TODAY, MAY 1, is the Feast of Joseph the Worker. We pray earnestly for those seeking employment and for those whose employment is threatened by foreign trade.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Cardinal Designate John J. O'Connor, former Bishop of Scranton, now Bishop of the Archdiocese of New York. The Student Council has sent a congratulatory letter to Cardinal Designate O'Connor wishing him the best and promising our heartfelt prayers and support.

STUDENTS FROM SIXTH, SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADES have entered the Mother's Day Poetry Contest sponsored by The Times Leader. They were very happy to be able to express in poetry their love and affection for their mothers. Hopefully some will be selected for prizes.

THOSE WHO ATTENDED THE ST. LEO'S DANCE last Friday from the seventh and eighth grades enjoyed themselves so much that they have decided to reciprocate by having a dance on May 31 and inviting students from St. Leo's as guests. Ron Reino will be on stage as Disc Jockey for the evening. It should be a pleasurable evening.

FIRST GRADE STUDENTS enjoyed a field trip Friday at Northwest High School sponsored by the juniors and seniors of that school. They were very excited about going in the bus, taking their lunch and just enjoying nature. The PTG sponsors all the field trips at Gate of Heaven. We are very grateful to them for this.

SIXTH, SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE STUDENTS will be attending O'Reilly Bazaar on Friday, May 3. This year there will be an open-air Mass for First Friday and the students are invited to attend.

THE EIGHTH GRADE STUDENTS are preparing some entertainment to culminate their eight years at Gate of Heaven School. This program will take place at the PTG's last meeting of the year.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK: Mr. Simon is the sixth-grade teacher and enjoys teaching Math. He matriculated at Bloomsburg University with a major in history and a minor in math. His other interests are basketball, baseball, softball, fishing and football. He enjoys coaching and intends to coach the Gators this coming school year.

JOAN SEGRAVE-DALY, eighth grade student, was selected to be in the Scripps-Howard National Spelling Bee. The regional competition, held at Luzerne County Community College, and the WBRE-TV station took place on Saturday morning, April 27.

DALLAS SCHOOL NEWS

KAYO FUJIWARA is an exchange student from Iwate, Japan. She comes to us through the Rotary Club. Kayo is presently staying with Mr. and Mrs. Farinola of Mountain View, Dallas. Kayo has previously stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Dallas and the Bairds of Trucksville.

On Aug. 1, Kay will be returning to Japan to complete her high school education which will terminate in March. After completing high school Kayo plans to attend a trade school to study design or carving for two years. Dallas has enjoyed having Kayo attend our school and we wish her luck in the future.

BILLY SWANN is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stetson of Dallas. Billy is the treasurer of the senior class and a member of the Key Club. He is also an employee at Franklin's Restaurant. In his spare time Billy enjoys writing poetry and short stories. Billy will be attending Indiana University in Pennsylvania.

KATIE WINN is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winn of New Goss Manor in Dallas. Katie is interested in music and has played the guitar for two years and the piano for six years. After graduation, Katie will attend the University of North Carolina at Greensboro to major in English.

SUE YALE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Yale of Orange. Sue is interested in jogging and basketball and she has been an active participant in racketball for two years. After graduation, Sue will seek employment and attend a local college to major in Hotel and Restaurant Management.

GOOD LUCK TO THE DALLAS BAND when they travel to Virginia Beach to compete. The band will be leaving on May 2 and will be returning on May 4. During the trip the band will enjoy a dinner on a nighttime cruise, a trip to Busch Gardens and of course, stiff competition. Good luck and enjoy yourselves.

THE HAPPIEST BIRTHDAY WISHES go out to Lisa Kern and Lorena Beniquez on their 18th birthday. The two celebrated their day in "style." Joining them was their great friend Shelli Kohli! Have a happy birthday and let it continue throughout the year!
