

Community Calendar

Theater

RAM III, LTD. PRODUCTION COMPANY for Pocono Playhouse invites the young, young at heart, and families of the community to participate and work with our professional cast of actors in this very special RAM III production of Jesus Christ Superstar.

One audition will be held on Tuesday, May 21, at 7 p.m. at the Pocono Playhouse located on Playhouse Lane, just off Rte. 390 and 191 in Mountainhome, Pa.

For further information, please call 717-595-7456.

Dinners

THE ANNUAL SPRING CHICKEN BAR-B-QUE DINNER of the Trucksville United Methodist Church will be May 3 and May 4. It will be held in the Educational Building with the serving starting at 5 p.m.-7 p.m. Takeouts will be available starting at 4:30 p.m.

David Mathers is general chairman assisted by Walter Pickert, tickets, 675-0331. You may also call Vought Long 696-2666 or James Reynolds 696-2469. Rev. Thomas Clemow is pastor.

THE DALLAS CHAPTER OF UNICO NATIONAL will hold a dinner meeting at the Castle Inn, Memorial Highway, Dallas, on Wednesday, May 8 starting at 7 p.m.

In conjunction with "Be Kind to Animal Week" the program will include guest speakers from the S.P.C.A.

Reservations for dinner must be made no later than May 6 by calling 675-1163.

The meeting is open to the public and anyone who is interested is welcome to attend.

Events

REPRESENTATIVES FROM THE ADMISSIONS OFFICE of Luzerne County Community College will be available at the Wilkes-Barre Employment Office on Wednesday, May 1, from 9 a.m. to noon.

The college officials will be on hand to answer questions and distribute information on the college's credit and non-credit offerings.

THE ANNUAL SPRING LUNCHEON of the Philharmonic League of Wilkes-Barre will be held on Tuesday, May 7 in the Princess Room at Genetti's Best Western Motor Inn. The social hour will start at 12:30 followed by luncheon at 1 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the Madrigal Singers of Wyoming Seminary Lower School. For reservations please contact the Philharmonic office at 287-1916.

THE WILKES-BARRE CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S CLUB will conduct a breakfast buffet on Wednesday, May 15, at Gus Genetti's Restaurant, Market Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Nancy Sulliff of Shickshinny will be the speaker while Paula Brown of Dallas will provide music and Steve Kelly, transplant specialist from Geisinger Medical Center, Danville, will provide a program entitled "Gift of Life."

Cost is $4.75. For reservations, call Fran Gilbert at 696-3756 or Vera Kresge at 824-5937.

ON MAY 3, 4, 5, 1985 Irem Temple's Oriental Band will be holding a "Cherry Blossom Jamboree" at which time they will be host for all of the Oriental Bands in the Mid-Atlantic Shrine Oriental Band Association, as well as, those in the surrounding districts.

Band competition will begin at 12 noon on Saturday May 4, at the Irem Temple Mosque and will be open to the public free of charge.

Honorary Chairman of the "Cherry Blossom Jamboree" will be Irem Temple's Walter Masters, President of Mid-Atlantic Shrine Oriental Band Association.

An invitation to attend is extended to all.

Awards Banquet will be held Saturday, May 4 at the Woodlands Inn, Route 315, Plains Township, at 7 p.m. Gerald L. Miller is General Co-chairman, assisted by Emmanuel W. Chase and Joseph T. Herbert.

SOLO CLUB of Luzerne County announces the schedule for May as follows:

May 4, Dancing at American Legion in Plains, 9:30.

May 11, Dancing at Dupont V.F.W. 9:30.

May 18, Dancing at Carriage Post Inn, 9:30.

May 25, Dancing at Chet's in Moosic, 9:30.

At a recent meeting plans were made for the annual picnic to be held in Exeter on July 27. Persons interested in joining can call for information Gene Shray 675-1704.

Betty Yuskoski 288-7783, Doris Skurka 562-0428.

THE SOCIAL CLUB of the Meadows Apartments, 220 Lake Street, Dallas, will hold its third annual Spring Festival on Thursday, May 9 between 10 a.m. and 6 p.m.

Chairman of the affair is Peg Williams. All items sold will be handcrafted by the residents, which will include: Handmade arts and crafts, handpainted ceramics, freshly homemade baked goods, also plants, attic treasures, and rummage.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be sold.

Classes

THE MERCY HOSPITAL, Wilkes-Barre, Wellness Center, in conjunction with the Hospital's Obstetrics and Physical Medicine Departments, will begin its next series of "Preparation for Childbirth" classes on Wednesday, May 15. This program focuses on the last three months of pregnancy.

In addition to the class starting on May 15, other classes scheduled are: September 4 - October 9, and October 30 - December 4, 1985.

For further information, call the Mercy Wellness Center at 826-3267.

Sales

THE SHAVERTOWN FIRE CO. LADIES AUXILIARY will hold a Rummage and White Elephant Sale on Friday, May 3, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday, May 4, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the fire hall, Main Street.

Saturday will also be $1 a bag day.

THE 33RD ANNUAL ANTIQUES SHOW AND SALE sponsored by the Women of Prince of Peace Episcopal Church will be held on Friday, May 3 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturday, May 4 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the church's Parish House on Main Street, Dallas.

The Show will feature 13 antique dealers, a flower mart, and a flea market. A snack bar will provide delicious homemade soups, sandwiches, and pies throughout the show. A Victorian crystal decanter with a tear drop stopper will be awarded as door prize.

The public is cordially invited to attend this fine spring Back Mountain event. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Free parking is provided.

Concerts

ON SUNDAY, MAY 19, at 7:30 p.m., the Chestnut Brass Company of Philadelphia will be at the Shavertown United Methodist Church in the Fifth Annual Spring Candlelight Concert which is sponsored by the Fine Arts Committee.

The Chestnut Brass Company is a versatile and acclaimed quintet and presents a program of baroque, classical, jazz and ragtime music. With each of the five members being a skilled soloist in his own right, their combined efforts have favorably impressed the music scene since their repertoire offers appeal to music lovers of all ages.

The Fine Arts Committee of Shavertown UM Church has in recent years sponsored a variety of programs in their concert series. Artists outstanding in their fields have been presented along with various art forms. The Orpheus Choral Society, under the direction of Gordon Evans, is included in the Fall Season's schedule.

Members of the Fine Arts Committee are Helen Earles, chairperson, Joan Williams, Michael Miller, Robert Deebie, Alice Niskey, Doris Parsons, Lois Cook, John Rogers, Shirley Smith and James Wert.

The Shavertown UM Church is located on the corner of West Center Street and North Pioneer Avenue. The Reverend James A. Wert is pastor, The Reverend Harriet L. Santos is Associate Pastor, and Michael S. Miller is Music Director.

THE MESSIAH COLLEGE SINGERS, a talented group of 18 vocalists, will perform at Dallas Baptist Church on Saturday, May 4, at 7 p.m.

Under the direction of Dr. Ronald L. Miller, the Singers will render selections by such composers as Brahms, Butler and Rutter. Several hymn and folk song arrangements by John Ness Beck and Fred Bock will be included, also, along with several settings of hymn texts by the contemporary hymn writer, Bryan Jeffrey Leech.

Accompanied by Aleta Crone, a sophomore music education major at Messiah, the Singers will be presenting several concerts a month during the 1984-1985 academic year. They are featured regularly on the weekly radio program, "Music from Messiah College."

Dr. Ronald Miller, chairman of the Music Department, joined Messiah's faculty in 1968. He holds a B.S. in music education from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, and the M.M. and Ph.D. in musicology from the School of Music, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. He has conducted the Messiah College Singers since 1980.

Lectures

DR. MARTHA E. ROGERS, R.N., will present a lecture entitled, "Review of Rogers' Theoretical Nursing Model, Its Applicability to the Undergraduate and Staff Nursing Role," on May 3 at 7 p.m. in Merrick Hall at College Misericordia, Dallas.

The author of three books, Dr. Rogers has also published more than 200 articles in nursing and health journals. As a lecturer, she has presented several hundred professional papers to nurses, public health officials and medical and hospital personnel throughout the nation and in several foreign countries.

Reservations for this free lecture can be made by calling Misericordia's division of nursing at 675-2181.

DR. A. RICHARD KENDALL, professor and chairman of the urology department at Temple University School of Medicine, will speak to area physicians on the topic "Urinary Tract Infections." The lecture, which will be held on Thursday, May 9, at 11 a.m. in the Nesbitt Medical Arts Building, is part of the Continuing Physician Education Program at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Dr. Kendall is a member of the American Association of Clinical Urologists and a member of the Canadian Urological Association. Education at Franklin and Marshall College and Temple University School of Medicine, he is the author of Obstructive Uropathy: Prostatism in Fundamentals of Urology and Malignant Tumors of the Kidney in Children.

The program, under the direction of Dr. William Boyle, chairman of the Medical Education and Library Committee, is designed to form a link between laboratory concepts and the care of patients in the office setting.

Seminars

THE ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL OF NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA (EDCNP), International Trade Administration and the Small Business Administration (SBA) announced that registrations are still being accepted for an all-day Small Business Achievement Seminar to be held at the Woodlands Inn, Route 315, Wilkes-Barre, Pa. on May 2.

Persons wishing to attend should pre-register for the EDCNP Small Business Achievement Seminar by contacting staff person Robert Murphy at the Council, 1151 Oak Street, Pittston, Pa, 18640-3795, or phoning (717) 655-5581. The registration fee is $25. and includes registration, handouts, luncheon and participation in the special wine and cheese reception.

"UNDERSTANDING THE MEDIA" will be the topic of the Leadership Wilkes-Barre program May 2 at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman, from 8:45 a.m. to 5 p.m. This seminar is one of the 10 held during the year for participants in the leadership training program.

Kit Seelye, an editor of the Philadelphia Inquirer, will talk on "The Role of the Media in Modern Day Society," and she will moderate a panel of local news media representatives.

Panelists include Rick mates of WEJL Radio, Paul Gollas of the Citizens Voice newspaper, Paul Steuber of WNEP-TV and Allison Walzer Danoff of the Times Leader newspaper. Ms. Danoff also will conduct a news simulation exercise.

Bill Bachman, public relations director of PG&W will present a lesson in "How to Be Interviewed or Facing the Media."

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Planning committee

Shown here are members of the committee planning the 33rd Annual Antiques Show and Sale sponsored by the Women of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, Dallas. From left, Richard Ford, Sandy Ford, Lois Townsend, Anne Goeringer, Carol Keefer, and Marie Eyt. (Photo by Ed Campbell)

Antiques Show and Sale set

The 33rd annual Antiques Show and Sale sponsored by the Women of Prince of Peace Episcopal Church will be held on Friday, May 3 from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. and on Saturday, May 4 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the church's Parish House on Main Street, Dallas.

Lois Townsend, general chairman and co-chairman, Carol Keefer extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend this fine spring Back Mountain event.

Aine Goeringer, dealer chairman, has announced the following dealers will exhibit at the Show: Turn of the Century Antiques; Patches and Primitives; K & A Treasures; Country Club Antiques; Red Barn Antiques; The Willows; The Silo; The Horseshoe Barn; Cider Mill Antiques; Bittersweet Antiques; Lillian Weidner; Dale Myers; and Antiques Etcetera.

Featured at the Show will be furniture, brass, china, jewelry, dolls (including German Bisque dolls), prints and paintings, accessories, silver, copper, procelain, lamps, linens, cut and pattern glass, wicker, small oriental rugs, primitives and collectibles.

Kitchen chairman, Cheryl Richardson assisted by Edna Yatsko will provide a snack bar which will feature delicious homemade soups, sandwiches, and pies throughout the hours of the Show.

A flower mart under the direction of Pamela Paculavich and Jane Slaff will display hanging baskets, house plants, bedding plants, and dried flowers. A flea market, headed by Pauline Roth, Betty Stanley, Arlene Evans, and Beverly Todd, will feature antiques and almost antiques in the lower level of the Parish House.

Other committee members include Marie Eyt and Jan Goeringer, publicity; Margaret Anderson, waitresses; Sarah Welker, calling; Rick and Sandy Ford, restoration; Doris Maturi, hospitality; Ingrid Prater, finance; Almenia Evans, admissions; and Gail Ide, advisor.

A Victorian crystal decanter with a tear drop stopper, donated by Kathryn Hall of Antiques Etcetera, will be awarded as door prize. Tickets may be purchased at the door or in advance from members of the Churchwomen. Free parking is provided.

Edna Yatsko is president of the Churchwomen and The Reverend John S. Prater is rector of the Prince of Peace Church.

Following the program, Leadership Wilkes-Barre alumni headed by Frank Pasquini will join this year's "class" to hear an update on the Committee on Economic Growth's efforts to attract new industry and improve the business climate for present businesses; speaker will be Dr. James Ryan, campus executive officer for Penn State Wilkes-Barre and an officer of CEG.

Programs

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN CHURCH, Shavertown, is offering a three week program for Adults who want to grow in their ability to parent teenagers.

The sessions will begin on May 1 and continue on May 8, 15, from 7:30-9:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Topics that will be discussed are:

Parents: Born or Made? Forces that Form Us?; Control vs. Freedom; Feeling the Pull?; "Values in the 80's."

Alice Howard, a counselor in the Life Enrichment Program of Lutheran Welfare Service, will lead the sessions. Ms. Howard is on the staff at Kirkridge, an ecumenical retreat and study center near Bangor, Pa. Ms. Howard and her minister husband, who is also on the staff at Kirkridge, are co-authors of "Exploring the Road Less Traveled" published this spring by Simon and Schuster. This study guide for groups grew out of the Howard's extensive work with groups focusing on both psychological and spiritual growth and using the best seller by Dr. M. Scott peck "The Road Less Traveled". Alice's first love is working with parents whom she sees as God's Very Important People.

Cost for the program is $5 per person or couple, and is open to anyone wishing to grow in the ability to become a parent. Reservations can be obtained from either Pastor Lynn Rothrock, pastor of St. Paul's or from the church office which is open from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays or Wednesday evening before the session begins.

THE COMMERCE CLUB of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce will welcome Clifford L. Jones, President of the Pennsylvania State Chamber, at the final session of its luncheon series. The program will be held on Friday, May 3 at Genetti's Best Western beginning with a cash bar at 11:45 a.m.

Jones' topic will be: "Pennsylvania's Economy: Today and Tomorrow."

Reservations for the program may be made by calling the Chamber office at 823-2101. The cost is $8.00 members and $10 non-members.

THREE TECHNOLOGY PROGRAMS - Computer Science, Dietetic Technology and Emergency Medical Services - are expected to attract a diverse student age group to Luzerne County Community College because of a strong relationship to today's job market.

The program is open to students with no previous experience in the emergency medical services area and to current practitioners who wish to challenge previous Emergency Medical Technician and Paramedic course work for college credit.

For further information on any of the technology programs offered at Luzerne County Community College, contact the Admissions Office, 829-7300.

A UNIQUE PROGRAM commemorating the 40th anniversary of the conclusion of World War II will be conducted by Luzerne County Community College on Wednesday, May 1, beginning at 1 p.m.

The program, which is being coordinated by Fred Walters, assistant professor at LCCC; will be conducted at the college's Educational Conference Center and will include presentations on the history of World War II, films from the era of the conflict and first-hand accounts of the fighting by regional veterans.

The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of the program events. For further information contact Fred Walters at Luzerne County Community College, 829-7415.

Meetings

LAKE-LEHMAN ALL SPORTS BOOSTER CLUB will hold bi-monthly meeting Thursday, May 2 at Joe's Grotto, Harveys Lake. The meeting will commence at 8 p.m.

President, Don Weidner will preside. General public is encouraged to attend.

(More CALENDAR, page 17)

BIG TOP RENTALS

RESERVE YOUR TENT EARLY

Weddings Graduations Parties Showers, etc. All Colorful Tents	Phone <h1 style="font-size: 2em;">654-0928</h1> Day or Evening	Guaranteed Best Rates
---	---	------------------------------

BIG TOP

Announces A LARGE VARIETY of

- PARTY FOODS
- PICNIC FOODS
- SPECIALTY ITEMS
- BAKED GOODS

Now Taking Orders For Your Next Occasion

Call 654-0928 or 693-2172

"We Just Taste Expensive"

FRANK'S ARCO
 Memorial Hwy., Dallas
 675-2662

Open Mon.-Sat. 5 a.m.-12 midnight
 Sun. 7 a.m.-11 p.m.
 For gas sales and service.

Garage Hours
 Mon.-Fri. 8 a.m. to 9 p.m.
 Sat. 8 a.m.-2 p.m.
 For general auto repairs, servicing and electric power tool repairs.

Democrats — Republicans

VOTE FOR CAPPPELLINI

A TRIAL LAWYER FOR JUDGE

Paid for by the Cappellini for Judge Committee