WITH THE END OF THE SCHOOL YEAR approaching, Scout troops will be holding their court of awards ceremonies to complete their scouting year.

Last week, Junior Girl Scout Troop 633 Shavertown, hosted their parents at a lovely court of awards ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. The girls presented a short skit on what Girl Scouting means to them followed by a lovely tea. Many thanks to Mrs. Karen Adams and her assistant leader Linda for giving the girls a wonderful, fun-filled year.

Many people don't realize the time and effort leaders must put in to make a troop year interesting and exciting. Special thanks to all scout leaders for their hard work and concern for young people.

GATE OF HEAVEN SCHOOL CAFETERIA is operated by a wonderful staff of three women, Barbara Hagen, Betty Dowd and Carol Yatsko. As anyone who volunteers in the cafeteria knows, they are very appreciative of any time given.

Recently to show their appreciation for all the volunteers, the cafeteria staff treated us to a gourmet luncheon, Turkey Wellington, green beans almondine, sweet potatoes, tossed salad, strawberry cake, blueberry pie, and lemon squares. The food was absolutely delicious.

So, a special thank you to the cafeteria staff, Sister Davida and Father Cusick for a marvelous luncheon.

GATE OF HEAVEN EIGHTH GRADE presented a very entertaining Talent Show last Wednesday. The Talent Show was held in conjunction with the final Parent-Teacher Guild meeting for the school year.

The fairy tale Cinderella, was presented in a very unusual, hilarious fashion. Other acts include a vaudeville-like dialogue on baseball, a lip sync and imitation of Michael Jackson that was excellent, several commercials that had a good dose of humor added to them. The class sang for the first time the recently composed Gate of Heaven Alma Mater, and their fantastic rendition of We Are The World.

I have just one comment, BRAVO!

Hold bake sale

The bake sale that took place in front of the Shavertown Acme recently wasn't an ordinary one. Selling delicious homemade baked goods were the members of Junior Girl Scout Troop 644, under the leadership of Ellen Campbell, Joyce VanFleet and Cindy Evans. The scouts, living up to their promise to help others, donated the proceeds of $108 they earned at the sale to the Children's Room of the Back Mountain Memorial Library to purchase new books. Mrs. Marilyn Rudolph, children's librarian, was most grateful and pleased to receive the donation. The scouts, their leaders and Mrs. Rudolph decided to purchase books on safety, folklore and mysteries for the library. Shown here at the sale are, from left, first row, Jennifer VanFleet, Jennifer Cole, Dianna Emery, Marilyn Rudolph, children's librarian. Second row, Barbie Campbell, Jessica Evans, Jennifer Labinski, Luann Naugle. Third row, Cindy Evans, Ellen Campbell, Joyce VanFleet.
