Top ranking students of the Dallas Senior High School were presented with awards last Thursday at the annual Honors Banquet held at Irem Temple Country Club.

Eighty-six honor students, in addition to their parents, faculty members, board members, administrators and special guests attended the dinner and presentation.

School Board Director Donald Jones presented Professor James

Fehlner, Ph.D., Penn State University, guest speaker, who spoke on the insight into beauty and the value of continuing higher education.

Honor certificates were presented by department chairmen to the highest ranked sophomore, junior and senior in art, business, English, foreign languages, healthy, physical education, home economics, industrial arts, mathematics, music, science, environmental studies and social studies.

Guidance coordinator Patricia Russin and Michael Shevock presented special awards as follows: Hugh O'Brien Scholarship to sophomore Mark Richardson; Pennsylvania Free Enterprise, Junior Michele Lamoreaux; Wilkes College Presidential Scholarship, Senior David Garber; Jets Team winners, Peter Morcos, Dave Dillon; Dallas Federated Women's Scholarship, Kim Rollman, Stan Koprowski; Jaycees Scholarship, Sharon Dougherty; Lions Scholarship, John Kutz; Dallas Lioness Scholarship, Christine Cavallari; National Scholar-Athlete Award, Matthew Medura; Pennsylvania Junior Miss finalist $11,000 scholarship, Judy Fitch; Wilkes-Barre Campus Penn State Freshman Scholarship, Eric Supey.

Certificates of Commendation in the 1985 National Merit Scholarship program were presented to David Dillon and Thomas Sudol. Junior Peter Morcos was presented as the finalist in the Pennsylvania Governor's School for the Sciences and semi-finalists in the Pennsylvania Governor's School for the Arts were Sophomores Barbara Davies, Victor Liva, Heather Nattress; and Junior Kathleen McKewon. Michele Lamoreaux and Marilyn Ward were honored as 4.0 students and students presented from the Presidential Academic Fitness Awards were Amy Aston, David Dillon, Sharon Dougherty, Matthew Eichorn, David Garber, Ruth Gavazzi, Jeffrey Hall, John Kutz, Matthew Medura, Thomas Sudol, Eric Supey and Keith Wasilewski.

Induction of new members into the Dallas High School Chapter, National Honor Society, was held prior to the presentation of all certificate and scholarships, in a ceremony conducted by Society President Kelly Saba. Miss Saba carried a lighted candle which she explained was a symbol of the Light of Knowledge. She led the members in the pledge of the Honor Society as they and former members of the society lit their candles from the lighted one she held, and carried them back to their tables.

Senior David Garber was presented as valedictorian of the senior class of 1985 and Thomas Sudol was presented as salutatorian of the class of 1985.

MOTLALEPULA CHABAKU

Conference scheduled

The Luzerne County Women's Conference, the first such conference of its kind in the area, will be held June 1, 1985 at Penn State Wilkes-Barre in Lehman. This event is being co-sponsored by 45 area organizations concerned about women's issues.

The day-long conference will kick off with Keynote Speaker, Motlalepula Chabaku, a native of South Africa, whose speech entitled "Joining Hands" will address the potential that is within each person to make an impact on the world around us.

The afternoon will feature a panel of Hollywood ex-wives: Patti Lewis, Lynn Landon and Jackie Joseph, who founded the group, L.A.D.I.E.S. (Life After Divorce Is Eventually Sane). They will share their experiences with divorce in Hollywood.

Conference participants will have a choice of three of 32 workshops designed to appeal to women of all ages, backgrounds and interests. Some topics are: Access to Jobs, Combining Career with Motherhood, Mother-Daughter-Granddaughter, Your Financial Future, Behind Bars, Feminization of Poverty, Preventing Child Sexual Assault, Women in Depression, A Woman's Place Is In the House and Senate, Options to Caregivers, Eating Behaviors.

In addition to workshops, the conference will feature films and displays. The cost of the conference, including lunch is $12.00, and scholarships are available. Child care will be provided.

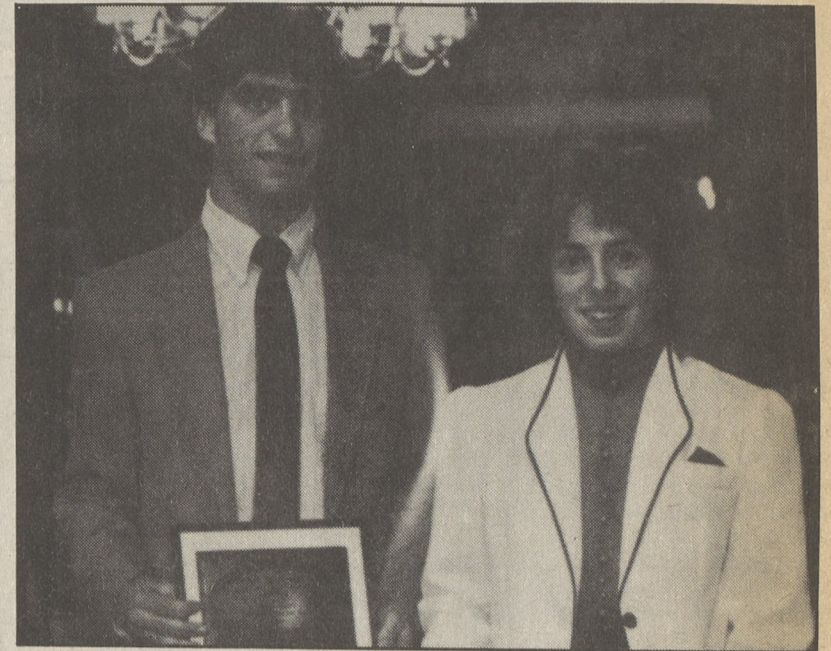

For more information, call Penn State (675-2171, extension 276). Registration is from 8 a.m. to 8:50 a.m.
