Knights win

Coach John Baranowski's concern over his Lake-Lehman volleyball team's match with North Pocono was unfounded as his Black Knights defeated the Trojans in consecutive games of 15-11, 15-13, Thursday afternoon.

Dave Jachimowicz and Pat Hozempa played stellar roles in the Knights setting and defense with Greg Javer, Chris Kukosky and Dave Mosier playing excellent defense. The win moved the Knights record to 5-0 in the Wyoming Valley Conference.

The Trojans were paced by Mark Anelli, Dave Foster and Gary Kieran with their co-captain Doug Rigby out for the rest of the season with injuries to his thumbs.

The loss drops the North Pocono netters to 4-1.

Dallas Mountaineers picked up their first win of the season, Thursday, by defeating the Meyers Mohawks 15-3 and 15-1. The win gives the Mounts a 1-4 record while the Mohawks dropped to 0-5.

Mountaineers Matt Conologue led his teammates with 11 points and Chris Bush totalled six points on serves.

Reinhart is first

Paul Reinhart, of Lehman, hasn't competed in a race since 1980 but wanted to win just one more - and win, he did, as Reinhart finished with a time of 27.45 in Sunday's "Run for Fitness" race and was the first to cross the finish line. A science teacher at the Lake-Lehman Junior High School, Reinhart is currently taking science courses at the University of Scranton in preparation for a test to enter medical school. The 25-year-old Reinhart has been running for 10 years and claims he currently runs 60 miles a week. Reinhart was a track and cross-country standout during his high school days at Bishop O'Reilly and attended the University of Scranton on a cross-country scholarship.

Lady Mountaineers lose first

Dallas girls' softball team dropped its first league game last Thursday, 8-6 to the Nanticoke Trojans behind the pitching of Tracy Cave, who walked four and fanned two at the plate.

The Lady Mountaineers outthit the Trojans, collecting nine hits but hitting by Renee Pawlusch with three-for-four and no walks given up by the Trojans hurler Lynn Rasmus was too much for the young Mountaineers.

"We outthit them but our hits were scattered while they got theirs in bunches which made the difference," said Dallas Softball Coach Jay Pope. "The biggest problem was that we let the Trojans get too far in front. They were ahead of us by five runs at one time and going into the final inning they were in front by six. We had the tying run on base in the final frame but were unable to bring it in."

"Nanticoke is a powerful team and are a lot more experienced than we are. We are in the same position this season as they were last year. We are a young team and most of our pitchers are going against hurlers three years older. Our girls are developing with each game and are quick to learn. I'm pleased with the way they are progressing."

First baseman Tammy Daveski paced the Mountaineers at the plate with a pair of doubles and freshman Joyce Tinner and sophomore Heidi Scholz had two hits each.

Pope said the Mountaineers always try to get the first batter out but they were not successful in the game with the Trojans.

The Lady Mountaineers has Seton Catholic at home, Monday; Dallas at Northwest, Tuesday and Bishop O'Reilly at home, Friday. Their league record coming into this week was 2-1.

LADY KNIGHTS LOSE

Lady Knights of Lake-Lehman dropped their first league game last Thursday when Wyoming Valley West took them 13-3 with the game ending under the 10-3 rule.

The game was tied at 2-2 at the end of third inning after the Spartans pitcher Melissa Cooper gave up five walks to give the Lady Knights their first two runs.

With the bases loaded in the fifth inning Cindy Slocum walked with the bases loaded to give Lake-Lehman a 3-2 lead.

Both starting pitchers, Cooper and Beth Finn had problems with control which accounted for most of the runs.

In the fifth inning, the Spartans broke the game wide open with 11 runs, led by Kim Menkavitch who drove out a bases loaded three-bagger and Lori Allen, who knocked out a two-run single to account for five of the 11 runs. Tammy Benner, who came in as relief for Cooper, also had three hits and Debbie Pearn knocked out a triple for the Spartans.

Cooper walked five and fanned none and relief hurler Benner struck out five and walked only four. Finn struck out two and 10.

DEFEAT MEYERS

Earlier in the week, the Lady Knights defeated Meyers 7-5, coming from behind to overcome the Mohawks 4-3 lead. On Monday afternoon, the Lake-Lehman girls downed Wyoming Area 14-5, with Sandy Diction coming in as relief in the third inning when the Knights were in front 5-4.

Diction shut down the Warriors rally in the third and also helped at home plate hitting three-for-three, knocking out a single, double and a triple. She also drove in three runs.

In the fourth inning, the Lady Knights scored seven runs sparked by Kelly Siglin's two-run single. Kelly Wandel also helped the Knights in the scoring, going three-for-five at the plate.

Diction struck out three and walked six in the game. The Warriors Sue Severnak, credited with the loss, issued 10 walks but was unable to chalk up a strikeout.

The Lady Knights were scheduled to play Wyoming Seminary at home, Monday, and Crestwood, away, Wednesday. They play Pittston at home, Friday.
