walloped them for 202-224 (608) to lead Browns Oil to four points from Back Mountain Sporting Goods in Bonomo's Major League. A.
