Events

THE WYOMING HISTORICAL AND GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY is sponsoring a Spring House Tour and Garden Luncheon on Wednesday, June 5, from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. The event is being chaired by Sannie Cornell of Shavertown.

Five lovely homes in the Kingston area will be featured on this year's tour, illustrating the theme of "Architecture through the Ages."

The Garden Luncheon will be served on the grounds of Wyoming Seminary from 11:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. On display at Wyoming Seminary will be the antique Amish quilts from the collection of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kutish.

A raffle is also being planned with a beautiful watercolor painting by well-known local artist Phil Richards as the prize.

Members of the Society active in planning the day include: Sannie Cornell, general chair; Francie Wartella, luncheon chair; Lucille Parker, hostesses; Roseanna Foote, tickets; and Estella Parker Killian, publicity.

Tickets for the tour may be purchased at the Society's office at 49 South Franklin Street at a cost of $5.00 each. Luncheon tickets are available at $7.00 each and reservations must be made by June 1.

All proceeds from the event will benefit the Wyoming Historical and Geological Society.

THE OLDEST HOUSE HISTORICAL SOCIETY of Laceyville will hold their "kick-off" event for the summer season with the ninth annual Book and Plant Sale, Saturday, May 18. The doors will open at 10 a.m. (or earlier and the sale will continue until 4 p.m. (at least).

Houseplants, bedding, and garden plants will be sold and books will be offered - both hardcovers and paperbacks at very low prices. There will also be bundles of good magazines, some wren houses and other items.

Lunches will be available from the kitchen and a display of pieced quilts and coverlets will be shown in the big front room of the home.

Everyone is invited and the old landmark is easily reached by any of the three exits from Route 6 to Main St. of the town.

MEMBERS OF THE BACK MOUNTAIN KIWANIS and Lake-Lehman Key Club will provide refreshments to the Special Olympics' contestants and their attendants. This is an annual event and will be held on Saturday morning, May 18, at Pittston High School Stadium.
