MEMBERS OF THE WYOMING VALLEY POETRY SOCIETY are reminded that there is no meeting scheduled for the month of May.

Those who wish to display two of their poems at the Society's booth in the Fine Arts Fiesta must submit them in a frame at least 5 inches by 7 inches, together with a wire and hook to hang them.

Poems may be dropped off at Tom Hart Realtors, c/o John Romanowski, 96 South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre, no later than Tuesday, May 28.

Further information may be obtained from Beatrice Romanowski of Shavertown or from Michele Revitt Studios, 824-6881.

Classes

THE WILKES-BARRE YMCA will be beginning their next session of swim lessons for children ages 6 through 14 the week of May 27. Registration is now being accepted and advanced registration is required.

The grade school swim program is a National YMCA Progressive Swim Program in which a child is placed on a level of his ability. There are 7 different levels starting with the Polliwag (Beginner level) all the way up to the Porpoise (Advanced level). In each level the child is taught a new stroke, their endurance is built up and new safety skills are added. At the top level they are introduced to all areas of aquatics including the following competitive swimming, teaching swimming, lifeguarding, synchronized swimming.

This session will begin the week of May 27 and run for 5 weeks. The classes will meet once a week. The next summer session will begin the first week of July. Registration will be held in June. For further information call the "Y" at 823-2191.

THE WILKES-BARRE YMCA is now accepting registrations for their next session of Water Adjustment classes for babies age 3 months to 3 years. The classes are designed to adjust the child to the water and keep them happy in and around the water.

The instructor of the class guides the parent and the parent is the child's teacher. The instructor will guide the parent in teaching basic readiness skills for swimming. The classes will begin the week of May 27.

There are a wide variety of class days and times. For further information, call the "Y" at 823-2191.

DUE TO THE INCREASED DEMAND for personnel who are certified to carry a lethal weapon, the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College will offer a Lethal Weapons Training class at the college's main campus in Nanticoke.

The class, which is being offered in compliance with the Pennsylvania Act 235 which requires all security agents in the Commonwealth to become certified to carry a lethal weapon, will be offered on Monday and Wednesday evenings, from 6 to 10, beginning June 3.

Among the topics that will be discussed during the course are constitutional authority, justification, authority to arrest, laws of evidence, Pennsylvania crime code, unarmed and armed defense, statements and confessions, testifying in court, introduction to firearms, bull's eye shooting, introduction to combat shooting, and combat shooting on range.

The lethal weapons certification resulting from the successful completion of this course is valid for a period of five years, and completion of the course also qualifies students for certification by the Pennsylvania State Police. For those individuals who are already certified and whose certification is in jeopardy of expiration, a recertification component also exists.

For further information on the Lethal Weapons Program contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College, 829-7477.

THE WYOMING VALLEY CHAPTER AMERICAN RED CROSS will conduct a Multimedia First Aid Instructor class, June 17 and 24 at 7-10 p.m. at the Chapter House, 156 S. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre board room. The cost is $10.00, pre-registration is required, sent to the Wyoming Valley Chapter.

Prerequisite is a current MMFA card or Standard First Aid card. Minimum age is 17 years. To register, call 823-7161.
