it's anything like last year, the store will be packed!"

Bob Maharty of Back Mountain Sporting Goods reports similar activity.

"We've been really busy and are expecting the rest of the week to be pretty hectic, especially Saturday morning when we'll open at 5 a.m. Between last Saturday and this Saturday, we expect to have sold over 250,000 yards of line."

Drury's Deli at the lake is expecting a big day, too. "We open at 5 a.m. for breakfast and expect to be full until 7 or 8 at night," says Jim Drury, proprietor of the restaurant. "Fishermen work up big appetites!"

At least two local churches expect to benefit from the opening day excitement. Idetown and Alderson United Methodist Churches have scheduled breakfasts to be served early on the morning of the 13th, with the usual eggs, ham or bacon and homefries. From the turnout they anticipate, apparently tradition mandates that one cast his line on a full stomach...

And, of course, there is something for everyone. The Harveys Lake Bassmasters, Boscov's and the Harveys Lake Businessmen's Association are sponsoring the Kiddies Trout Derby with prizes for the longest and heaviest fish. There are entries for kids 11 and under or 12 to 15 years old. Weigh-ins are scheduled for 3 p.m. Saturday at Joe Grotto's Marina.

Good luck to all!

RICHARD R. MARKER

Marker will be honored

A testimonial dinner-dance honoring retiring Worshipful Master of the George M. Dallas Lodge, Richard R. Marker will be held Saturday, April 13, at 7 p.m. at Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas. Toastmaster for the evening is Ivan Ziegler and the guest speaker will be George McCutcheon. Following dinner, music for dancing will be provided by Reflections.

Marker is self-employed with his wife Carol as interior-decorating contractors located in the Dallas area.

Mr. Marker's other Masonic affiliations include: Shekinah Royal Arch Chapter No. 182, Mt.Horeb Council No. 34, R. & S.M., and Dieu Le Veut Commandry No. 45, all of Wilkes-Barre, and Irem Temple Shrine, A.A.O.N.M.S., where he is a member of the clown unit.

Anyone wishing to attend may do so by contacting any lodge officer or calling 675-1594 for reservations.

Planning run

Family Service Association plans 'Run for the Health of it'

On Sunday, April 28, at 2 p.m. Mom will be at the Forty Fort Park. Dad will be there, too. Even Gram and Grandpa and all the kids will be there. And they'll all be wearing their running shoes.

That's the date set for the 5-mile "Run For the Family For The Health of It", to benefit the Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley. To honor Family Service on its 90th Anniversary, a volunteer committee has organized a run in which the whole family can participate, and enjoy a Sunday in the Park together. There are no age limits, and for the children, a special 1-Mile Fun Run is scheduled.

While all proceeds from the Run will go to help Family Service, all registrants in the run will be winners too. Sport-Jes, of Plymouth, is donating T-shirts to adult early entries, and baseball caps to the children. In addition to trophies to the winners, medals will be awarded in eight age categories for both sexes. All entrants will be eligible for drawings for an electric ceiling paddle fan, gift certificates donated by local stores and Dinners for Two awarded by leading restaurants.

The registration fee is $5.00 for the 5-Mile Run. Race day registration, from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. on April 28, at Forty Fort Park, Wyoming Ave., Forty Fort, is $6.00. The 5-Mile Run starts at 2 p.m. and begins and ends on the Forty Fort Park ground. The 1-Mile Children's Run starts at 2:15 p.m. and the registration fee is $1.00.

With the cooperation of the Wyoming Valley Striders, the area's largest running club, a well-marked, accurate course has been laid out. It runs through the streets of Forty Fort, mostly flat on paved roads. Splits will be given at the 1 and 2.5 mile marks, and a digital display clock will provide finishing times. The 5-Mile "Run For the Family" is expected to draw one of the largest fields for this type event in the Valley. To register or for more information, call Beth Ann Delaney, Family Service Association, 823-5144.

drops on our plate to represent the 10 plagues visited on the people of Egypt by God. The lamb bone on the tray is symbolic of the 10th plague, when Moses told the Jewish people to mark their homes with the blood of a lamb and God would pass over them and not slay their first born son.

Before the remaining passages of the Haggadah were read, dinner prepared by Mrs. Rosing was served — dinner of turkey, dressing, green beans, rolls, followed by dessert of fresh strawberries, five varieties of unleavened cookies, coffee or tea.

Then followed the rest of the Seder ritual, including the third cup of wine for redemption and the fourth cup for Elijah, who will come and there will be a new life in Jerusalem, symbolized by the egg "new life."

Thus the Seder or Passover Feast ended and the eight-day festival began.

Brothers perform

The Liva brothers, Victor, above left, and Ferdinand, Jr., above right, will perform Bach's Concert for Two Violins and Strings in D Minor on April 13 at Wyoming Seminary Lower School Auditorium.

Agreement was made with the recently formed Lehman Township Municipal Authority for use of the township building to conduct its business. The token charge of $1.00 per year rental fee was officially paid.

Township Solicitor Joseph Van Jura reported that the Planning and Zoning Commission had granted preliminary approval to the University Housing Partnership firm for the first phase of development in a planned apartment complex to house Penn State University students. The approval on this first phase of the construction is contingent upon some revisions being made on the preliminary plans, and, according to the Commission, will be viewed as a learning experience in that other revisions for further construction may be recommended after utilization of the first phase is scrutinized.

Registration open for Lake-Lehman course

The "Effective Parenting Skills" Course sponsored by the Lake-Lehman School District and corresponding parent-teacher groups is now open for registration to anyone.

The course will begin on Wednesday evenings 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. through May 22. Class time schedule will be adjusted for the convenience of participants. The location of the classes will be moved around the District in order to facilitate travel, as follows:

April 17-Lake-Noxen Elementary School

April 24-Lake-Noxen Elementary School

May 1-Lehman-Jackson Elementary School

May 8-Lake-Lehman Junior High School

May 15-Ross Elementary School

May 22-Ross Elementary School

The course will be conducted by Joanne Ennis, a certified Parent Effectiveness Instructor, who recently presented a "parent effectiveness orientation" for the Lake-Lehman Pre-School-Early Education Program. A partial list of topics-content is as follows:

Parents are also human; How to listen to your children, so they will share problems; How to talk to your children, so they will respect your needs; Ways to prevent and change unacceptable behavior; Dealing with conflict, avoiding power struggles; The "no-lose" method, putting your skills to work; How to avoid being "fired" as a parent; and others.

The course will be limited to 45 participants. Participants must be registered by Monday, April 15. There is a registration fee of $10 per participant, which covers course materials and a coffee break, however, Mom and Dad can register together for $15.
