Seminars

THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL of Northeastern Pennsylvania (EDCNP), and the Small Business Administration announced today that an all day Small Business Achievement Seminar will be held at the Woodlands An Inn, Route 315, Wilkes-Barre, on May 2.

The purpose of the seminar will be to assist local small businesses, industries, and entrepreneurs in achieving successful start-up ventures or continuation and expansion of their respective commercial or industrial enterprises. Howard J. Grossman, Executive Director of the Economic Development Council, indicated a variety of financial and technological opportunities will be presented at the seminar by experts in the fields of private sector financing at the federal, state and local levels, Ben Franklin Partnership, Small Business Development Center and others. Specialists will discuss identification of new business opportunities made possible through technology. Presentations will be made on opportunities for business to expand their service or produce markets in exporting and or federal and state government procurement. Special presentations will be made by successful small business operators from Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Valuable informational handouts will be made available.

Business persons wishing to attend the EDCNP Small Business Achievement Seminar may obtain further information by contacting Mr. Robert Murphy at the EDCNP, 1151 Oak Street, Pittston, Pa. 18640-3795 or phoning (717) 655-5581. Pre-registration fee is $25.00 per person and includes registration, handouts, luncheon and participation in a special wine and cheese reception immediately following the end of the seminar.

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL and psychologist Jeff Fremont, Ph.D. are currently accepting participants for a series of weight reduction seminar. The small-group sessions will be held weekly and are designed to help mild to moderately overweight individuals modify their behavior to achieve weight loss. A limited number of participants will be accepted in order to provide a more personalized approach to the weight reduction efforts. Both proper diet and exercise programs will be discussed. For more information, call 288-8795.

A SEMINAR ON "INTERNATIONAL AGENT-DISTRIBUTORS AGREEMENTS" will be held on Wednesday, April 24, at the Woodlands, An Inn, Route 315, Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. The seminar is sponsored by the Economic Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania (EDCNP), Small Business Administration, and the United States and Pennsylvania Departments of Commerce.

The seminar is designed for company decision makers of small and medium sized companies.

James N. Sicks, International Lawyer, with the law firm of Dechert Price & Rhoads, Philadelphia will conduct the seminar.

The registration fee for the seminar is $20.00 and this includes lunch and refreshments. For reservations, contact Charles Naples of the Council at 1151 Oak Street, Pittston Township, Pennsylvania 18640-3795 or phone 717-655-5581. The program begins at 12 noon with lunch and adjourns at 2:30 p.m.
